Upcoming Office Closure

The temple office will closed Thursday, November 24th and Friday November 25th for the Thanksgiving Holiday.

Rabbinic Reflection

November is the month of Thanksgiving, and this year that takes on a double meaning. The lunar and solar calendars have aligned in such a way that the High Holy Days appeared later on the solar calendar than most years. So it is in this not so common year that we say thank you to all those whose participation brought beauty and spirituality to our High Holy Days and Sukkot services.

The Rabbis of the Talmud explain that we are to say 100 blessings each and every day (Tractate Menachot 43b). That provides us with 100 opportunities each and every day to give thanks. Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel famously taught that “Our goal should be to live life in radical amazement, to look at the world in a way that takes nothing for granted. Everything is phenomenal, everything is incredible, to be spiritual is to be constantly amazed.”

The Talmudic requirement for 100 daily blessings is our mandate to say thank you to God for each moment of radical amazement. The origins of Thanksgiving are steeped in this very idea. In 1621, when the early colonists celebrated the first Thanksgiving, they recalled the Fall harvest festival of Sukkot as accounted in the Torah, and sat in radical amazement at the new found life that they had begun in a new land. To combine the Jewish and American ideals of Thanksgiving, at your Thanksgiving dinner this year, you might offer some traditional words of gratitude from our Jewish tradition:

Psalm 100

A Psalm of Thanksgiving.
Shout to Adonai, all the earth.
Serve Adonai with gladness;
Come into God's presence with singing.
Know that Adonai is God;
It is God who made us,
And we belong to God;
We are God's people,
And the sheep of God's pasture.
Enter God's gates with thanksgiving,
And into God's courtyards with praise;
Give thanks to God, and bless God's name.
For Adonai is good;
God's mercy endures forever;
And God's faithfulness is for all generations.

Kol tuv,

Rabbi Jay Sherwood

Cantorial Comments

I'm not sure when I remember having to write acknowledgements for the High Holy Days in November, but since this was a leap year, everything has been much later – at least according to the secular calendar! So here goes:

How grateful we are to our dedicated choir members, George Petite, Kevin Posalski, Les Kushner, Nancy Justice, Barb Smith, Michelle Anctil, Grace Harris, Lisa Wise-Wolk, Sheri Maltzman, Marg Shattuck, Chel Zipperstein, and Mary Lynn Stough, who were with us throughout the High Holy Days – even on Second Day Rosh Hashanah! Our choir is under the direction of the multi-talented Jerry Ripley; thank you so much for once again making our High Holy Days so very special with your musical talents.

Special thanks to all our wonderful Torah readers: Michelle Anctil, Renee Kress, Les Kushner [who also chanted Haftarah] Mary Lynn Slough, Nicole Smith, Leslie Soltz and Neil Spears who so beautifully chanted during Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur services this year. We are also grateful to Ron Lubey for helping lead Yom Kippur afternoon Mincha services.

If you were inspired by our enthusiastic readers – now is YOUR chance to learn some of the basic skills of chanting our sacred texts! I have started a new Cantillation Class which will be meeting approximately two times a month from 3:30-4:30 pm on Friday afternoons. No experience required - just eagerness and willingness to learn! The next classes are as follows:

Nov 11,18 / Dec 16, 30 / Jan 13, 20 / Feb 17 /
March 17, 24 / April 14.

Please email cantorjenbv@gmail.com, if interested.

B'shalom,

Cantor Jennifer Bern-Vogel

Presidential Perspectives

I keep reflecting on a couple of things regarding our High Holy Day experience. The first is the sheer volume of preparation necessary to pull off the holidays: From Rabbi Sherwood writing many sermons to Cantor Bern-Vogel preparing her liturgical melodies, from our administrator, Judy Filsinger, and our many congregational volunteers producing the volumes of supporting materials to our organist and musical director Jerry Ripley rehearsing and preparing the choir. I would like to pause here and recognize the choir individually. They rehearse for hours, weeks in advance, and are a sonic treasure of our temple. They are: George Petite, Kevin Posalski, Les Kushner, Nancy Justice, Barb Smith, Michelle Anctil, Grace Harris, Lisa Wise-Wolk, Sheri Maltzman, Marg Shattuck, Chel Zipperstein, Mary Lynn Stough, and Bernice Lipinsky (z"l) who has departed since we last gathered for the High Holy days. Thank you all for the harmonies that grace our worship and thank everyone who helped make our holiday worship possible.

My second thought concerns Neilah, the concluding service of Yom Kippur. After a day of fasting and reflection we sat in the sanctuary with the lights turned low and joined in prayer as we watched the sun set. As Havdalah began Rabbi Sherwood called us from our seats and we all gathered closely in the center aisle and chanted the prayers concluding with the motzi over a lovely challah. A wonderful feeling of spirituality and spontaneity suffused the room in what was truly a unique conclusion to our holiday worship. I believe this is the sort of experience we desire from our worship and I hope that we can replicate it in the future.

I hope 5777 has begun well and will continue to bring you all spiritual fulfillment.

