Union for Reform Judaism Biennial, December 11-15, 2013 in San Diego

Prime Minister of Israel, Benjamin Netanyahu, to address Reform Movement Biennial

Netanyahu will be the first sitting Israeli Prime Minister to address the URJ Biennial. At the 2011 Biennial, President Barack Obama was a special guest, and addressed the 5,000 delegates in attendance.

The Biennial is where Jews gather to learn, pray, share ideas, dance and sing, hear from inspiring speakers, reunite with old friends, make new connections, and re-imagine Jewish life.

As well, our own Rabbi Douglas Kohn will be featured twice at the Biennial!

Rabbi Kohn will be conducting a workshop on Wednesday, December 11, addressing themes of Jewish responses to Alzheimer's disease and dementia. As well, Rabbi Kohn is a featured invited guest at a "Meet the Authors" gala on Thursday, December 12, celebrating his new book, Broken Fragments.

2013 URJ Biennial Convention

Dear Friends,

As you noted on the cover page of this Temple Bulletin, shortly the Reform Movement will assemble thousands of its leaders and thinkers and visionaries for our National Biennial Convention, this year conveniently located in nearby San Diego.

I have been privileged to attend every Biennial since 1991, and to participate as a speaker, workshop leader or featured guest in every Biennial since 1997. It is a wonderful honor to help lead or contribute to our Movement. In truth, some of the finest Jewish leaders I have met, anywhere, have been those with whom I have served in various URJ capacities, and those who function on the national scene are truly special individuals.

I look forward to returning with new ideas, new melodies, and new projects to report. As well, I expect to bring back hundreds of brochures, proposals, reports and more that may be applicable to Congregation Emanu El. But mostly, I appreciate returning having steeped myself in Torah and learning with our greatest minds, and adding a thought, or two, of my own.

We have about a dozen CEE members attending the Biennial. Ask any of us how it was, and get ready for a long answer!

Rabbi Douglas Kohn

How Do You Do Shabbat? What makes it special for you? With the many responsibilities and obligations we all have in our busy lives, are you able to find a way to give Shabbat some special meaning? For orthodox Jews, this is a no-brainer. The laws and customs of keeping Shabbat or being shomeir Shabbat are clearly defined in the Torah and countless books and commentaries.

As a reform Jew, I know that I can choose – to “do” or not “to do.” We have all the choices we could dream of – is that always such a good thing? I was raised as a very liberal Jew – connected to the synagogue, major holidays, youth group, choir - but other interests and activities often took precedence. One of the reasons I was drawn to becoming a Cantor was because I wanted Judaism to serve as a deeper framework of my own life, in addition to guiding others on their spiritual paths. Since moving to Los Angeles, being with my in-laws on Shabbat has become a very special time for our family. We always ‘make’ Shabbat at home on Friday nights, often with other family and friends, or just simply the three of us... On Saturday, walking to and from Ira’s parents, Martin & Sylvia, for Shabbat lunch is an important time for us – to laugh, to delight in the beauty of unusual flowers and succulents, to be silly, to have serious talks... Sharing the prayers, traditional meal, zemirot (Shabbat table songs) rousing versions of Birkat Hamazon followed by rummy cube tournaments will help to build lifelong memories and a Jewish identity for a still wide-eyed, impressionable ten year old....

Cantor Jennifer Betn-Vogel

Dear Friends:

I am quite happy to report on two very successful fund raising efforts; one for the greater community and one for Congregation Emanu El. Thank you for helping us raise $1,200 for turkeys to be distributed to the needy by Cornerstone Compassion Center. Every year I delight in providing our assistance to pastor Robin Hyde so that he may feed a hungry crowd on Thanksgiving. Also, please give a huge thank you to Steve Levine and Margie Orland, along with their Autumn Gourmet Spectacular Committee, for raising upwards of $25,000 for our Congregation. They orchestrated a beautiful event attended by about 130 temple members and community guests who enjoyed spirited auctioneering provided by Martha Green and David Cohen. Check out the photos from this event our website photo gallery!

