Rabbi Kohn Farewell

June 13, 7:30 p.m.

Join us at Shabbat Services as we honor Rabbi Douglas Kohn for his 13 years of service to Congregation Emanu El. Guest speakers and festive Oneg Shabbat following.

May is National Mental Health Awareness Month

Learn how you can participate by wearing a green ribbon! More information on page 4.

Temple Beth El - CEE Joint Havdallah May 10, 7:30 p.m. at Temple Beth El, Riverside

The Havdallah service marks the separation between the end of Shabbat and the week. Let's gather together with our friends at Temple Beth El in Riverside to recite the blessings over the wine, spices, candle and between the separation of holy and commonplace. Sing and dance to rock/reggae/Jewish music with their volunteer band, the Kleztafarrians! Havdallah Service will be led by Rabbi Suzanne Singer (TBE) and Rabbi Douglas Kohn.

Please bring a dessert to share.

Location:
Temple Beth El, 2675 Central, Riverside

Feel free to contact Roberta in the Temple Office if you need driving directions.

Shavuot Morning Celebration of Torah

Wednesday Morning

10:00 a.m.

In our Tradition, the spring festival of Shavuot marks the commemoration of our Israelite forebears receiving the Torah at Mt. Sinai. It is the conclusion of the Spring trek from Passover, and Egyptian bondage, to Sinai and freedom.

This year at Shavuot, we will have a Torah celebration, with study about the Torah, how it is written, laws of handling the Torah, and a peek at several of our cherished Torah scrolls.

You are Invited to
The Service of Confirmation in Judaism

Erev Shavuot,
6 Sivan 5774, Tuesday, June 3, 7 pm.

The following students will become

Dear Friends,

During the course of a week, a month, or a year, or more, we may become weary with the work of life. To be well, or to live a life of meaning, we benefit from opportunities to step back from that work of life, to take, as a friend who works in a church calls it, “the balcony view,” away from and above the crowded main floor, and the hecticness of life.

Jewish tradition provides us times to recharge ourselves, when we may get that balcony view. Weekly, we have Shabbat; annually, the fall Holy Days and the spring festivals. Those moments renew us as a people, and within that peoplehood, we are renewed as a community, as well.

And, as individuals, the calendar offers us weekly and annual refreshers, too. Yet, sometimes it is vital and necessary to climb those additional steps up to the balcony, to sit in the quiet of the rarified air of stillness, and to gain the wider, open perspective.

For me, such was the privilege of the recent eight weeks of sabbatical, so generously accorded me by our Temple leaders. I did some writing (on my third book), much reading (of several books), some travel, visited different synagogues (in five different states) and enjoyed many meaningful and compelling conversations. It was the balcony view, par excellence.

I thank you for your support, and I hope that we all may benefit from the opportunities of sacred refreshment, of that balcony view.

Rabbi Douglas Kohn

TERUAH!

I want to thank and offer kudos to all our School for Jewish Living students who participated in this year’s Cantor’s Concert as well as family worship services throughout the year, with the help of our music instructors, Charlie Kramer and Michele Zipperstein. The students have such limited time to come together to study our Jewish traditions, learn Hebrew, engage in artistic expressions of our heritage, let alone practice music – I am grateful to everyone who supports and encourages our students in these endeavors.

I also want to put out an early TERUAH ! call to post-b’nai mitzvah students (of all ages!) who would like to participate in chanting Torah during the High Holy Days. As I did last year, I am happy to make recordings and arrange a couple of summer rehearsals prior to the holidays. Please let me know if you are interested. Even if you haven’t chanted Torah since your bar mitzvah 50 years ago – participating in services can give even greater depth of meaning to your holiday experience.

Cantor Jennifer Bern-Vogel

Dear Friends:

Welcome back Rabbi Kohn! I truly hope that you had a relaxing and fulfilling sabbatical. In case you thought that we’d be slacking off during March and April, I wanted to let you know that we kept fairly busy here in your absence with Purim, Mitzvah Day, the Wall of Perpetual Memorial Dedication, Passover Seders/Services, Marriage Reconsecration Ceremony, Yom Hashoa, Sisterhood Talent Show and all of the regular Shabbat observances, School for Jewish Living classes and Sisterhood events. (Need I go on....Congregation Emanu El is a really busy place). And so, it is only fair to thank Rabbi Kohn for thoughtful planning which allowed us to carry on a “normal” schedule. Also, many thanks to Rabbi Emeritus Hillel Cohn, Cantor Bern-Vogel, Greg Minton and Paul & Chel Zipperstein for being flexible and available so that we could continue to bring quality programs and services to our members.

Please do me a favor and offer your personal thanks to Sisterhood for arranging not just one, but TWO beautiful Seders to make Passover so special for members of our Congregation. This is such a very important function of our synagogue as there are some members who just aren’t able to put together a Seder on their own.

Roberta Darrow, Temple Administrator

From our Temple President

As we approach the end of the Temple’s fiscal year (June 30) it brings to mind several things I would like to share with you.

