MAY IS MENTAL HEALTH AWARENESS MONTH AT CONGREGATION EMANU EL

Each Friday night in the month of May, our Shabbat service will feature a sermon by our clergy and a presentation by a member of our congregation speaking about their support of mental health awareness.

Our speakers will be:

May 6 - Stephen Lehmann

May 13 - Jessica Aceves

May 20 - Paul Zipperstein

May 27 - Jeff Spears

Please join us as we celebrate Shabbat and raise our awareness during the month of May.

Rabbinic Reflection

May is Mental Health Awareness month at Congregation Emanu El. Throughout the month, we will seek to raise our consciousness as we work to end the stigma of mental illness. Each Friday night, the evening's sermon will focus on mental health related issues, and we will feature a member of our congregation sharing some personal thoughts on the importance of awareness.

Jewish tradition has long recognized the importance of having a healthy body as well as a healthy mind. Our morning liturgy contains blessings giving thanks for our bodies, our souls and our minds. We recognize that to be a healthy individual, we must maintain the health of all three of these elements that make us the complete person that we are. When we ignore any one of these three aspects of self, complete health eludes us. Nevertheless, while discussions of physical and spiritual health are commonplace in today's society, somehow mental health has acquired a stigma that has rendered the topic off limits in polite conversation. Judaism teaches the exact opposite. The traditional Mi She'beirach prayer for healing, which we say together publicly, asks God to heal not only our bodies, but our souls/minds as well. This prayer, however, cannot be our only public acknowledgement of the importance of mental health. We cannot let healing for those who suffer from mental illness be confined because of the stigma that surrounds the conversation.

An inspiration to act can be found in the rituals of Sukkot. We are commanded to bring together the etrog with the branches of three plants to create the lulav. In discussing the lulav, chazal (the rabbis of old) state that if any of the species are excluded, the lulav is unfit for use. They then explain in Midrash Vayikra Rabba 30:12, that this is really a metaphor for humanity, teaching that, "No human is expendable. If one is slighted or excluded, the whole of society is unfit." May this lesson inspire us to work toward ending the stigma of mental illness.

As you walk into Congregation Emanu El this month, please take a green ribbon from the basket just inside the front door. This ribbon signifies mental health awareness and the commitment to end the stigma associated with mental illness. Please join us in this important task.

Kol tuv,

Rabbi Jay Sherwood

Cantorial Comments

49 days [7 weeks] and counting....

It is a privilege to acknowledge and share together the countdown of another school year – Confirmation, Shavuot, graduations... We are always marking and counting the days on our calendars, but nothing is quite as poignant as the counting of the Omer – a measure of a sheaf of grain or barley marking the first summer harvests and days between Passover and Shavuot. We began counting on the second day of Pesach, celebrating our redemption from slavery and continue through the Revelation at Sinai – receiving the laws of Torah on Shavuot.

On a personal note, I had been counting for over twelve years until our son, Sam's Bar Mitzvah! We celebrated at Beth Am in Los Angeles in March, but also had the pleasure of hosting an Oneg in Sam's honor at Congregation Emanu El in April. We have truly appreciated everyone's support and enthusiasm in sharing the joy of this milestone with us. I hope you will allow me to offer the rest of my space to Sam in order for him to thank you, our beloved Redlands congregation, for this opportunity.

Dear People of Congregation Emanu El,

It was really cool to be able to celebrate my Bar Mitzvah a third time with so many of you in Redlands last month at the Shabbat service and Oneg my parents made for me.

Thank you, Rabbi Sherwood, for letting me chant some of the prayers with you. Thank you to the Sisterhood President for the presentation of the Kiddush cup and Tanakh. I promise you that I will use both of them!

The celebration in Redlands was the THIRD special service to honor my Bar Mitzvah, because we also had a special second Kiddush at my grandparents' Modern Orthodox shul in Los Angeles. It's enough already, but it was all great!

Thanks again, Sam

B'simcha,

Cantor Jennifer Bern-Vogel

Presidential Perspectives

By the time you read these words, all the charoset will be eaten, the last of the lamb or brisket will be noshed and all the matzo will be consumed. We will return to non-ritual foods and cherish the memories of our Seders with friends and families. I hope yours were memorable.

