Rabbinic Reflection

The month of Elul is the season of reflection. This month on the Hebrew calendar is a time to review the year that has passed and prepare for the New Year. It is a time during which we engage in the age old process of cheshbon hanefesh, an accounting of the soul. This tradition teaches that we look inward, contemplating the good and the not so good of our year gone by, and making vows to ourselves for the year to come. One of the classic texts that we read during Yom Kippur, the Book of Jonah, also reflects upon this idea. For many years until his death last year, famed actor Leonard Nimoy read the Book of Jonah at Temple Israel of Hollywood each Yom Kippur. In his reflections on cheshbon hanefesh, he offered these words of poetic inspiration:

*I am not immortal.
Whatever I put off for later
May never be.
Whoever doesn't know now
That I love them
May never know.
I have killed time.
I have squandered it.
I have lost days...weeks...
As a man of unlimited wealth
Might drop coins on the street
And never look back.
I know now, that there will be an end,
A limit.
But there is time
Valuable and precious time
To walk,
talk,
breathe.
Time to touch,
taste,
care.
To warm the child
Who is cold and lonely.
There is time to love
I promise myself...
I will.
I am
I am ready
I am ready to give
I am ready to give and to receive
I am ready to give and to receive love*

May his words inspire you as the month of cheshbon hanefesh begins.

Kol tuv,

Rabbi Jay Sherwood

Cantorial Comments

We have arrived once again. Through tragedy and celebration, passing and birth. Another year. Another opportunity to reflect, to lament, to contemplate. Not that we don't have the opportunity to do this each and every day of the year, but how many of us really take the time, to spend a full day or two in prayer, worship, song, contemplation? Of course there are other ways to do this – bike riding, swimming, jogging, reading, writing poetry, golfing – but the main difference is that when we come to the synagogue to worship at the High Holy Days, in particular, we are part of a community.

It is incumbent upon us not only to share joy and rejoice in the New Year together, but also to join as a community in pleading to God for forgiveness. For the sins of our world, the sins against God and for the personal sins in words or deeds we have uttered against our teachers, our students, our friends, our parents, our partners. Even in our very deep, personal prayers, we know we are not completely alone.

Music is a key part of our High Holy Days – with a few simple notes – the High Holy Day mode [nusach] heralds the familiar melody Shanah Tovah Tikateivu helping us recall Rosh Hashanah's past and reminding us of the spiritual journey we have ahead of us. The additional prayers and liturgy which include Zochreinu [Remember us] and Unetanetokey [both added to the HHD Amida] Sh'ma Koleinu [Hear our Voice] Hineni [Here I am] Avinu Malkeinu [O God, our Ruler] Sim Shalom, Tavo l'fanecha, Ashamnu [We have sinned] and Kol Nidre [a release of vows which has become the name of an entire service preceding Yom Kippur] to mention only a few, are reason enough to spend time in the synagogue for a few hours one or two days a year and perhaps for once, not look at the clock. Don't worry, none of us want to spend the entire day [except on Yom Kippur] in the synagogue; but we hope you will join us with open hearts and minds as we prepare for a communal journey of our souls. Beginning with the 'overture' to the High Holy Days on the evening of Selichot, we look forward to seeing you and your families and friends as we enter the holy gates of 5777.

Shanah Tovah Tikateivu – Ira and Sam join me in wishing you a Happy, Healthy and a Sweet New Year.

B'shalom,

Cantor Jennifer Bern-Vogel

Presidential Perspectives

As our summer draws to a close, let us all take a deep breath and prepare for a very active September and October. Taken in chronological order, we have the following.

On September 17 at 7:00 PM, Rabbi Bob Alper standup comedian and practicing clergy, comes to Congregation Emanu El. Chosen by the Pontifical Missions Society as the Honorary Comedic Advisor to the Pope, Rabbi Alper will bring his unique brand of humor to Redlands to entertain our congregation. Tickets are available by visiting: emanuelsb.org/alper

By now you will have received a flyer announcing a very special Shabbat service on Friday, September 23. On that evening we will unveil the Simcha Tree that will adorn the western wall of our sanctuary. This tree includes 182 leaves from the Simcha Wall at our "E" Street location in combination with 202 new leaves from our Redlands synagogue. Each leaf commemorates a cherished event or experience of members of our congregation. This tree ties us to our San Bernardino roots so we will recall our past as we move into the future. Please come and join us in this celebration.

