Rabbinic Reflections

עֲשֵׂה לָךְ רֵב, וְקַנֵּה לָךְ חֵבֵר

Make for yourself a Rabbi, and acquire for yourself a friend -- (Pirkei Avot 1:7)

To borrow a phrase from Hall of Fame Jewish songwriter Neil Diamond: "Hello, again! Hello!"

It is with great excitement and much gratitude that I reintroduce myself to all of you as your new Rabbi. Serving for this past year as the Director of The School for Jewish Living has given me a wonderful introduction to Congregation Emanu El, and I look forward to a beautiful future together. I thank the members of the Rabbinic Search Committee for the dedication, professionalism and sensitivity that they brought to the important and sacred task of choosing a new spiritual leader for this community. I also thank the members of the Rabbinic Transition Committee whose counsel and support has been, and will continue to be, of immeasurable value. Thank you as well to everyone who has so warmly welcomed my family and me to Congregation Emanu El.

The twelfth-century French Neo-Platonic philosopher Bernard of Chartres is credited with coining the phrase "standing on the shoulders of giants." He is quoted as saying, "we are like dwarves standing on the shoulders of giants, and thus we are able to see more and farther than the latter. And this is not at all because of the acuteness of our sight or the stature of our bodies, but because we are carried aloft and elevated by the magnitude of the giants who came before us." And so, I humbly ascend to the shoulders of the five previous senior Rabbis who have served Congregation Emanu El during the past century: Rabbi Solomon Margolis, Rabbi Jacob Alkow, Rabbi Norman F. Feldheim, Rabbi Hillel Cohn and Rabbi Douglas Kohn.

Over the course of the summer, I will be contacting every member of Congregation Emanu El to say hello, and to hear from you about your vision for the future of our historic congregation. Perched together on the shoulders of those who came before us, may we see the new heights to which we will together ascend!

Kol tuv,

Rabbi Jay Sherwood

Cantorial Comments

As I write this article, I am preparing to leave for the national Reform Cantor's Convention (ACC - American Conference of Cantors) in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. As always, it is an opportunity to catch up with many dear friends and colleagues, participate in a concert, listen to new musical compositions, attend important meetings, lectures, best practices workshops and ... oh, yes – hopefully get some relaxation in at some point too!

This July, I am pleased to welcome to Congregation Emanu El, my colleague, Jay Sherwood, who is beginning his first month as our new full-time rabbi. Rabbi Sherwood and I have begun our preparation for the High Holy Day season along with Jerry Ripley, who has been the musical pillar of the synagogue for thirty-plus years. I am looking forward to working with Rabbi Sherwood, whose musical background lends a sensitive understanding to the organic flow and possibilities between the spoken word and chanted prayer liturgy. As in years past, we look forward to the participation of members who would like to chant or read Torah or Haftarah on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur! In addition to those who have previously chanted, we would love to hear from others who may be interested, especially post b'nai mitzvah students! Even if you only chant three verses – that is a 'kosher' amount for an Aliyah. Please contact me if you would like to participate this year. I will supply recordings for those interested. Wishing everyone safe travels, whether near or far,

B'shira –

Temple Board of Directors Meeting

Thursday - July 16, 2015

7:00 pm

Members of the congregation are always welcome to attend the meetings of the Board and to participate in its deliberations.

Presidential Perspectives

This month's theme must surely be "Hail and Farewell". We prepare to bid adieu to Rabbi Hillel Cohn as our full time rabbi as he returns to his role as our Rabbi Emeritus. Congregation Emanu El owes him a huge "Thank You" for his year of service without compensation. With enormous anticipation, we prepare to welcome Rabbi Jay Sherwood as our new congregational rabbi, effective July 1st.

I am sure Shabbat services on July 3rd will be well attended as Rabbi Sherwood conducts his initial service as our spiritual leader.

We offer thanks and bid farewell to those members of our Board of Directors and Sisterhood who have completed their service, and we express our gratitude to the new leaders and officers of these groups who have volunteered their time to serve the congregation.

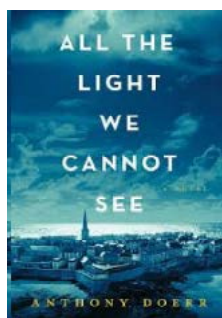

As your President, let me say that we have a remarkably talented and energetic Board of Directors that is prepared to tackle, headlong, the challenges of running a congregation.

Lastly, our creative fund raising committee has two events lined up for us. Join us on Saturday, July 18th as Jim Curry sings the music of John Denver and again on Saturday, October 10th for an evening with Ed Asner. I look forward to seeing you there.

L'hitraot,

Craig Beasley

Sisterhood Book Club

The next Sisterhood Book Club meeting will be held on Wednesday, August 12th at 7:00 pm at the home of Shelley Bodnar. The book that will be discussed is All the Light We Cannot See by Anthony Doerr.

