Rabbinic Reflection

I write to you from New York City, where I am spending two weeks studying with a cohort of Jewish educators, re-envisioning the philosophies and realities of Jewish education in the 21st century.

Between classroom lectures, chevrutah study and project preparation, we have had the opportunity to experience some of the best of New York. The most important experience of the week happened this past Friday night, June 24.

This month is Pride month in New York City, and this past Friday night, our group attended Pride Shabbat at Congregation Beit Simchat Torah, the world's largest LGBTQ synagogue. Pride Shabbat at CBST, as the congregation is sometimes called, is like a second High Holy Days. There were over 600 people in attendance. Greetings of Happy Pride, Chag Same'eich, and Shabbat Shalom were mixed together. Jewish Festival customs were observed, such as the recitation of Hallel and a special Al Hanissim prayer modeled after the ones written for Chanukkah and Purim.

After the shootings at the gay night club in Orlando, this Shabbat was both a celebration and a moment of remembrance. Senior Rabbi Sharon Kleinbaum pointed out the 49 rainbow flags, one for each victim of the Orlando shooting, that surrounded the balcony of the Masonic Hall, rented for the night since the synagogue building is not large enough to hold this overflowing festival crowd. Congressman Jerry Nadler and Lambda Legal CEO Rachel Tiven spoke about the importance of action, not just prayer, and the service was a true celebration of inclusion and love. The music was stirring and the atmosphere was electrifying. At the same time, the aftermath of the hate crime perpetrated in Orlando hung in the air.

I was honored and proud to stand on the bema at the end of the service with more than 20 of my rabbinic colleagues who were in attendance that Shabbat, supporting a call for LGBTQ civil rights and protections, as well as a call for Congress to common sense gun laws.

Along with the traditional Shabbat prayers, the service included the song "Over the Rainbow." While it was written for the 1939 movie "The Wizard of Oz," on this night, in this setting, on this Festival of Pride, the song's words rang out as liturgy: "Somewhere, over the rainbow, skies are blue, and those dreams that you dare to dream really do come true!"

Kol tuv,

Rabbi Jay Sherwood

Cantorial Comments

Summer is a time for rejuvenation for all of us – especially clergy since there are no major Jewish holidays or festivals to speak of! The only thing looming in the summer months is Tisha b'Av [this year on August 14]. The 9th of Av is, traditionally, the most mournful day in the Jewish calendar, commemorating the anniversaries of a number of disasters in Jewish history, primarily the destruction of both the First and Second Temples in Jerusalem. Curiously, other tragedies have occurred and continue to occur on this very date, including the expulsion from England in 1290 CE; the edict of the expulsion from Spain in 1492; the date Germany declared war on Russia, effectively catapulting the First World War into motion, and many pivotal disasters during the Holocaust and beyond.

If there were ONLY one day a year when we needed to mourn... dayenu! But life just isn't that way and so, mingled with our joys and celebrations, are losses of loved ones, pain and illness, emotional instability and grief. Too often in recent years, there have been more and more times of collective grief because of mass killings and terrorist acts. The decision to have a Healing Service on June 25, as a follow-up to our Mental Health Awareness Month in May, was even more poignant in in the aftermath of the massacres in Orlando, Florida at the beginning of June.

I want to thank everyone who participated in this first Healing Service – from the Aliyot in the Torah service by our members three of those who spoke in May's Mental Health Awareness Month: Stephen Lehmann, Paul Zipperstein and Jeff Spears; Haftarah chanter: Les Kushner; Readers or submitters of original poetry and prose: Nancy Sidhu, Heidi Nimmo, Susan Damron, Dr. Phil Gold and to our courageous and inspirational speakers, Leone Hyman and Barb Smith. The Healing Service pamphlet includes songs, prayers and prose and can be used for any occasion of healing.

I feel it was very important to be able to get this off the ground and I hope that it may provide – perhaps a couple of times a year – an additional sacred space of comfort, community and support for all of us.

B'shalom,

Cantor Jennifer Bern-Vogel

Presidential Perspectives

June marks the halfway point in my journey as president of Congregation Emanu El. Sometimes it seems like it has been 15 minutes and other times like it has been 15 years. That seems to be the nature of an assignment like this. It is important to remember that it is a marathon, not a sprint.

So, as we pause for the interval I would like to thank some folks for their service to the congregation in the past year. Cheryl Sukenik our outgoing First Vice President has agreed to remain on the Executive board as a member at large. Her counsel has been and will continue to be greatly appreciated. Stepping in to the First Vice President role is Greg Weissman. His energy and commitment to our congregation is amazing and it is my hope that he will become our president at the conclusion of my term. No president of CEE has had a Treasurer as involved and dedicated as Stuart Sweet has been this past year. Stuart moves in to the Second Vice President slot and I am confident he will excel there as well. Steve Becker, our Financial Secretary, will remain on the board as a member at large. He discharged his duty as Financial Secretary with empathy and finesse for not one but two years. Finally, there is Marv Reiter. He has moved from member at large to the Treasurer position. Marv brings a great deal of experience to the board and I look for him to help strengthen our financial position. These congregants form the bedrock of our leadership. Their time and talent, generously given, allows our board to function at a very high level indeed. To all of you I say Todah Rabah, Thank You very much!

That said I would like you to know where my priorities lie for the next fiscal year. A great deal must be done to ensure we are able to service our mortgage. We will take a very hard look at refinancing our note to achieve a more favorable monthly payment. Long term security in our present location is a priority. Growth is other component to success and security. Increasing our membership is positive in so many ways. We involve unaffiliated Jews from our area. We expand our pool of talent from which we draw our leadership. And, we strengthen our dues roll.

Please let our unaffiliated friends know we are here and we welcome them.