As a reminder, please help us provide food for the needy on a year round basis. There are two ways you can help: 1) Place non-perishable food items into the large blue bin located in the very front of the Temple Office or 2) Mail us a check payable to Congregation Emanu El with “Food for the Poor” noted in the memo section of your check. Pastor Robin, from Cornerstone Compassion Center, periodically picks up the food and I also use your funds to provide him with Stater Bros. gift cards for the needy.

Robetta Darrow, Temple Administrator

From our Temple President

Our Autumn Gourmet Spectacular was an exciting evening and so much fun. I hope you were there and enjoyed the great views from our hilltop, spirited bidding, and tasty food and drink. A big Todah Rabah to the AGS committee for organizing this event. Also, special thanks to Martha Green and David Cohen for leading us in another successful fund-raising event.

The month of December brings us to the Union for Reform Judaism’s Biennial convention in San Diego. There are a number of congregants who will be attending during the week of December 8. Michele and I will attend on the 13th and 14th and look forward to joining many other reform Jews from all over the country in celebrating Shabbat services that Friday and Saturday. As you receive this bulletin there is still time to sign up. Please join us if you can.

Soon we will welcome a ‘new addition’ to our Sanctuary. The family of Rena Uffer (Z”l) has graciously donated her ‘baby’ grand piano to the Temple. This beautiful instrument will further enhance our musical experience and we thank the Uffer family for this generous donation. As you do your own estate planning, please keep your Temple in mind. Your thoughtful gift will be appreciated by the congregation for years to come.

As we approach the end of the standard calendar year I want to wish you and your family a Happy New Year. May it be a healthy and prosperous one.

Paul Zipperstein, Temple President

Year End Giving A Win-Win

By Jeff Spears

As the secular year comes to an end, many review their tax situation especially with regard to charitable giving. One great way to support your chosen non-profits (we hope Congregation Emanu El is at the top of your list), is to donate appreciated stocks or mutual funds instead of cash. Donating appreciated securities directly rather than selling the assets and then donating the cash proceeds is one of the best and easiest ways to maximize your giving while paying less in taxes. You get to keep more of your hard earned money while giving more to the Congregation.

This is how it works. As long as you've held the security for longer than one year, the tax laws allow you to deduct the full Fair Market Value of the donated security without having to pay one cent of Capital Gains tax on the appreciated amount. The Congregation receives the entire amount of your donation, instead of the amount left after you pay Capital Gains taxes. You pay no taxes on the gain in value of the security. It's a win-win!

Donating securities directly to the Congregation is a great way to meet and or increase your commitment to the Capital Campaign. It's also a great vehicle to support the Temple's general fund.

Please keep your Congregation in mind, as you plan your year-end giving.

(Temple Youth Group of Emanu El, Redlands)
By Jessica Campbell

The month of November was a true success for TYGER! We took a trip to L.A. to do some Hanukkah shopping as well as have lunch at Canters Deli, and the car was filled to capacity! The students who attended had a great time, and everyone truly bonded with each other. We also prepared a Thanksgiving dinner for the homeless and passed it out directly to those in need.

For the month of December, TYGER will be helping Sisterhood with a toy drive! Please bring unopened toys for children of all ages to the temple by Sunday, December 15th. During the holidays, it is important that we think of those less fortunate. On Saturday, December 7th, TYGER members have the opportunity to travel to Wilshire Boulevard Temple for an all-night event! The cost is $50 which includes dinner, bowling, ice skating, and laser tag! RSVP for this event by Wednesday, December 4th. On Sunday, December 22nd, TYGER will hold our event in the snow! We will be going to Mountain High for some snow tubing!! We will be leaving Temple at 9AM and returning around 6PM. Cost for the event is $35 for unlimited snow tubing. Please bring money for food.

I would also like to thank Sisterhood and Congregation Emanu El for sponsoring five TYGER students to attend the NFTY Fall Kallah. The scholarships which you provided are greatly appreciated! TYGER wishes your family a happy and healthy holiday and New Year.