For further information call Leslie Soltz at 909-864-2655 or 714-813-1792.

Sisterhood Speaks

Our Sisterhood has already had a wonderful start to its new year- beginning with a beautiful Havdalah. Many thanks go to Cherrie Lubey for hosting the Havdalah as well as to Heidi Nimmo for so graciously leading the event. We showered our wonderful 3-term immediate past president, Stacy Knox, with cards, gifts and certificates of appreciation. Of course she graciously returned her thanks and gratitude and showered many of us with gifts and flowers. In addition, thanks to Michelle Kaufman and Karyn Lehman for arranging plenty of delicious food for us to nosh.

We have already begun our Sisterhood membership drive. All are invited to join; please check our Temple website for the membership form or see Heidi Nimmo with any questions. Our paid-up brunch this year will feature Chef Marla Cohn herself and will be October 11th!

Our next Sisterhood Board meeting will be August 2 at 10:00 a.m. On August 30th, Sisterhood will once again be hosting a Bagel Schmooze in honor of the first day of School for Jewish Living.

Last but not least I hope everyone has already joined along with me in registering for the annual Believe Walk coming up very quickly - October 4th! What a wonderful cause to be part of! I am so very honored to be part of such a wonderful group of women who continue to show they are truly the heart of our congregation. Best to all!

Francesca Sweet

Mental Health Awareness In Action: Our Mission, Our Progress

Mental Health First Aid

For emergencies, do you have a first aid kit in your home or your car? Many of us do. It seems sensible. How about one for mental health emergencies? Can you even imagine what that might be? What would you put into that little box?

Actually, mental health first aid kits are in our minds. Maybe not our minds yet, but lots of Australians have them. Since 2001, they've been training their citizens in first aid for mental health crises. Now they say 2.1% of their population know how to respond to friends, relatives, and co-workers when help is needed. Some people in Maryland thought that was a great idea and wanted us Americans to have the training, too. Maryland, collaborating with the Aussies and some folks from Missouri's mental health department, developed a version for the U.S.

Nancy Sidhu went through the free eight-hour training in June, given by San Bernardino County's Department of Behavioral Health. She learned a lot and got to know a cute koala named ALGEE. When we find someone in clear mental distress, ALGEE helps us remember what to do:

- Assess the risk of suicide or harm
- Listen nonjudgmentally
- Give reassurance and information
- Encourage appropriate professional help
- Encourage self-help and other support strategies

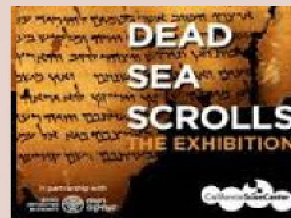

Mental Health First Aid training included a video demonstrating in dramatic form what kinds of actions and attitudes are helpful and what are decidedly not. It included activities and other visuals, not to mention two wonderful trainers who lead the group through the two days.

Like Australia, let's make mental health first aid skills as common as physical first aid skills. As we educate our public to help, we'll be reducing the stigma of mental illness as well. Let's follow those Down Under and befriend ALGEE.

Canter's Deli
with a teaching by
Rabbi Jay Sherwood
about the modern significance of the Dead Sea Scrolls

Nobody is quite sure why, but in 1947 young goat-herders wandered inside a cave, perhaps in search of a stray goat, shade from the sun, or even hidden treasure. Whatever the reason, they made a remarkable discovery. They found an assortment of clay jars, inside of which were leather scrolls, wrapped in linen. Over the next nine years, Bedouins and archaeologists searched the surrounding caves, eventually assembling the collection of documents that we know today as the Dead Sea Scrolls.

Come explore Dead Sea Scrolls: The Exhibition at the California Science Center, which features over 600 ancient artifacts on loan from the Israel Antiquities Authority, which offer a glimpse into the lifestyle and religion of ancient Israel, more than 2000 years ago.

Before entering the exhibit, we will soar high above the ancient city of Jerusalem as we view the National Geographic film Jerusalem 3D.

After being granted special permission in the region's strict no-fly zone, filmmakers were able to capture the first-ever large format aerial footage of the Old City and throughout the Holy Land. Through breathtaking aerial footage, eye-opening personal stories and remarkable historical perspective, Jerusalem 3D takes viewers inside the heart of the ancient city in ways never seen before.

Then join us for dinner at Canter's Deli. While we wait for our meal to be served, Rabbi Jay Sherwood will share some modern perspectives on these ancient scrolls.

New Members Appointed to Board of Directors

At its meeting on June 18th the Board of Directors approved the appointment by Craig Beasley of Susan Shimoff and Gloria Cutler to fill vacancies on the Board of Directors for terms through June, 2016. Susan served as a member of the Board from 2014-2015 and is now entering a second term. Gloria Cutler, a past president of the congregation and a past president of Sisterhood has a distinguished record of service to the congregation.

