Rabbinic Reflections

The year 2015 has come to close, ending with signs of both sadness and joy. Early in December, tragedy struck in our own backyard. Terrorists killed 14 people and injured nearly two dozen more at the Inland Regional Center in San Bernardino. Hours later, law enforcement officials discovered an arsenal that was stockpiled by those terrorists here in Redlands, only minutes from our congregation. This tragic event has shaken our sense of safety and security in our own homes. We begin to walk with a little more caution, but also with a little more fear. We weep with our neighbors at the senseless killing perpetrated in the name of religion. Our community has come together to raise money in support the victims, pray in memory of those killed, and ask for healing for those who were injured. The interfaith religious leaders of our community have come together for prayer vigils, press releases, and media interviews. But we must not stop at mere words. We must demand that the leadership of our country takes action to address both of the problems that were at the root of the violence that shook our community—international terrorism and the epidemic of gun violence in America. As individuals, we must do our part as well. The most important thing that we can do is to live our lives—we cannot walk around scared because of this event and other events like it—for if we do, the terrorists win. And we will not let them win!

Instead of focusing on sadness and terror, we will celebrate our joys. December also brought great joy, with the celebration of the miracle of Chanukkah and our inaugural Shabbaton weekend. I write these words having just returned from an inspiring weekend at Camp Mountain Chai in Angeles Oaks, with a group of Congregation Emanu El members who were the chalutzim (pioneers) of this new Shabbaton program. Snow was on the ground when we arrived and more fell as we gathered in front of the fireplace on Saturday night. We began Friday evening with a traditional Shabbat dinner followed by Kabbalat Shabbat services. Saturday was filled with morning prayers, Torah study, archery, sledding, family game night and much more. There was great joy in disconnecting from the tether of electronics and the 24-hour news cycle, and just breathing in Shabbat, enjoying the beautiful scenery and sharing each other's company. Next year we will return with more friends to share the experience.

Life is filled with joys and sorrows. As we begin the year 2016, may we continue to support each other in times of sorrow, and may we continue to celebrate the joys. And may the joys far outnumber the sorrows! Amen!

Kol tuv,

Rabbi Jay Sherwood

Choir Shabbat 1/22/2016 -
Exodus, 15:11 (B'shalach)

Happy 2016! I want to jump right in and draw your attention to this month's worship schedule – normally, our Choir Shabbat is on the third Friday of the month, but we are blessed to begin our secular New Year with not only four, but FIVE Fridays! On the fourth Shabbat of January we'll be reading Beshalach – the Torah portion also known as Shabbat Shirah or the 'Shabbat of Song' therefore, that service will also feature our wonderful Congregation Emanu El choir. And...because Shabbat Shirah just about corresponds with the yahrzeit of Singer-songwriter, Debbie Friedman, z.l., you can look forward to a special Shabbat with many of Debbie's melodies that have so richly influenced Jewish synagogue worship liturgy throughout the world.

May the spirit and power of music bring joy to the hearts and souls of all who enter our synagogue walls – may 2016 be a year of renewed hope, happiness and peace to all.

B'Shira -
Cantor Jennifer Bern-Vogel

Presidential Perspectives

As we enjoy the holiday season, we are all trying to process the acts of violence that have taken place in San Bernardino and Redlands. I find it almost impossible to comprehend the scope of the crimes, the impact on the families of the victims and the effects, both immediate and long term, felt by our communities. These unspeakable acts have made it apparent that a review of Congregation Emanu El's emergency response procedures is in order. We have taken the matter(s) under consideration at the December board meeting. Our congregation is fortunate to have as a member Phil Holder, a member of an area police force, who will guide us in these discussions and serve as a liaison to the Redlands Police Department. We are resolved to begin 2016 with a heightened awareness of the dangers that surround us and a firm plan to respond to emergencies, be they naturally occurring or man-made.