On May 29 we will conduct the Annual Meeting of our Congregation. The Board of Directors will host a Barbecue dinner prior to the meeting starting at 6 p.m. The formal agenda begins at 7 p.m. and will provide you with a review of our operation and finances as well as reports from clergy and temple lay leaders. You will also have an opportunity to vote for the slate of new directors and board members. Please plan to join us for this important meeting.

The end of the fiscal year also reminds us to complete our dues commitment to assure that we are “members in good standing.” If you have not already paid your yearly dues, or are not on a monthly/quarterly deduction plan, please look at your statement and plan to complete your dues commitment before June 30. Dues letters for 2014-15 will arrive sometime in June.

Finally, this is also the time of year that we finalize our budget and temple calendar for the new fiscal year. The budget task force will complete its work the end of May and we will have reviewed the temple calendar for next year by the end of April. Once these items are finalized they will be available for our congregants to view.

MENTAL HEALTH AWARENESS IN ACTION

What's With the Green Ribbon?

May is full of flower colors, but Mental Health In Action asks you also to put on the green.
May is Mental Health Awareness Month, and around our country people will pin green

ribbons on their lapels, their spring dresses and tee-shirts, maybe even in their hair.

Green ribbons are an invitation this month
to talk about mental illness, to ask questions, to air our fears and lack of knowledge, and together to learn about this type of illness that effects so many of us, our family members, our neighbors and friends.

You can start by joining members of Mental Health Awareness In Action and Jeff Spears at Shabbat services, Friday evening, May 9th when Jeff will talk to us about Judaism and mental illness. Wear something bright green and we'll give you a ribbon to pin on too!

If you can help or would like to learn more, join us at our next meeting on May 22, 2014 at 7 PM at the temple.

making experience!

Also on the radar, TYGER is planning a super fun end of the year extravaganza! Stay tuned for more information!

School News

It is hard to believe, but we only have a handful of school sessions left before the end of the school year. It is a bittersweet feeling – looking forward to summer vacation while taking into account all the things we have accomplished.

Certainly, this was the case in April. The Family Shabbat Service that took place on Friday, April 11, was one of our best ever. Our song leader, Charlie Kramer, did an excellent job of conducting the service and leading the SJL students who also gave presentations on the importance of doing mitzvahs in everyday life which were very meaningful in scope. On Sunday, April 13, the school, in conjunction with Sisterhood, conducted its Model Seder. Finally, our Yom Hashoah service which took place on the afternoon of Sunday, April 27, with Cantor Jennifer Bern-Vogel leading the proceedings was quite profound. Our SJL students contributed poetry, pictures, and reflections about honoring people's memories which were very insightful and made an impression on all the congregants who attended the service.

We still have some things to celebrate this month before we conclude school business. Our next Family Shabbat Service will be taking place on Friday, May 23. The Hillel youth group at the University of Redlands will be hosting the event with Charlie Kramer leading services. We will also be honoring all of the teachers for all their hard work and efforts that evening in observance of Shabbat Hamoreh. This will be our last Family Shabbat Service of the year and probably one of our most special ones, so we are looking forward to your attendance there!

The Wonderful World of Sisterhood!

What a whirlwind April was! Passover is behind us and spring is here so we look forward to summer, school vacations and family time. I would like to thank the ladies of Sisterhood who arranged a wonderful Community Seder, the Women's Seder and the fabulous Talent Show. Looking ahead, we are excited to celebrate all of our Sisters at a special Sisterhood Havdallah on May 31st.

In the past, Sisterhood recorded all of the service hours which a volunteer logged throughout the year. This has become an increasingly difficult and cumbersome task. To reward ourselves, we held the Annual Donor Luncheon to pay tribute to those individuals for all the hard work and talent which they gave to our community. Sisterhood decided that the Donor Program and Donor Luncheon no longer served its intended purpose and we will do away with the Donor Program as have so many other Sisterhoods. In lieu of our Annual Donor Luncheon, we will celebrate our accomplishments through spirituality, friendship and wonderful food and drink at a Sisterhood member's home. All Sisters are invited and invitations will come shortly. The members of Sisterhood are so proud of our accomplishments, and how we support our beloved temple.

One more note, as we look to the next calendar year I would implore upon you to look at your calendars and find a date that you may host an Oneg/Snack and Shmooze. This is a wonderful way to honor a loved one, celebrate an anniversary, birthday or yahrzeit. Please contact Phyllis Sweet to sign up for this honor. It is easy, and a beautifully festive addition to our services. Of course, it also builds community as well and you know how I love to foster relationships in our community!

Dear Sisters,

Please join us for a Sisterhood Havdallah. We are celebrating at this time what we have accomplished this year and are saying goodbye to an age old tradition, the Donor System, while making way for new ones!

Again, please mark your calendars for 6 p.m. on Saturday May 31st, for food, drink and ceremony. Keep your eyes peeled for the e-vite, place...TBD.