An additional vacancy will be filled in the near future by Craig Beasley, thus bringing the board up to its maximum number of members.

Additionally, Craig Beasley has appointed two members, Michael Kress and Marvin Reiter to serve as Members-At-Large of the Executive Committee.

David Swedlove Receives President's Award

At the Annual Meeting held on June 18th the President's Award was conferred on David Swedlove. This award is presented annually by the president of the congregation to recognize exceptional volunteer service to the congregation. In presenting the award, Paul Zipperstein noted the many hours of service David has given for many years. Most recently David has dealt with numerous problems related to our building, personally installed the dance floor for special events, erected the Sukkah, repaired carpeting as needed and much more. Additionally, he has served for the past year as Chairperson of the Board of Managers of our Home of Eternity Cemetery.

We congratulate David on this well-deserved honor.

Congregation Receives Two Bequests

Over the last few weeks we have learned that the congregation was included in the wills of two of our long-time members, and we have received the proceeds of those bequests.

One bequest was received from the estate of the late Rita Serlin. Additionally, she made a bequest to our Home of Eternity Cemetery Fund.

Another bequest was received from the estate of the late Irmay Tilton.

We are grateful that both of these members included the congregation in their estate planning. We encourage all of our members to consider including the congregation in their estate planning. If you or your estate planning advisor need information on how to include Congregation Emanu El in your will please contact Judy Filsinger, our temple administrator.

New Names To Be Inscribed on Wall of Perpetual Memorial

Our Wall of Perpetual Memorial is a most sacred place in our temple. It was part of the main hallway of our temple building in San Bernardino and is now part of a beautiful Memorial Alcove in our new temple edifice.

Names are added to our Wall of Perpetual twice each year. The next dedication will take place as part of our Erev Shabbat service on Friday, September 11th. When a name is inscribed on the Wall of Perpetual Memorial it is read from the bema each year on the Shabbat closest to the Yahrzeit (the anniversary of death) and is included in the annual Book of Memory which is used at the four Yizkor/Memorial Services held during the year (Yom Kippur, Sh'mini Atzeret, the Conclusion of Pesach and Shavuot). Additionally, family members are notified annually of the impending Yahrzeit and provided with guidance on how they can appropriately mark the Yahrzeit of their loved one.

The Wall itself is made of exquisite marble and names are inscribed in gold leaf lettering.

The contribution for the inscription of a name on the Wall of Perpetual Memorial is $650. for members of the congregation desiring to place the name of a loved one on the Wall. The contribution for non-members is $1250.00. It is also possible to make pre-need arrangements for the placement of a name on the Wall after ones demise.

If you wish to have the name of a loved one inscribed on our Wall of Perpetual Memorial in time for the dedication on September 11th please contact Judy Filsinger, Temple Administrator, no later than August 14, 2015.

Back Again by Popular Demand Sisterhood Mah Jong Tournament 2016!

Preparations are already underway to make the 2016 Mahj games the biggest and best AND most fun ever!

One of the most popular attractions of the day are the beautiful baskets loaded with gifts and treats that are raffled off. In the past, we've been able to make over a dozen large baskets thanks to the donations of members of our temple and community.

Sisterhood would greatly appreciate your donation of anything you feel would be appropriate to place in one of these baskets--including any large baskets you may already have or would be willing to buy. Ideas for donated basket items are unused gifts you might already have in your closet, such as beauty products, kitchen ware, or decorative home accessories. Items or gift cards that you feel comfortable soliciting from favorite businesses would be welcome as would clear wrapping paper or large ribbons for the baskets.

To donate or for further information, please call or email:

RABBI HILLEL COHN

Dear Friends -

Rita and I are still aglow from the magnificent Dinner-Dance held in my honor. It was an evening long to be remembered. I was thrilled to see so many in attendance - former members of our congregation who came to join in the celebration, long-time as well as relatively new members of our congregation, friends from the greater San Bernardino area with whom I work in a variety of community activities, rabbinic colleagues, friends of our congregation and Jewish community - and more.

I was deeply touched by the tributes given by my dear friends Leona Anonoff-Sadacca and The Honorable Patrick Morris.

The Tribute Journal contained so many lovely and loving messages and it also enabled our congregation to raise a significant amount of sorely needed funds. Thanks to all who worked on this project by soliciting greetings, those who created a beautiful book that will be a keepsake for many, and those who generously placed greetings or advertisements in the Journal

The entire evening was elegant in every way. My thanks go to the Fund-Raising Committee that initiated the plans for the Gala and to the committee that arranged for the catering, the decorations and everything else that went into making the evening superb.

I am so glad that everyone who attended had a wonderful time and I am profoundly appreciative of the honors bestowed on me. I really felt the of the gratitude of the congregation for my service over the past year.

May our great congregation go from strength to strength in the days and years ahead.

*With thanks and blessings,
Rabbi Hillel Cohn*