The High Holy days begin with our S'Lichot service Saturday September 24 and conclude with Yom Kippur services on October 12. Our Erev Rosh Hashanah service is on October 2 and Kol Nidre services are on Tuesday October 11. The complete schedule is in the High Holy Day packet you recently received in the mail. Please be aware of two critical dates. Information for the Book of Memory must be received by September 10 and your Honey Greeting information should be in the temple office by Tuesday, September 6. Your clergy, temple staff, Sisterhood and leadership are hard at work to make this a lovely and fulfilling holiday season.

And speaking of preparation for the High Holy Days, there is significantly more office work to be accomplished in September. If you are able to spare a couple of hours or even half a day please call our temple administrator Judy and let her know. We can certainly use the assistance as we prepare for the Days of Awe. I look forward to seeing you all at the synagogue.

*L'Hitraot,
Craig Beasley*

Sisterhood Speaks

I would like to first start by thanking both Temple President Craig Beasley and Rabbi Sherwood for attending our past Sisterhood Board meeting. The Board was treated to beautiful CEE pins and words of thanks and gratitude from President Beasley which were much appreciated and enjoyed! In addition, Rabbi Sherwood spoke on Jewish mourning practices and offered us a very insightful and spiritual insight into a sometimes difficult subject.

If you have not been by to see our newly, beautifully arranged Gift Shop please take some time to do so!!! Many thanks go to our hard working ladies who oversee the Gift Shop and spent so much time and effort into making it even more wonderful. Of course, do not miss our upcoming opening gift shop sale September 11- the first day of SJL. Also, on September 11 Sisterhood will be hosting a Bagel Schmooze beginning at 8:45 and all are welcome to join us in welcoming our SJL students as they begin their new school year.

If you are able to help bake honey cakes (or other sweet cakes) for Rosh Hashana please contact Jill Weissman. We will be enjoying them after services on October 3 and additional help is always appreciated.

On behalf of our Sisterhood Board I would also like to thank all of those who continue to support our Sisterhood by becoming members and paying dues. If you have not had a chance to renew your membership please contact either Susan Damron or Paula Kaye or go directly online to: <http://www.emanuelsb.org/sisterhood> to download and print form.

Our next Sisterhood meeting will be September 11 at 1:00 p.m. (PLEASE NOTE SPECIAL TIME) and all are welcome.

In Sisterhood,
Francesca Sweet

Treasurer's Report

Dear fellow Congregants,

We have begun our new fiscal year, and I am encouraged by the response we have had to our letter concerning the dues for 2016 – 2017. We encourage you to pay your commitment via direct withdrawal from your checking accounts. We instituted this methodology at the request of many of you, as a way to meet your obligation as well as to enable us to automatically deposit your payments. In addition, we do not incur any additional cost for processing.

Rabbi Sherwood and Cantor Bern Vogel along with Jerry Ripley and our choir are busily preparing for the High Holy days that begin in October. I look forward to the beginning of a New Year filled with joy and happiness, and good health to all our loved ones.

Mental Health Awareness

September 2016

POSTPARTUM DEPRESSION

Here's the most wonderful event in a woman's life – a new baby! So why does she feel weepy and irritable? Why is she plagued by such sadness? This is a happy time – isn't it?

And she doesn't tell anyone and tries to hide her mood swings and restlessness. Something is terribly wrong with her, so she thinks.

But she's in good company. Most women have these "baby blues." They usually go away after a couple of weeks and after a while her worry and guilt begin to fade.

Or, it gets worse and develops into full-scale postpartum depression, anxiety, or psychosis. And then it needs to be recognized and treated. Mom and baby shouldn't have to suffer needlessly. Finally, we're wising up a bit. Starting just this spring, national depression screening guidelines include new mothers.

Want to learn more? Go to the National Institute of Mental Health's website and find their facts on postpartum depression. Or if you'd like something closer to home, check out the Inland Empire Perinatal Mental Health Collaborative. They have open meetings in Riverside and in San Bernardino during the year, as well as a good website. And they're offering an all-day conference, "Culture, Faith, and their Impact on Parental Mental Health" at Loma Linda University October 27th. Look for more on that in the coming weeks.

And, yes, there's an app. If you've experienced postpartum depression or psychosis you can join a study to develop effective treatments. Get the PPD Act app for iPhone and Android.

New babies are enough to handle. Women shouldn't have to cope alone with their wild hormone changes. And let's get rid of the stigma. Let's not also douse them with needless shame.

MENTAL HEALTH FIRST AID TRAINING DATES

What would you do if a relative, a friend, a neighbor had a mental health crisis?

Would you know how to handle the situation? And where to call for help?