*L'Hitraot,
Craig Beasley*

Sisterhood Speaks

Many thanks go to Rabbi Sherwood, Cantor Bern-Vogel, Jerry Ripley, as well as our wonderful Temple choir for providing our congregation with such meaningful and spiritual High Holy Day services. I was greatly honored to be joined by past Sisterhood presidents in the opening candle lighting for Rosh Hashanah. Appreciation goes to all of those who helped in providing food for "Break the Fast" and who participated in our annual Honey Cake baking. Of course, this also includes our extremely hardworking and dedicated Lorraine Freeman and her team of amazing ladies. On October 23 Sisterhood held its annual "Paid-up Brunch" which featured a very interesting and insightful program by Jane Roberts and was arranged by Heidi Nimmo and Reva Bloom. What a lovely morning that began with Mimosas in the Sukkah! Much gratitude to all of those who attended and showed continued support to our Sisterhood.

Upcoming in this month I am looking forward to representing our Sisterhood at the WRJ Pacific Area Convention in Las Vegas along with Lisa Wise-Wolk. On December 3 we will be also having our somewhat annual Variety Show- please contact Michele Zipperstein for more information and to sign up! In addition, please save the date for our Chanukah Party which will be on December 28 and feature song and dance led by Rabbi Sherwood. Festivities will begin at 5:30 p.m. and will include a feast of "Pasta and Latkes"! Please look for additional information in Emanu El-ectronic News and the December Bulletin.

Our next Sisterhood meeting will be on November 13 at 10:00 a.m. at the Temple and all are invited.

In Sisterhood,

Francesca Sweet

Treasurer's Report

Dear fellow Congregants,

I hope all of you had an enjoyable Rosh Hashanah and an easy fast on Yom Kippur.

I am pleased to advise that we have secured a new loan on our building. We hope to close this loan within the next 30 days. The Board of Directors of Congregation Emanuel has determined that it is in the best financial interest of the Congregation to apply certain endowment funds toward the reduction of the current mortgage. As you are likely aware, the return on investments held in our funds, in today's economy, is at a very low rate. While our current mortgage rate was reasonable (4.99%), with the considerable payment, we were able to negotiate that down to 4.25%. Further, we asked Pacific Premier Bank to allow us to pay interest only for the next two years. The effect of this will enable us to accumulate back some of the funds from the endowments.

Overall, we anticipate that we will reduce our cash outflow approximately $8,800 per month for the next 24 months and for the 60 months following, about $6,000 per month. This will enable us to develop our programs and hopefully grow our membership.

We currently are operating our Congregation within our budget and hope to make our Synagogue more attractive to members and increase our service to our congregants.

Best wishes from our family to yours, for a Healthy, Happy and Meaningful 5777.

Marvin Reiter

Mental Health Awareness

November 2016

THANK YOU!

Thirty people filled up tables in Congregation Emanu El's social hall to learn with two trainers from San Bernardino County's

Department of Behavioral Health in September. Victoria Hall and Joanne Mitchell shared with us their expertise and their caring attitudes on two Sundays. A great THANK YOU to all who chose to spend their time and energy to learn how to cope with a mental health crisis. And a delicious thank you to all of you who provided snacks during the 8 hours we spent together.

And please remember ALGEE, that cute and cuddly koala. (This is a secret message to all who attended the course. But if you'd like to know ALGEE, I'm sure the participants would be happy to introduce you.)

The goal of all the trainings going on around the country is to instruct as many people as possible to recognize and handle a crisis. As of this bulletin's deadline, a bill is making its way through the US Congress to provide $15 million to encourage Mental Health First Aid training of all our teachers, first responders and veterans. Late September the bill passed the House of Representatives.

Around the nation, we now have about 700,000 people trained by 10,500 trainers – and this is before any federal help. Imagine every teacher knowing what to do in a mental health crisis, and every police, sheriff, fire fighter, and veteran.

And with every step forward we're diminishing the stigma. Thank you for being part of this societal change.

Also last month, Congregation Emanu El and Mental Health Awareness In Action won the annual service award from the Christian Counseling Service here in Redlands. Our president, Craig Beasley, our past president, Paul Zipperstein, our youth advisor, Jessica Campbell and our husbands Dip and Jeff joined both of us at the award dinner. We also gave the dinner talk to people from around the area, explaining what we've been doing at Emanu El for the past couple of years. We hope to inspire others to do something similar, helping to bring understanding and empathy to everyone in their communities.

And with every step forward, we're diminishing stigma.

Last month, Rabbi Sherwood participated in a panel on The Impact of Culture and Faith on Parental Mental Health at Loma Linda University, organized by the Inland Empire Perinatal Mental Health Collaborative. More details next month. And we'll be offering an evening at the temple to discuss postpartum depression and anxiety with someone from the Collaborative in the coming months.

Also, in the coming months, we will need your help to continue our work here at the temple. Don't hesitate to volunteer.

Enjoy a cornucopia of love as well as good food this Thanksgiving.