In the days that followed the shooting, our clergy Rabbis Sherwood and Cohn and Cantor Jennifer Bern-Vogel, participated in a community prayer vigil at Our Lady of the Rosary in San Bernardino, helping the surrounding communities cope with and heal from the violence. In addition, Rabbi Sherwood was a part of the community prayer vigil at the Islamic Center in Redlands and Rabbi Cohn spoke at the Mayor's prayer vigil in San Bernardino. Due to the proximity of our congregation to the events, Rabbi Sherwood became an early conduit of information to the press in Israel, conducting many interviews by phone and appearing on talk radio as well. For all that they did in the cause of dealing with the crisis and healing our communities, I commend and thank them.

The Board of directors considered the "brainstorming" list at the December meeting and has determined which activities will be most successful. We are grateful for the enthusiastic attendance and participation.

Emily and I wish you and your families a safe, productive and joyous 2016!

L'Hitraot,

Craig Beasley

Sisterhood Speaks

On behalf of our Sisterhood board, I hope all had a wonderful Chanukah filled with light and joy as well as a happy and healthy New Year.

December was a month that began with heavy hearts and disbelief, as our local area was subjected to an act of terror. Please know that our thoughts and hearts are with those affected by the events of December 2nd in San Bernardino. Our Temple has a deep and rich history within the San Bernardino community and shares in prayers for our surrounding congregations and Sisterhoods of all types to help each other heal. Thank you to both Rabbi Sherwood and Rabbi Cohn for providing a source of comfort and spiritual compass during these difficult times. Thank you to our CEE Sisters who provided each other words and acts of kindness. At these times our hearts beat as one.

On December 13th we had a delicious and fun filled Chanukah-dinner, organized by the awesome duo of Michelle Kaufman and Samita Needelman -- thank you ladies!

Our next event is the much-anticipated Casino Night on January 30th!! Please make sure to RSVP as soon as possible and consider taking advantage of becoming an underwriter . . . please contact Stacy Knox or Jill Weissman for details!

February 15th will be our "Maj" Tournament- a day filled with friends, games, prizes and food. Please contact Carol Wizer or Paula Kaye to donate items for baskets, food or your time in helping throughout the tournament and day.

Our next meeting will be January 10th at 10:00 a.m. and all are welcome to attend.

Best,

Francesca Sweet

Temple Board of Directors Meeting Thursday - January 21, 2016 7:00 pm

Members of the congregation are always welcome to attend the meetings of the Board and to participate in its deliberations

Treasurer's Report

My friends,

The month of November brought mostly good news to your treasurer's desk. Income of $55,000 exceeded expenses of $37,000 due mostly to collections of the annual Kol Nidre pledge and the outstanding work done by Karen Levine and her committee in organizing the first ever "Top Chef" competition. Not only that, the temple received a long-awaited check for over $132,000 from the estate of Burt and Sally Brin. This donation funnels into our capital campaign to be used to help pay expenses throughout the coming year.

Unfortunately, we're still behind our goals for the year in all critical areas: dues, mortgage reduction and SJL tuition. At this rate we'll burn through all of our reserves by the end of the fiscal year and potentially run a deficit in fiscal 2017. So, while it's nice to have a little breathing room, we can't take our eyes off our goal of financial independence. There are so many opportunities to help keep our congregation alive and healthy... please consider donating to one of our many charitable funds, attending our fundraisers and buying temple scrip.

I would like to thank everyone who has volunteered to work in the temple office to help with the many tasks that need to be done on a daily basis. Unfortunately, we were not able to retain our Administrative Assistant and now rely 100% on volunteers to help Judy. If you would like to volunteer, please contact the temple office. Any help would be appreciated.

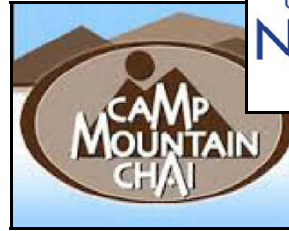

I would also like to personally thank everyone who has agreed to go all-electronic for our bulletin. Thanks to you, we have reduced our bulletin-related expenses by 90%. Please make sure to visit our web site and Facebook page... our fundraisers will be advertised there more and more as we seek to cut back on printing and mailing expenses. With your help, we'll make it through this financial crisis.

