Rabbinic Reflections

Beginnings

Dear Members of Congregation Emanu El,

It is an honor for me to join you this year.

Congregation Emanu El is an outstanding synagogue. The history of the temple is inspiring. I admire the values of the temple: community, dedication to social justice, and commitment to Jewish life. I am looking forward to working with synagogue staff Rabbi Cohn, Cantor

Bern-Vogel, Judy Filsinger, Jerry Ripley, and Jillian Snyder

This is a time of transition at Congregation Emanu El. I met with many congregants during my visits. I am looking forward to working with each member of the synagogue to learn about your ideals and begin to bring to life the congregation's vision for the future.

I bring to Congregation Emanu El insights from working as an interim rabbi with congregations in Nebraska, Texas, North Carolina, Georgia, Massachusetts, Maryland, New York, New Jersey, Illinois, Connecticut, and Wisconsin and experience as a rabbi for eighteen years at North Shore Synagogue, in Syosset, New York. The interim rabbi helps a congregation in three main areas.

The Interim as Synagogue Rabbi. First and foremost, I will serve as your rabbi. I am available to provide pastoral care, will lead services, teach classes for adults and School for Jewish Living students, and help represent the synagogue in the community.

I appreciate the challenge of working with an unfamiliar rabbi for Bar and Bat Mitzvah, weddings, times of illness, and funerals. I will work with you to make each life cycle event personal and meaningful. On a personal level, my family belongs to the synagogue where I grew-up, in Washington, DC. I always strive to provide members of the synagogue I serve the same care I look for my own family to receive.

At times there have been difficulties in synagogues with which I have worked. I am here to help everyone regardless of their position on any issue. Please let me know how I can assist you.

Affirmation of Synagogue Traditions. A key question for the interim rabbi is: "What are important traditions of the synagogue that should be affirmed?" The interim rabbi helps a congregation articulate its ideals. My goal as interim rabbi will be to provide consistency and maintain the traditions of the congregation.

As a note, please work with me as I learn the traditions of the synagogue. I speak with synagogue leaders to learn the traditions of a congregation. Differences in the way I teach a class or lead a service may come from my personal strengths, inadvertent changes, or innovations that have been explored with synagogue groups. I view things as, "Works in progress," and look for your thoughts and guidance.

Visions for the Future. The year with an interim rabbi also provides synagogues that wish a time to explore new ideas for programs, innovations for worship, and experiences of Jewish learning. Synagogue growth is a process which should be sensitive and inclusive. I am available for you as a resource for personal questions about Jewish life and, as the synagogue would like, for growing from contemporary developments in the Reform movement and Jewish world.

I look forward to meeting members of the synagogue. Please call me if I can be of help to you, you have a family member with a special need, or if you know of a congregant who I should contact. Pastoral care is my highest priority.

The Torah offers a wonderful insight for Jewish life. It says, "Serve the Eternal with joy; come before the One with rejoicing." May we have this joy as we affirm the traditions of Congregation Emanu El, celebrate life, and shape dreams for the future.

L'Shalom

Rabbi Darryl Crystal

A Prayer for Our Country

God, who had made us one nation out of many peoples, amid our diversities of race and tradition, unite us in a common love of freedom and in a high ambition for our national life

Continue in us the pioneering spirit which led our ancestors across the estranging sea and upheld them in the wilderness.

Deepen in the people of this land a devotion to the common good, so that we may open new doors of hope to the neglected and oppressed. Cleanse our hearts from the greed which preys upon others and deliver our politics from corruption.

Help us to establish this land in righteousness.

Embue with the spirit of wisdom those entrusted with authority, that there may be peace within our borders and that we may stand among the nations of the earth as an example of justice and a power for good will.

Let Your peace, O God, reign in all our hearts/

To every council where nations bring their hopes and fears, grant wisdom and mutual understanding, that distrust and hatred may be diminished, and a common law of justice be established.

Let peace, O God, prevail throughout the earth.

