Refreshments provided by Sisterhood

Rabbi Singer asks us to rethink prisons in the United States in the context of Jewish belief. How has the “War on Drugs” resulted in mass incarceration, particularly of people of color? How do we feel about solitary confinement? What is the role of drug rehabilitation, education, and job training? What has been the affect of the release of prison inmates to county jails?

Evolution: A Personal Confession

Dear Friends,

Before I shifted my direction to pursue learning for the rabbinate, I was an environmental studies major in undergraduate school at Ohio's historic Antioch College. One of the most memorable experiences during my Antioch tenure was a coop internship in paleontology at Chicago's Field Museum, where, besides my work writing the type catalogue for the Field's collection of spiral nautili, I also undertook an independent study course in evolution, with the curators as mentors.

The Field Museum was arguably the best place to study evolution... other than the Galapagos Islands!

Last month with a group of rabbis, I traveled to Ecuador to visit the Jews of Quito, and as well we saw the tortoises, iguanas and finches of those celebrated islands. We not only were fascinated with the beauty and majesty of these pristine places, but we were deeply enamored of the powerful confluence of evolution and Jewish thought. The Genesis mythology could rightly be described as the earliest evolutionary manifesto in the world.

This month we mark Evolution Shabbat on Friday, February 7, to coincide with Charles Darwin's birthday. I will present slides and thoughts from the Galapagos to enrich the Service, and I look forward to seeing you there.

Rabbi Douglas Kohn

C'mon along and listen to....a lullaby of Broadway!

Excitement is once again in the air with just a few weeks to go until our annual Cantor's Concert on February 22nd! Sponsored in part by the Lionel Heller Memorial Music Fund, this year's program FROM BEMA TO BROADWAY is full of all kinds of musical treats.... With upbeat Cantorial classics, not only will it be a feast of some of the greatest Broadway show tunes even written, but in addition to my Cantorial colleagues, the concert will feature two musical talents of Congregation Emanu El, Shaina Knox, daughter of Stacy and Jim Knox, granddaughter of Cherrie and Ron Lubey, as well as Naomi Szwarczstejn, daughter of Randy and Caren Slotkin. Our Volunteer choir will be participating as well as the children of our School For Jewish Living. Under the direction of Jerry Ripley, our 'orchestra' will also feature a small combo this year including our own Michelle Antil on clarinet.

After warming up with some of our most upbeat Liturgical favorites – Hine ma tov, Yism'chu, Shiru L'adonai, and Ahavat Olam, get ready to swing and sway to Gershwin, Bernstein, Sondheim, Schwartz, Jerry Bock, William Finn (yes, he's Jewish!) and more ... Mark your calendars now and contact the Temple Office to purchase your tickets!!!

B'shira,

Cantor Jennifer Bern-Vogel

Dear Friends:

A couple of years ago, we introduced the option of receiving the Temple Bulletin electronically, not only to save paper but for the convenience of our computer savvy readers. I've heard that this has worked out very well for some but not so well for others so I just want to remind our members that you may opt to receive The Bulletin by U.S. Mail, if you prefer. Just let us know your preference and we'll make it happen. In fact, you can receive The Bulletin by mail and electronically if that works best for you and other members of your family! (Don't forget that mom may want to receive the The Bulletin by mail and dad may want to read it on his computer.....) Our main goal is to keep you informed of all the Shabbat Services, programs, festivals, cultural events, fund raisers and educational opportunities offered at Congregation Emanu El.

Additionally, we share with you life cycle events of our community; deaths, births, marriages, graduations, etc. Please read The Bulletin so that you may participate in these important moments. Our congregants appreciate your prayers and words of encouragement.

Robetta Darrow, Temple Administrator

From our Temple President

What a great start to the year. Sisterhood dazzled us with another successful Casino Night with everyone walking away big winners (except for those who played at my Blackjack table). Successful programs like Casino Night help Sisterhood provide funds to support our Congregation, provide campership scholarships, and host informative brunches and programs.

There are more Temple events coming up in February. Join us on February 5 for the Rabbi Norman F. Feldheim Lecture featuring Rabbi Suzanne Singer from Temple Beth El in Riverside. Rabbi Singer will speak on "Orange is the New Black: Prisons and Jewish Values". The Feldheim lectures are always interesting and informative. Once again, Cantor Jennifer Bern-Vogel presents an outstanding musical event for our entire community. "From the Bema to Broadway and Back" will feature our Cantor along with many of her cantorial colleagues from the Southern California area. They will regale us with both liturgical music as well as their favorite Broadway show tunes. Last year's concert was a sell-out and you won't want to miss this one either. Join us on February 22 by contacting the Temple office today to reserve your seats.