On May 19, the third Thursday in May, we will have our annual board meeting. Starting at 5:00 PM hamburgers, hot dogs and all the fixings will be served, followed by our meeting from 6:00-8:30. In addition to reports from your leadership, we will consider a modification of our bylaws with respect to the size of our general board and have a look at the 2016/17 budget. Please make plans to attend so you can keep abreast of the congregational activities and participate in the voting process for bylaw change.

Remember that May is Mental Health Awareness Month. Our congregation will focus on this topic with lay speakers at Shabbat services throughout the month, a brief video at the annual meeting and Torah commentary from Rabbi and Cantor with themes pertaining to mental health. Remember to pick up your lime green ribbon in the Merkaz and wear it proudly all month long.

Congregation Emanu El has a presence in the Twitterverse. What is the Twitterverse you might ask? The Twitterverse is social media jargon used to describe the collective number of members of the online social media network Twitter. Our Twitter account is managed by temple member Lisa DeLorme and she keeps us current with Tweets concerning happenings at the temple and things of general interest in the Jewish world. Now that you know all this please go to your Twitter app and follow us at @emanuelredlands. Thanks for your efforts Lisa.

Sisterhood Speaks

April was again a busy month for our Sisterhood. Many thanks go to Reva Bloom and Karyn Lehmann for arranging such a wonderful Women's Retreat day with such lovely presenters. In addition, our newest Sisterhood Directory was completed and is due to be handed out at our Congregational Meeting May 19. I would like to express appreciation to Paula Kaye, Julie Strain and Stuart Sweet who put much time, talent and effort in compiling all the needed information in creating the new directory. I encourage all to attend the Annual Congregational Meeting and BBQ and pick up your copy! I would also like to express appreciation to Renee Kress who was in charge of both our Community Seder and Women's Seder. Both delicious Seders were prepared by our own Sisterhood.

Also, on May 22 at 9:30 a.m. Sisterhood will be hosting its annual In and Out Bagel Schmooze. Please come and help thank our current board members for their service and help welcome in our new board for the upcoming year! In addition, the In and Out Bagel Schmooze will feature two WRJ speakers: Margie Meadow, our District Area VP and Freddie Goldberg, our District Treasurer. Kindly RSVP to the Temple office- there is no charge but a reservation is requested. Please support our Mental Health Awareness month throughout May as well- you may contact Heidi Nimmo for additional information,

There will be no Sisterhood meeting in June so that all may begin to enjoy a well deserved summer vacation. Our next scheduled meeting/brunch I will be hosting at my house and will be on July 3rd at 9:30 a.m. Please check emails for additional information to come.

Best,

Francesca Sweet

Treasurer's Report

Dear friends,

If you have been reading my articles you have an idea of what the next few months will bring. As expected, income of $24,000 (mostly from dues payments) came nowhere close to covering our expenses of $46,000, leaving us with a roughly $22,000 deficit for the month. Among the challenges this month were repairs to the sanctuary lighting and doors, plus repairs to our sound system and other physical plant maintenance. It's clear we're past the "honeymoon period" for our new building and we will need to continue to invest in our home as it needs repairs.

I hope you'll join me and the rest of the Board of Directors for our annual meeting. This is your chance to really catch up with all of the changes in our congregation, to learn what is ahead of us and celebrate our accomplishments. This is more than just a requirement, it's our pleasure to host the congregation in an open forum where you can be heard. Of course, every board meeting is open to any and all comers, but it's sadly a rare occurrence to see our congregants at a board meeting. Our annual meeting gives you a chance to really see how the leadership works. I would especially hope that all our new members from the previous 12 months join us. I have enjoyed welcoming each and every one of you to the Emanu El family and I hope we all grow together into a much larger family.

I am completing the second year of my tenure as your treasurer at the end of June and it has been my pleasure to shepherd the congregation's financials and help strengthen us for the future. However, I could not possibly do it alone. I would like to take the rest of this article to thank my partners in this enterprise, without whom I would have been lost from day one.

