Rabbi Douglas Kohn is on sabbatical through April 30, 2014

This year, the Hebrew month of Nisan neatly follows the secular month of April. Rosh Chodesh Nisan (the 1st of Nisan) begins April 1st and the full moon will light our paths to the first and second Passover seders, on the 14th and 15th of Nisan (April 14th and 15th)! And thus Nisan begins the first month of the Hebrew calendar cycle.

During Nisan, we celebrate our redemptive festival of Passover and less than a week later we observe Yom Hashoah. What if anything, could they have in common? If we look at the Passover Haggadah and prayers connected to Yom Hashoah, I think one of the overriding themes would be “memory.” Why do we repeat the stories of the Exodus from Egypt year after year, service after service, from one Shabbat to the next? We are taught that if we remember what our ancestors went through when they were slaves, it will remind us of the obligation never to cease from working to stop injustices which are still committed throughout the world and in our own country and communities every single day. The observance of Yom Hashoah (Holocaust) is another opportunity and responsibility we have to keep the flame of memory alive.

During this month, we will also dedicate our Wall of Perpetual Memorial and will rejoice with anniversary couples as they renew their wedding vows. The beautiful Book of Shir ha Shirim – Song of Songs – which celebrates love, passion and true devotion, is read on Passover. All of these services will be filled with traditional melodies as well as contemporary music appropriate for each occasion.

Wishing you and yours a Chag Pesach Sameach,

Cantor Jennifer Bern-Vogel

Dear Friends:

During the time in which Rabbi Douglas Kohn is on sabbatical, we've provided you a link in the Temple Tidings to the weekly D'var Torah provided by the Union of Reform Judaism. If you haven't had the opportunity to read one yet, I suggest that you visit the URJ website at www.urj.org where you can enjoy “This Week's Torah Portion” under the “Learning” tab or get there directly by pasting this link into your browser: www.reformjudaism.org/learning/torah-study.

On that same web page, you'll also find a link to sign up for Ten Minutes of Torah if you'd like to receive a one-page e-mail each day on a topic of Jewish interest provided by the URJ. This year marks the tenth anniversary of Ten Minutes of Torah. According to the URJ, “each weekday, over 20,000 subscribers receive an e-mail that brings the Jewish world to them. From Torah commentaries written by scholars to recipes for baking challah, Ten Minutes of Torah explores the great variety of Jewish life.”

I'd like to once again thank all of the volunteers who help in the Temple Office with stuffing letters and Bulletins, answering phones, logging donations, running errands and by giving us much deserved lunch breaks: Heidi Nimmo, Cherrie Lubey, Phyllis Sweet, Joanne Singer and Paula Kaye.

Robetta Darrow, Temple Administrator

From our Temple President

Michele and I would like to thank you for attending the March 7 Shabbat service we had the pleasure of leading. We thank Jerry Ripley and the CEE Volunteer Choir for their participation. Your comments and encouragement mean a lot to Chel and me and we are glad you enjoy the music and sharing.

If you did not attend the March School for Jewish Living Shabbat, I can truly say that you missed a very joyful experience! Prior to services we had a BBQ dinner. After dinner, Charlie Kramer, our school music instructor and song leader, led a “campfire” Shabbat. The music was lively, the service was meaningful, and our children were singing and praying. That's worth the price of admission which, by the way, is free! After the service we had a bon fire on the patio and sang a few more songs and, yes, even roasted marshmallows! See what you missed! Our thanks to Charlie, Greg Minton, Michele Zipperstein, and all of the parents who helped.

I would like to personally invite you to another special Shabbat. On Saturday, April 5 our Saturday Shabbat Torah service will begin with Torah Study at 9:15 a.m. led by Rabbi Hillel Cohn. Then, at 10:00 a.m. Rabbi Cohn and Cantor Jennifer Bern-Vogel will lead a service which will honor the Jacob Rich family. The first Torah that came to this valley was brought in the mid-1800's by Mr. Rich. Generations of his family still live in the area and they will be present to receive the honors.

Paul Zipperstein, Temple President

TYGER would like to thank Greg Minton, and the School for Jewish Living for their help in making the Purim carnival a success! Sisterhood and Dana Fischel are also to thank for making the delicious hamantaschen. Coming up for the month of April, TYGER will be volunteering at the Redlands R.U.F.F. Ride! It will take place on Saturday, April 5th. The proceeds from the event will benefit the Redlands Unleashed Fidos and Friends foundation. R.U.F.F. promotes a positive outlook on dog ownership. On April 26th, TYGER will be participating in the Sisterhood talent show! We hope to see you at the fun event; everyone's participation is sure to make the event a success!

I wish you all a Happy Passover. Next year in Jerusalem!

School News

Our family Shabbat service on Friday, March 14, was a huge success. Our song leader, Charlie Kramer, did a marvelous job of leading a camp-style service “in the round” with many of our parents and students participating in the event. The Purim celebration held on Sunday, March 16, was also quite spectacular. The students at SJL had a variety of activities taking place in the social hall and TYGER was instrumental in setting up and coordinating the event with Cantor Jennifer Bern-Vogel leading the Purim Schpiel in the best performance since “Pirates of the Caribbean.” We also held our Mitzvah Day event on Sunday, March 30, in conjunction with Sisterhood with many students helping to make no-sew blankets and bringing items to assemble care packages for soldiers who are serving overseas. Thanks to all of you for contributing to these events and making them truly fulfilling and memorable.

This month, we are having another family Shabbat service on Friday, April 11, with the same camp-style format that proved to be quite popular. Our SJL students (assisted by Sisterhood!) will conduct the mock Passover seder service on Sunday, April 13. Finally, our Yom HaShoah service will take place on the afternoon of Sunday, April 27, with Cantor Jennifer Bern-Vogel leading. The theme will be reflections of a child of a Holocaust survivor and we are anticipating that our SJL students will be able to contribute poetry, pictures, and reflections about honoring people’s memories. Please join us.

Say not: when I have leisure I will study, lest you may not have it!

The Wonderful World of Sisterhood!

It is a pleasure to write this message on behalf of our busy and devoted Sisterhood president, Stacy Knox. I hope everyone will consider joining in the Sisterhood Community Seder on the second night of Passover, Tuesday, April 15 from 6 pm to 8:30 pm. Using a unique, simplified Haggadah, Cantor Bern-Vogel will lead us in retelling the Exodus story through word and song. Mara Winick has worked diligently with our caterer, Bon Appetit, to create a special dinner menu that is sure to please. Much care has gone into preparing an evening that will bring meaning and delight to people of all ages. The festival menu and reservation form can be found in the Bulletin flyer.

For many years our Sisterhood operated a donor system of tracking volunteer hours contributed by its members to Sisterhood. An annual donor luncheon was held to give tribute to the time and talent that deserving individuals gave to our organization. The Sisterhood Board recently voted to disband the donor system and try a new means of annually honoring Sisterhood volunteers. Primary reasons for the change include the cumbersomeness of accurately recording volunteer hours and the expense of the annual luncheon. In lieu of the annual luncheon this year, all women of Sisterhood are invited to a special evening of recognition on Saturday evening May 3. The event, to be held at a beautiful home, will begin with Havdalah. It will include festive food and drink and warm fellowship. Watch your mailbox for an invitation in coming weeks. Any members of Sisterhood who have prepaid their Donor contribution will be reimbursed.

May the beauty and meaning of the Passover season be yours!