School News

We had a marvelous turn out for the Family Shabbat Service on Friday, November 15 with roughly 50 participants including families and their children.

Instead of our normal potluck dinner, our parent volunteers provided an Israeli style family dinner which was a delicious feast. I would like to thank them, especially Karyn Lehmann, for all of their hard work and effort to make this a truly memorable event. Once again, our SJL students from Aleph to Dalet sounded wonderful performing on the bema. I am looking forward to our next Family Shabbat Service scheduled for the evening of Friday, December 13. If you have not attended a Family Service, I encourage you to come and see all of the great things our students and families are doing to support our school.

On Sunday, November 17, representatives from Camp Mountain Chai, located near Angelus Oaks, gave a presentation to our SJL students about the various summer programs they offer to Jewish youth. Many students, including their families, were excited to take full advantage of the programs available. Several of our SJL alumni have attended the camp and enjoyed their experiences. If you or your children are interested, please contact my office and I will provide you the camp information packet.

Our biggest fundraiser of the year, the Barnes and Noble Bookfair, took place on the afternoon of Sunday, November 24, at the Citrus Plaza in Redlands. We had many people attend and buy gifts for their friends and families. Our temple choir and students, along with Jerry Ripley, our choir director, regaled participants with a variety of Hanukkah songs and several other volunteers helped with gift wrapping, lighting the menorah, and dreidel games. I would like to thank all of them for coming out and showing their holiday spirit.

Help Distribute Food To The Needy This Holiday Season

Volunteers are needed to help sort food packages for the hungry at the holiday season, coordinated by the Community Action

Partnership. Volunteers are welcome on various dates in December at the CAP offices, 696 S. Tiptecanoe Avenue, San Bernardino. Call either Rabbi Kohn, or Rebecca Hoggarth, at the CAP, 723-1593, if you would like to help.

As I write this message. Hanukkah will be soon upon us (commencing on Thanksgiving, no less!) I wish you all a safe and happy holiday with your friends and families!

Introducing:

In Our Own Words

A New Feature of Shabbat Services

Starting last month, a new feature has been added to some Friday night Erev Shabbat Services. At select services, a Congregant will be invited to present his or her ideas on the meaning of Jewish community, or what he or she envisions community to be. (For Service Schedule, see page 2 of the Bulletin). This will be a rich opportunity for Congregation Emanu El to learn from and get to know one another. This project has been developed with our Membership Committee.

The Wonderful World of Sisterhood!

Tikun Olam: “Repairing the world” or social action is the Reform movement idea that our purpose as Jews is not just to follow the Jewish laws and traditions but to repair what is broken in the world around us. Reading an article about the direct connection between Reform Judaism and Tikun Olam was an “Ah Ha” moment for me. I don’t always follow Jewish laws but I do feel compelled to carry on traditions and share them with my family. I feel a strong push or pull, if you will, to make our own community better and more fulfilling for everyone.

For Reform Jews, the importance of working individually and collectively toward a better world is important to our understanding of what it means to be an active Jew. Who do you think this sounds like? Our Sisterhood, for sure! I think it is apparent in how we plan our activities and our social action projects. We choose projects large and small that help many and the few. Repairing our world, making sure our kids go to camp, making blankets for kids in the hospital, taking goodie bags and gifts to chemo patients and making sure our TYGER kids go to NFTY events are just a few examples.

I am so proud of the growth and change Sisterhood has undergone in such a short time. For instance, the gift shop Chanukah sale was successful and great fun coupled with our Bagel Schmooze. The Monica Piper comedy show raised $1,700 for our Rabbi Hillel and Rita Cohn Campership Fund. Now Chanukah has come and gone and many of us are attending the URJ Biennial in San Diego this month and representing our community. Finally, as we look forward into January and to everyone’s favorite event... CASINO NIGHT RETURNS! with all the food and fun you expect from us on January 11th so invite your family and friends because it will be a blast! I hope you will join me in a little Tikun Olam this holiday season. Feed the homeless, work at a soup kitchen, take food and needed items to local community services organizations or simply give an elderly person a ride to temple.