I started as treasurer on the day that Rabbi Douglas Kohn left us, and days before our beloved former administrator Roberta Darrow left for the job of her dreams. I would have had no idea how to even start without the tireless patience and effort of Mike Kress. Mike, our former treasurer, former President, and recipient of the Rabbi Norman F. Feldheim award for his tireless service, was patient and generous with his guidance and I remain in his debt, as we all do.

It was my pleasure to welcome Judy Filsinger as our temple administrator on her very first day. All of us know Judy by her quick smile, her gentle demeanor and constant good spirits but not everyone knows of her decades of bookkeeping experience including a stint at Congregation Emanu El in the 1980s. Judy makes my job easy by doing all the hard work herself, and I am extremely grateful for all of her efforts.

Finally, I would like to thank Marv Reiter for all his advice. Marv has spent a career as a certified public accountant and the knowledge that he brings to the table has been invaluable. I have only known Marv a short time but I feel like I've already learned so much from him. I'm very lucky to have someone so generous with his time at my side.

As we all look forward to the future, we all must rely on each other, trust each other, and believe in the shared vision of a bright and vibrant Jewish community in the San Bernardino area. That vision must include responsible stewardship of our finances, a tradition I've been proud to carry on for the past two years. I thank you for the opportunity to have done so.

Peace,

Stuart Sweet

Hunter Verschell
May 7, 2016

My name is Hunter Verschell and I am a 7th grader at Cope Middle School in Redlands. I will be 13 years old on April 24th. My favorite subject is Science. The favorite part of my school day is playing soccer or basketball at lunch and games like Capture the Flag and Bombardment in PE. Outside of school, I enjoy playing video games, hanging out with my friends, going to the beach and pretty much any outdoor activity. My passion is soccer. I have played AYSO and AYSO Extra for six years and am in my fourth year of club soccer. I hope to go to a good college and play soccer. I have been preparing long and hard for my Bar Mitzvah. I am so excited (and nervous) for the big day and can't wait to experience it with my family and friends. I hope you can share this special day with me as well.

Mental Health Awareness

Let's do something caring for Mental Health
Awareness Month!

May 2016

Just in case you haven't heard the news.....May is Mental Health Awareness Month. We're hoping more temple members than ever before will take this month to heart. Let's all make a decision to learn more about mental illness and then to help all of us get over our fears about it.

Too often the stigma about mental illness keeps us from talking and even thinking about it. And the cure for the problem of silence is thinking and talking about it. It's nearly that simple.

Almost every one of us knows someone with a mental disorder, or we ourselves are struggling with one. If we had a place and a community where stigma didn't exist, we could share our experiences and our difficulties, we could get the support and love we need to cope. It's nearly that simple.

No, learning, thinking, talking, getting love and support is not the whole answer to building a stable, happy life, but together they go a long way. Good professional help is key, but moral support is also key. And even if we don't know anything about brain disorders, we all know about being kind and accepting of others, of helping when help is needed. We, right here at Emanu El, can create that warm, supportive place. Right here we can create a tikkun olam, a repaired world.

Here's May, a new month. This is our chance.

We can wear the lime green ribbon showing we're ready to engage others in conversation about mental health and illness.

We can sign up for a course called Mental Health First Aid to be offered at the temple.

We can attend some of our educational meetings during the coming months.

We can just sit right down this evening and share with our family thoughts and feelings about mental illness.

There's so much each of us can do. It's nearly that simple.

*We Survived...
At Last I Speak*
Leon Malméd, Author

We observe the eve of Holocaust Memorial Day with a candle lighting, memorial prayers and a guest speaker: Leon Malméd.

Leon Malméd was born in 1937 in Compiègne, France. Mr. Malméd will share the story of how he and his sister Rachel escaped from the Holocaust in Occupied France. When Leon and Rachel's parents were deported and killed at Auschwitz-Birkenau, their downstairs neighbors, Henri and Suzanne Ribouleau, gave the children a home and family and sheltered them through subsequent roundups, threats, air raids, and the war's privations. His story of survival is an inspiring one. We are honored to share his story with our community as we remember both the victims and the heroes of the Shoah.