I mentioned in an earlier Bulletin that the Board of Directors has been providing me with their thoughts on some projects and programs to introduce to the Congregation. The program receiving the most votes was Social Action. Nancy Sidhu, who heads up the Twice a year new names are added to our Wall of Perpetual Memorial. The next dedication of names will be Friday, April 4, at 7:30 p.m. Another dedication will take place in the fall.

If you would like the name of your loved one placed on the Wall of Perpetual Memorial for the April dedication, contact the Temple Office by March 7.

You may also make pre-need arrangements for a location on the Wall. The contribution for inscription on the Wall is $650 for members and $1200 for non-members.

When a name is placed on the Wall of Perpetual Memorial it is included in each year's Book of Memory, is read aloud each year on the Shabbat closest to the Yahrzeit, and family members are notified of the impending Yahrzeit.

School News

Greetings!

I hope you all had a restful winter break and an awesome start to the New Year. Our Tu B'Shvat Seder held on the evening of Friday, January 17, was a remarkable success. We had over 80 people attend the service along with our School for Jewish Living students. Michelle Kaufman, our Seder coordinator, did a marvelous job of setting up the social hall to accommodate everyone who attended. Cantor Jennifer Bern-Vogel led a splendid service along with our choir director, Jerry Ripley. Our students displayed and performed their talents throughout the service and our parent volunteers brought a variety of foods to share with all who attended. I would like to thank all who helped and participated during the Seder, making the event truly memorable.

On Sunday, January 19, the SJL students helped to make peanut butter and jelly sandwiches for the St. Paul AME Church located in San Bernardino for the church's Martin Luther King, Jr. Day celebration. All the students from Aleph to Hei helped in preparing and packaging the sandwiches and David Swedlove, one of our parent volunteers, made sure the students made and packaged the sandwiches perfectly. I would like to thank him, the parents who brought the foodstuffs, and the students for all their efforts.

As I write this message, I am looking forward to the Cantor's Concert, "From Bema to Broadway," that will take place on the evening of Saturday, February 22. Our SJL students will be performing the song "When you Believe" from the film, The Prince of Egypt. I am sure our students will surpass themselves in their performance. See you then if not sooner!

Camp Scholarships Available

Parents, as you begin to think about summer plans for your children, please consider sending them to a Jewish camp. The campers will experience Judaism 24/7, a difficult proposition in the Inland Empire. The memories and experiences that our youngsters come home with are indescribable. They will return with stories of how they spent Shabbat, activities that challenged them both intellectually, spiritually and physically; most importantly, they will forge new lifelong friendships.

The Sisterhood of Congregation Emanu El oversees the Rabbi Hillel and Rita Cohn Campership Fund established by the Congregation and Sisterhood upon Rabbi Hillel's retirement. Funds have been set aside to assist families with sending their children to camp. A selection of camp brochures are available in the Temple Office. Please consider the importance of this Jewish experience. Contact Karyn Lehmann for an application or for more information.

Social Action Committee, has informed the Board that their first project will be related to ways we can support Mental Health issues in the community. Details of their project, and a call for volunteers, will be announced at a future time.

I look forward to seeing you at upcoming events and, of course, at services. Please share with me your thoughts on how we can better serve your needs.

B'Shalom,

Paul Zipperstein, Temple President

The Wonderful World of Sisterhood!

Hello Friends,

Wow, I cannot believe that we are already into February. I want to begin by saying, "thank you" to everyone who helped to make "Viva Las Vegas," our annual Casino Night, a success. Thanks to all of you who brought friends, donated time and money, and to those who just came out to support Sisterhood and have fun! In addition to Casino night, our book club discussion group met and discussed The Book Thief. We had another fun Mah Jongg Madness night to help us hone our skills for our annual Mah Jongg Tournament which will take place on February 17th.

Ladies from all over the Inland Empire will play mah jongg, eat and have fun at the Tournament which is open to all mah jongg players.

Our next brunch is on February 9th featuring our very own Dr. Lawrence Raphael who will speak on women's heart health. Everyone can learn something new about caring for our hearts...we all have one!

Once again, Rob Vines generously chaired our fabulous Super Bowl Pool Fundraiser. I know many of you look forward to participating in this as you root for your favorite team in the Super Bowl. Thank you for your generosity as this year we were able to fill three football pools. That means more winners and more money to all the causes Sisterhood supports for our Congregation. As Purim approaches, we look forward to once again providing shalach manot gifts. It is a mitzvah to send shalach manos, a Purim gift of food. In recent years, we have been striving to reach our entire community and give lovely gifts that were thoughtfully picked out and assembled by our Sisterhood. Everyone will receive a shalach manot gift bag this year! Watch your mail for the order forms.

Lastly, it is that time of year when our Sisterhood search committee seeks to fill very important board positions. If anyone is interested in holding a position on our board, please give Cherrie Lubey or Barb Smith a call.

Thank you again for supporting Sisterhood,

Stacy Knox, Sisterhood President