Cantorial Comments

Happy Summer to all! We are in a challenging but exciting time at Congregation Emanu El – not only of transition, but of healing; of moving forward and empowering the next generation, as well as honoring our venerable history and those who laid the foundation before us. I know we are all excited about our interim, Rabbi Crystal's, arrival. I was privileged to be at various meetings we had together last month, including a workshop after the June board meeting. In the workshop, Rabbi Crystal demonstrated how he plans to proceed and meet with all the members of Congregation Emanu El. One of the questions he asked everyone to think about was 'what makes you proud to belong to Emanu El? It was encouraging and inspiring to hear the varied responses – pride in Sisterhood, a friendly and welcoming atmosphere, the Temple history, a beacon of social action in the community, music (!) and more.

In my eight years serving this congregation I have been privy to many transformations, listened to voices of disappointment, frustration, hope, pride and gratitude. I want to express MY pride in being part of Congregation Emanu El, a special and diverse community, and am grateful to be your cantor to help guide and serve you on this communal journey – no matter how rough the road – as we grow together with the Reform Movement at this time in our American Jewish history.

If you are interested in chanting Torah on Rosh Hashanah and/or Yom Kippur this year, please contact me if you have not already done so! Our list of skilled chanters is growing – the next Adult Cantillation class will begin after the High Holy Days in November.

Please SAVE THE DATE for the evening of Wednesday, August 23rd which is Rosh Chodesh Elul - the month prior to the High Holy Days. Just as it is customary to prepare our homes, start getting holiday foods ready and retrieve our favorite apple and honey servers, the month of Elul gives us the opportunity to prepare to open our hearts and souls before Rosh Hashanah. This will be a unique evening of reflection, study and performance as we focus on Brit Olam, our board-approved Covenant of Social Action in collaboration with congregations across America. 'Brit Olam – The World We Want' Covenant is a commitment by clergy and key lay members to lead the congregational or community rapid response to hatred and bigotry, through Jewish values. We will provide texts and short scenes from the Torah and classical and contemporary literature to help remind us of the sacred principles that govern our lives. If you are interested in participating in any of the readings, scenes, etc., contact me at cantorjenbv@emanuelsb.org.

B'shalom,

Cantor Jennifer Bern-Vogel

Presidential Perspectives

On June 8, 2017 I had the honor of being installed as Congregation Emanu El's 52nd President. My family's roots to this historic place of worship dates back to 1974. From my Bar Mitzvah in 1975, to my daughter's recent confirmation, my connections run deep in this temple community.

And so begins our journey as we work to reimagine this historic congregation. On July 1st Rabbi Darryl Crystal will join Congregation Emanu El as our Interim Rabbi. Rabbi Crystal, and his unique skillset will help us redefine ourselves by asking three questions: Who we are, what we want to be, and how do we get there? In the coming weeks you will be invited to attend a series of congregational "Meet and Greet" designed to answer these very questions. I hope you will plan to attend. These next twelve months offer a unique opportunity for our membership to self-examine as we set out to select our next permanent or "Settled" rabbi, hopefully, by this time next year.

Change is never easy and oftentimes hard. However, during this time of self-reflection, I'm confident we will become a stronger and more vital temple community. It's been said; "Change is the one constant in our lives"; And when that change comes, we have two choices: We can despair, or we can look forward to the opportunity change presents. Please join me in looking forward with a positive outlook and excitement for all the new possibilities to come. Congregation Emanu El should never be defined by any one person, but rather by its unified community; a people which has endured change before and will so again. Through the ages, the Jewish people have overcome unimaginable obstacles; and through it all, remained resilient and strong.

I look forward to standing strong with each and every one of you as we move our beloved Congregation Emanu El into its bright new future, together.

L'Shalom,

Greg Weissman

Sisterhood Speaks

I am excited about our upcoming year and impressed by the dynamic new – well, a few of us are old – Sisterhood Board. We have met with Congregation Emanu El's interim rabbi for the 2017-2018 year, Rabbi Darryl Crystal. We have expressed our vision to him and found him to be knowledgeable and supportive of the WRJ movement. In July, interested Sisterhood members will attend the Southern California Area Day on Sunday, July 9 at Temple Judea in Tarzana. August 13 will be our next Sisterhood Board Meeting following a Bagel Schmooze in the Merkaz at 9 am. If you are curious about what we do – or you are a Sisterhood Board member – you are invited to attend. In September, we are planning another interesting mini-program, "From a Woman's Heart – A Multi-faith Panel and Discussion."