The San Bernardino County Department of Behavioral Health is offering to provide an 8-hour training to develop understanding and skills to be of assistance to someone in crisis.

This training will be held at Congregation Emanu El and is open to everyone wishing to attend, including friends and neighbors from the wider community.

The 8-hour training is split into two days

Sunday,-September 18, 2016
AND Sunday,-September 25, 2016

Each session will begin at 1:00 pm and will conclude at 5:00pm

If you are interested, please e-mail or call Nancy Sidhu at (909)-335-1944 or dnsidhu@msn.com

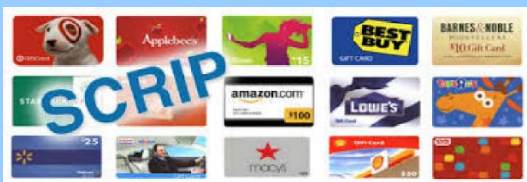

The Mental Health First Aid training and materials are paid for by the San Bernardino County Department of Behavioral Health.

Upcoming Office Closure

The temple office will closed Monday, September 5, 2016, in observance of Labor Day.

Bar Mitzvah בר מצוה

Jakob Paisner
September 3, 2016

Hello, my name is Jakob and I am an 8th grade student at The Grove School. My family has been members of Congregation Emanu El since I was in the third grade. In my spare I like to do art. I especially like to crochet, draw, and paint. I also like to read and travel. My favorite thing to read is sci-fi novels. I look forward to sharing my Bar Mitzvah with the congregation on September 3!

Gift Shop Gab

It's the beginning of another year of SJL, our High Holidays are almost here and The Sisterhood Judaica Gift Shop got a face-lift over the summer !!! Did you know that at our annual meeting in May the Gift Shop contributed $5000 to make part of a synagogue mortgage payment???? We would love to be able to continue that trend but need help from YOU, our entire synagogue family and your friends in order to give back gift shop profits to benefit our synagogue community

The High Holidays one day sale of 20% off most items is Sunday 11th September from 9 a.m. -12:30 p.m., so join sisterhood as you knosh and shop.

While we still strive to bring you unique Judaica for our holidays and simchas in a variety of price ranges, we are your shop for gift giving too!!!! Need a special item for a birthday, wedding, baby shower, anniversary, to cheer someone up or just because?? Browse through a nice selection of adult education books during SJL from 4 - 6 p.m. on Wednesdays, try on a new pair of earrings from 10 a.m. - noon on Sundays or special order a Mova Globe by appointment at other times convenient for you and one of our GREAT GIFT SHOP VOLUNTEERS.

Come see our selections from the U.S. made Nambe collection of artistic metal alloy design home decor. We do special orders for items we do not have in stock. Take home one of the catalogs we have so you can see the variety of pieces they make.

Seen something on the Source for Everything Jewish website that you like? Many times we can special order it into the shop for you. Get an item you want and help increase the money we can give back for your benefit.

Buy LOTS of the delicious smelling Naked Bee lotion Orange Blossom Honey you have used in the women's restroom. Naked Bee products are certified organic, made in the U.S., and include facial moisturizer with SPF, Vitamin C Sunscreen, hand sanitizer, foot balm and other luscious body pampering products (comes in unscented also). Your girlfriends and family will love you when they find these in their gifts bags!!!

סליחות S'lichot

Saturday, September 24, 2016
7:30pm - 11:00pm

Selichot, or penitential prayers, mark the beginning of the High Holy Days season. At this traditional late night service we will:

- Say goodbye to Shabbat with Havdalah
- Preview the movie "Dough" with discussion
- Share a few late night munchies
- Change the Torah mantles to white
- Sing the music of the High Holy Days season
- Say traditional prayers of S'lichot

Our evening will begin with Havdalah at 7:30pm

The movie screening will begin after Havdalah. DOUGH is a warmhearted and humorous story about overcoming prejudice and finding redemption in unexpected places. After the movie, we will discuss the various themes that apply to the High Holy Days season.

After sharing some late night munchies, we will move to the sanctuary where we will change the Torah Mantles to white and begin the rituals of preparation for welcoming the New Year!

School for Jewish Living Begins Sunday, September 11, 2016

Our school year begins as students return from their summer break.

Join us at 9:30am as Rabbi Jay Sherwood kicks off the year with a spectacular opening day assembly.

Don't forget to come early for the Sisterhood Bagel Brunch beginning at 8:45am

New in our school this year:

*multiple mid-week options

*once per month Shabbat School

*Chai Mitzvah curriculum for teens

*and much, much more...

You are cordially invited...