Finally, I would like to thank every single one of you for your generous spirit throughout the holidays. You've proven that we're a real family. We pitch in when we have to, we come together to help, and we stand up for what we believe in when we have to. We've been reminded lately that the world around us is full of angry people, and it's nice to know that within our walls, we can feel nothing but love.

Peace,

Stuart Sweet

Camperships available now!

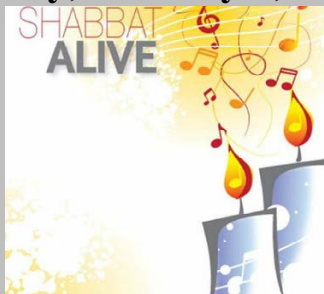

Parents, as you begin to think about summer plans for your children, please consider sending them to a Jewish camp. Study after study has shown that one of the most important experiences in establishing Jewish identity is going to a Jewish Summer Camp. Campers experience Judaism twenty-four/seven - a difficult proposition in the Inland Empire. The memories and experiences our youngsters come home with are indescribable. Campers return from a Jewish summer camp with stories of how they spent Shabbat, activities that challenged them both intellectually, spiritually and physically; and, most importantly, they will forge new, life-long friendships.

Later this month, we will announce dates that Camp Mountain Chai and URJ Camp Newman will visit us for presentations about summer camp. To qualify for a scholarship, you may attend one the these camps, or one the other area Jewish camps, including: Camp Hess Kramer, Gindling Hilltop Camp, Camp JCA Shalom, Camp Ramah, Camp Alonim - or any other Jewish residential camp.

The Sisterhood of Congregation Emanu El oversees the Rabbi Hillel and Rita Cohn Campership Fund. Funds have been set aside to assist Congregation Emanu El families with sending their children to camp. Campership Applications are available at the Temple Office or you may contact Leone Hyman Camperships are also available from the One Happy Camper Foundation through the various camp offices. Please contact Rabbi Sherwood for information about this campership or any other information about Jewish Summer Camps.

How To Be Jewish: Life Cycle Edition

A NEW ADULT EDUCATION CLASS with Rabbi Jay Sherwood

The Jewish life cycle is filled with joy and sadness. We celebrate many milestones from birth to death. But how do we observe these occasions? How do you arrange a brit milah for a new born baby? What is proper for Bar/Bat Mitzvah celebrations? Why do we dance before the bride and groom? How do you sit shiva when someone dies?

Tu B'Shvat Seder January 24, 2016 6:00pm - 8:00pm

Join us for a celebration of Tu B'Shvat. Traditionally the New Year of the Trees, this ancient holiday has taken on a modern meaning as the Jewish Earth Day.

In celebration of Tu B'Shvat, Congregation Emanu El and Congregation Etz Hadar join together for a Tu B'Shvat Seder. The Seder plate is filled with fruits, nuts and wines, and we will serve a delicious Middle Eastern vegetarian dinner during the Seder.

Cost: $10/members; $15/non-members

Mah Jong Tournament 2016!

Monday, February 15 President's Day

*Preparations are already underway to make the 2016 Mahj games the biggest and best
AND most fun ever!*

One of the most popular attractions of the day are the beautiful baskets loaded with gifts and treats that are raffled off. In the past, we've been able to make over a dozen large baskets thanks to the donations of members of our temple and community.

Sisterhood would greatly appreciate your donation of anything you feel would be appropriate to place in one of these baskets--including any large baskets you may already have or would be willing to buy. Ideas for donated basket items are unused gifts you might already have in your closet, such as beauty products, kitchen ware, or decorative home accessories. Items or gift cards that you feel comfortable soliciting from favorite businesses would be welcome as would clear wrapping paper or large ribbons for the baskets.

Sisterhood Book Club

January 21, 2016

The book we have chosen is The Girl from the Garden by Parnaz Foroutan. A suspenseful debut novel of desire, obsession, power, and vulnerability, in which a crisis of inheritance leads to the downfall of a wealthy family of Persian Jews in early twentieth-century Iran. (Goodreads). Come join us for lively discussions and fun. Zee Knapp has graciously offered to host the club for January.