I would like to encourage every member of the Emanu El community to join Sisterhood when our membership information arrives this month. Our Membership Vice Presidents, Paula Kaye and Barbara Smith, would love to meet new members and are planning, along with Program Vice President, Susan Damron, an exciting paid up membership brunch program featuring congregant, Beth Freimuth, exploring "Mindfulness – A Path to Peace". Put it on your calendar now to be there on October 29th and be honored with your fellow paid up Sisterhood members.

Dr. Susan Damron Named Secretary of Temple Board of Directors

At its first meeting of the new temple administrative year Dr. Susan Damron was elected to the position of Secretary after having been nominated for that position by the newly installed temple president, Greg Weissman.

Susan was born and raised in Morristown, New Jersey. After completing a Bachelor's Degree at the University of Oregon, she attended graduate school at Colorado State University and earned a Ph.D. in Psychology. Her research interests included social skills training and communication styles in small group interactions. In 1978, she came to the newly-opened Loma Linda Veterans Medical Center, where she worked as a licensed psychologist for 28 years. Her specialties included stress management, communication skills training, and workplace coping skills. After retiring from the VA, Susan facilitated a multi-faith women's group exploring aging and helped women design events to mark life transitions.

Susan and Richard Taylor became members of Congregation Emanu El in 2015. An active member of Sisterhood, Susan served as co-Vice President of Membership in 2016-17 and is currently Sisterhood Vice President of Programs.

As secretary of the congregation, Susan is a member of both the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee. We are certain that she will bring her leadership skills as well as her love of Judaism and support of the Board of Directors.

Jillian Snyder Named Director of Education & Youth

Jillian Snyder has been named Director of Education & Youth of Congregation Emanu El and is beginning her duties on July 1, 2017. Ms. Snyder will administer our School for Jewish Living which includes training teachers, developing a curriculum that will impart to our children a deeper knowledge and appreciation of Jewish values as well as skills to engage in more meaningful Jewish practice. Additionally, she will be the advisor to TYGER, our high school youth group, and guide the youths to an expanded program of social action as well as socialization with other Jewish youths of Southern California.

Ms. Snyder has been a faculty member of our School for Jewish Living for a number of years as well as a tutor for our Bar and Bat Mitzvah students. She has also taught at our neighboring Congregation Etz Hadar and Temple Beth El in Riverside.

In addition to her extensive work in the field of Jewish education Ms. Snyder was a pre-school teaching assistant in the Fontana Unified School District. She will be receiving her Bachelor of Arts degree from National University this August.

Along with directing our School for Jewish Living and youth programs, Ms. Snyder will also be working with Rabbi Crystal and Cantor Bern-Vogel in developing Shabbat family and holiday services and special holiday observances for pre-schoolers.

We look forward to the innovative programs that Ms. Snyder will create for our congregation.

From Our Director of Education & Youth

Hello Congregation Emanu El Family! For those of you who do not know me yet, I am Jillian Snyder and I have recently been named as Director of Education and Youth of the congregation. I have been teaching Hebrew and religious school for seventeen years and I have had experience as a co-director at Congregation Etz Hadar and Congregation Emanu El. I love teaching and I enjoy working with children of all ages and abilities. I have been married to my best friend for almost thirteen years and we have three sweet and very active boys, all of whom will be attending School for Jewish Living classes this year. I am so excited and honored to be a more active part in the School for Jewish Living here at Congregation Emanu El. I know it will be a great and productive year.

I know this year is a year of transition for Congregation Emanu El. We have some big changes, but I believe they will move us in a positive direction. I am hoping to create more structure for our school so that educators, parents, and students know what is going on from month to month and can make sure that our School for Jewish Living activities are an important addition to their calendars. I am hoping to implement more age appropriate services for student and family Shabbats. With the help of Rabbi Crystal and Rabbi Cohn, I know we will create meaningful curriculum and programs. I plan to contact all of the School for Jewish Living families in the next month. I will be updating school information as it moves along in the planning stages over the summer. I look forward to working with you and your children in the fall!

With Warm Regards,
Jillian Snyder

At-Large Members Named to Executive Committee

Each year the president of the congregation is authorized by the By-Laws to name At-Large members to serve on the Executive Committee. Greg Weissman, temple president, presented the names of Steven Becker, Michael Kress and Paul Zipperstein to the Board of Directors for approval. They were elected by acclamation.