So as we embark on our next lap of the Sun, I look forward to the second half of the presidential journey. I'll see you all at the finish line in June 2017.

L'Hitraot,

Craig Beasley

Sisterhood Speaks

I first wish to extend thanks to both Rabbi Sherwood and Cantor Bern-Vogel for a wonderful installation at the June 10 Shabbat service. Each of our Board members offers such an important part in the strength of our Sisterhood and Congregation. Thank you to those who have so selflessly agreed to take on Board positions.

I was also honored to present the gift to our four Confirmation students on June 12, on behalf of Sisterhood. They each have such exceptional qualities and talents and I know they will continue on to be extraordinary leaders of tomorrow.

Also, Sisterhood wishes to thank Greg Weissman and other members of the Simcha Tree committee for including a very thoughtful and loving stone on our behalf. If you have not already, please do support the growth of the Simcha Tree project.

There was no June Sisterhood Board meeting. Our next meeting/brunch will be July 3 beginning at 9:30 at the Sweet residence.

Our annual WRJ Area Day will be in Santa Ana on July 10 at Temple Beth Shalom in Santa Ana. I look forward to attending with others from our Sisterhood and encourage you to register and attend as well!

In addition, please look for both regular mailing and email regarding our Sisterhood Membership Drive! If you have any questions please contact our membership vice-presidents, Susan Damron and Paula Kaye. Membership/dues forms are also available on the Temple website at: <http://www.emanuelsb.org/sisterhood>.

Best,

Francesca Sweet

Treasurer's Report

Fellow Congregants,

I am pleased to assume the duties, so competently handled these past years, by Stuart Sweet. I am in the process of becoming more familiar with the processes and data and look forward to sharing thoughts about our financial situation and future.

I would just like to acquaint those of you who do not know me, with my background and experience. My wife Elaina and I became members of Congregation Emanu El in 1970 after relocating from New Jersey. We had three children at the time and added one more in 1974.

I went into the CPA practice with my uncle Victor Fenster and started my own practice in 1978. I retired from the practice March 1, 2016.

I look forward to assisting our Board of Directors in putting our Congregation on a sound financial footing for the future of our families. Have a safe Fourth of July!

Marvin Reiter

So, the next time you call, it may be Julie on the line!

Mental Health Awareness

July 2016

We extend a big thank you to the entire congregation for your warm and enthusiastic embrace of the month of May—Mental Health Awareness Month.

Action to continue efforts to eliminate the stigma of mental illness is ongoing. You will continue to see lime green ribbons on the lapels of many congregants who year round believe that in drawing attention to mental health stigma we will break down the barriers that keep many from getting the help that is available and that they need.

A few people have showed interest in the Mental Health First Aid training being offered by the San Bernardino County Department of Behavioral Health. A minimum of 10 people is required to have the training. If you're interested in learning how to respond if a relative, friend, or anyone is having a mental health crisis, let Nancy Sidhu know. The course is 8 hours, not necessarily on the same day. Together we'll determine the most convenient time and dates for the training. Email dnsidhu@msn.com or call her, 909-335-1944.

MENTAL HEALTH FIRST AID

What would you do if a relative, a friend, a neighbor had a mental health crisis?

Would you know how to handle the situation? And where to call for help?

The San Bernardino County Department of Behavioral Health is offering to provide an 8-hour training to develop understanding and skills to be of assistance to someone in crisis.

This training will be held at Congregation Emanu El and is open to everyone wishing to attend. The date and time of the training to be arranged.

If you are interested, please e-mail or call Nancy Sidhu at (909)-335-1944 or dnsidhu@msn.com

The Mental Health First Aid training and materials are paid for by the San Bernardino County Department of Behavioral Health.

Our wonderful Temple Administrator, Judy Filsinger does so much, but can't do it all!

It takes a lot of volunteer support and help with our temple office operations.

So special thanks and appreciation to those who have volunteered and continue to volunteer their time and talents:

Phyllis Sweet- handles Oneg Shabbats, many of our email announcements, and so much more.

Leone Hyman - is in the office on Wednesdays and acknowledges all of our donations.

Julie Strain - is in the office on Tuesdays and Thursdays and primarily assists Judy, prepares the Shabbat leaflet and works on the bulletin.

Craig Beasley - besides his presidential duties, Craig assists in the office on Thursday afternoons.

Thanks to Cherrie Lubey, Paula Kaye, and Pat Kriso who assisted in our office this past year, as well.

If you would like to volunteer, contact Judy at 909-307-0400.

Food Donations Needed!

Please bring
NON-PERISHABLE
dry or canned foods to the temple for the food pantry.

Bar Mitzvah בר מצוה

Gideon Feinstein
July 1, 2016

My name is Gideon Feinstein and I just finished the 7th grade at Wayne Ruble Middle School in Fontana, California. My favorite subject in school is science and my favorite sport is soccer. I have played AYSO soccer in Fontana since I was 10-years old and I am looking forward to eventually playing for my high school team. I also like to play piano and I sing in the chorus at school as well. I enjoy playing with my friends, riding bikes, playing video games and visiting family. My Bar Mitzvah project is to work with my parents to plant succulents throughout the front entrance to the synagogue to help enhance the beauty of our temple while helping conserve water at the same time.

Bar Mitzvah בר מצוה

Arya Lalezarzadeh
July 15, 2016

Hi my name is Arya Lalezarzadeh. I'm about to turn 13 and I'm looking forward to my Bar Mitzvah, my big day! People who know me know that I am an animal lover, I love music, and I'm an active person. I hope to grow up and be an exotic animal veterinarian and help the injured animals. Through my Bar Mitzvah studies I feel I have become more spiritual. By that I mean I feel more connected to God. I hope to be a good human being and I hope to make a difference in the world as I grow up.