All three have served on the Executive Committee at other times in their capacity as elected officers and bring to the deliberations of the Executive Committee a wealth of experience and commitment to the well-being of the congregation.

The Executive Committee is made up of the elected officers of the congregation, a representative of Sisterhood and members-at-large who are selected by the president. The Executive Committee has a number of functions. It serves as the Personnel Committee, formulates the agendas for board meetings and acts in the place of the board for emergency matters.

We welcome Steven, Michael and Paul to the Executive Committee.

“Seniors for Seniors” Takes “Summer Vacation”

Our Seniors for Seniors program has completed its second year of activities. More and more seniors are attending the monthly events. In May Seniors for Seniors was joined by the Senior Havurah of Temple Beth El of Riverside. 80 people attended and enjoyed the hilarious program presented by Comedienne Amy Ashton. In June, 40 people attended the program on “Troublesome Myths About My Religion” featuring Imam Imad Bayoun, Rev. Petra Malleis-Sternberg and Rabbi Hillel Cohn.

During July and August the Seniors for Seniors is taking a “vacation.” The new year will begin with a luncheon and program on Wednesday, September 13th. Watch the mails and the August and September temple bulletins for information about the program.

At its last luncheon, the group expressed a desire to work cooperatively with a group from the First United Methodist Church in Redlands in providing “Happy Birthday Bags” for foster children and youths in the greater San Bernardino area. Information on this program will be given at the September 13th luncheon.

Mental Health Awareness

The long, hot days of summer take us to the beach, out in the evenings for barbecues, splashing around in the pool, and drinking cooling tall glasses of ice tea. We slow down a bit, adjust to the kids out of school, relax our muscles. Maybe we read stories and have long conversations with friends, the kind that delve deep into our lives and hearts.

In May we told some stories that came from deeply felt lives. We've put them up on the Congregation Emanu El website and urge you to take a look. You may have heard them during the Erev Shabbat services and want to have a further look with more time to think about them. Or you missed them entirely and might like to see how those stories went. It's easy. Go to emanuelsb.org, choose Tikkun Olam from the dropdown menu, then “mental health”.

For example, the prince said: “The experience I have had is that once you start talking about it, you realize that actually you're part of quite a big club.” It took him a long time to start talking about it, a long time to even think honestly about it. And then his life changed for the better. Take a look at the trajectory of his young life, how much he went through, and how he learned to improve his life and those of others.

For example, one of us said: “I knew intimately the pain of stigma, but didn't know when we founded the program if I had the strength to share my personal story of mental illness. Obviously, I do have that strength and I am so much healthier and happier for it.” What is that story and how is it continuing to unfold? Look for it also on the website.

And in one more example, one of us said: “So the effect of someone playing a lyre and that of a comforting dog may not be that different.” What's that about? Check out Mental Health Awareness In Action on our website.

Do you have any stories you could share? Talking to each other about the truth of our lives gives us strength and promotes health. Remember that song - “People who need people are the luckiest people in the world”?

Help Beautify Our Temple Grounds

A special effort is being made over the next few months to beautify our temple campus. A task force is being headed by Leone and Brad Hyman. They will be enlisting the services of volunteers to adopt a portion of the spacious grounds of our campus and to plant and maintain drought-resistant vegetation. Watch for an announcement of some of the ambitious plans to beautify our temple grounds.

Treasurer's Report

Fellow Congregants,
It was encouraging to see the turnout at the Annual Meeting. It is important that you all are aware of our plans and goals and participate in the business of Congregation Emanu El.

Without your input and, of course, your financial support, our direction would be limited. As you plan your travels for the summer, be sure to save some funds to complete your financial obligations to Congregation Emanu El. In my next letter for the new fiscal year, 2017-2018 we have some new challenges. We have engaged a new education director with the input of the majority of the parents of the SJL students. It is our commitment to provide educational opportunities that will strengthen our faith and culture to assure the future of Judaism in our community.

As you know we have engaged an "Interim Rabbi", Rabbi Darryl Crystal, to lead us for the next year and to assist us in determining the best direction to obtain a "Settled Rabbi" for the future. With your help we hope to be successful in our search.

Have a safe and enjoyable summer.
