Rabbi Larry Goldmark "The PARR CZAR"

Executive Vice President,
Pacific Association of Reform Rabbis

"The Successful Rabbi: Among Others!"

Friday, Erev Shabbat, October 18, 2013, 6:30 p.m.

Rabbi Goldmark is the Executive Vice President of the Pacific Association of Reform Rabbis, an organization of 300 Reform Rabbis from throughout the Western United States. From 1999-2000 Rabbi Goldmark was the Acting Director of the Board of Rabbis of Southern California, an organization of over 250 rabbis representing all the branches of Judaism. He served as President of that body from 1997-1999. From 1993-1995 he was an officer of the Central Conference of Reform Rabbis, serving as the organization's Recording Secretary.

In August, 2009, Rabbi Goldmark was chosen to represent the Central Conference of American Rabbis and the Pacific Association of Reform Rabbis at the Los Angeles Campus of the Hebrew Union College- Jewish Institute of Religion. In May 2011, he was chosen to be a member of the Board of Overseers of HUC-JIR, Los Angeles.

WOW!! Meet Award-Winning Film Director/Producer
Roberta Grossman

Presenting her newest film:
Hava Nagila (The Movie)

at Congregation Emanu El
Saturday evening, November 2, 7:00 p.m.

Award-winning filmmaker Roberta Grossman has written and produced more than forty hours of documentary film and television. Grossman's last film, shown at Congregation Emanu El at Yom HaShoa, 2010, Blessed Is the Match: The Life and Death of Hannah Senesh, was shortlisted for an Academy Award, won the audience award at 13 film festivals, was broadcast on PBS and nominated for a Primetime Emmy. Grossman was the series producer and co-writer of 500 Nations, the eight-hour CBS mini-series on Native Americans hosted by Kevin Costner. Her feature documentary, Homeland: Four Portraits of Native Action, premiered in February 2005, and won awards at festivals worldwide. Other writing and directing credits include In the Footsteps of Jesus, a four-hour special for the History Channel; Hollywood & Power: Women on Top, a special for AMC; The Rich in America: 150 Years of Town and Country Magazine for A&E; The History of Christianity: the First Thousand Years, a four-hour special on A&E; and Heroines of the Hebrew Bible for the A&E series Mysteries of the Bible.

Special Guest:

Bob Knight

Founder and Director,
Inland Orange Conservancy

"Save the Groves, Eat a Zucchini: A Sacred Task"

Friday, Erev Shabbat, November 1, 2013, 7:30 pm

Bob Knight was born in Redlands in an orange grove. After college and graduate school in New York and 20 years as a telecom executive overseas in Japan, Indonesia, and Saudi Arabia, Bob realized what a wonderful place raising his kids in an orange grove would be. He returned to Redlands to manage his family's farm and citrus business. He is the founder of the Inland Orange Conservancy and Old Grove Orange Inc. He is a special Shabbat Guest!

Welcoming Guests: A Joy of Shabbat

Dear Friends,

One of the special joys of Shabbat is welcoming guests. Whether we invite friends or families or even passing visitors to our home before or after Services, or we welcome guests to the synagogue to join us for Shabbat, it is a very special treat to have guests grace our homes as we celebrate the Shabbat, and to make the evening and the experience glow with a new radiance.

This year we have a number of special guests joining Congregation Emanu El for Shabbat evenings, or at Havdalah, starting this month. In mid-October, Rabbi Larry Goldmark, an icon among Southern California Rabbis will speak at our synagogue on the theme, "The Successful Rabbi: Among Others." He will truly engage us with wit and wisdom. Then, in early November we have Bob Knight, the founder of the IOC—the Inland Orange Conservancy, joining us to address the health of our Valley, on Friday, November 1. The next night, Saturday, November 2, we have a very special Havdalah treat: Film Director and Producer Roberta Grossman will come to show her new hit, "Hava Nagila (The Movie)" and will thoroughly regale us with sights and song!

Let's welcome wonderful Shabbat guests this year!

Rabbi Douglas Kohn

One of my final prayers before the gates close at Neila is for the awe and wonder of the High Holy Days to extend throughout the year. So much of our world is inexplicable, mysterious. How people's paths cross, at certain times in their lives, coupled with the power of ritual and memory. Seven and a half decades ago, my mother was a young girl in Germany, practicing the organ in her synagogue in the early evening hours of November 9th – the infamous date in the year of 1938 that would become known as Kristallnacht.

Who could have known that my closest friend in California would end up being a German theologian? It was Dr. Gabriele Fassbeck who initiated the plan to honor my mother's birthday with Stolpersteine, literally, "stumbling stones." The brainchild of artist Gunter Demnig, these stones are small, cobblestone-sized brass memorials for victims of National Socialism. Set into the pavement of sidewalks in front of the buildings where Nazi victims once lived or worked, they call attention both to the individual victim and the scope of the Nazi war crimes. For this profound life's work, Demnig was the recipient of the 2012 Dr. Bernard Heller Prize from Hebrew Union College.

At the end of this month, two weeks before the 75th anniversary of Kristallnacht, I will travel with my cousins from London to Bielefeld, Germany for the dedication of Stolpersteine in front of the house built by my great grand father around 1860; my grandfather was born in 1874 in that same house and remained with his family until his children would leave on the Kindertransport to London in

Dear Friends:

For many reasons, including the onset of cooler weather, fall is one of my favorite seasons. At the temple, it is also a wonderful time to share our good fortune by making donations of food or Stater Bros. scrip cards to the Cornerstone Compassion Center or to Mazon as part of our High Holy Day tradition. This year our members and guests generously donated $500. I encourage you to continue this mitzvah throughout the year. You may bring groceries to the Temple Office or send us a check marked "Food For The Poor" in the memo line which we then use to use to purchase Stater Bros. scrip cards for Cornerstone and others in need.

Also in the fall, we collect funds to purchase turkeys which Cornerstone distributes to needy families at Thanksgiving. Please mark "Turkeys" on the memo of your check so that we may use your donation for that purpose. Last year we raised $1,200 for turkeys so let's see if we can exceed that goal this year!

During the past few months we've been delighted to open up the rental of our facility to those outside of our Temple community. Our building is quickly becoming a desired venue for fundraisers, weddings, B'nai Mitzvahs, parties and concerts of all types. Please share the news in your neighborhood and with local business owners as this is a great way for us to raise funds to maintain our beautiful facility. Please contact Stacy Knox or the Temple Office for more information.

Robetta Darrow, Temple Administrator

From our Temple President

I hope you had an inspiring New Year and a safe fast. You were incredibly generous again during our Kol Nidre pledge drive. My challenge for you to match last year's pledge plus $1 was heard. Your pledges totaled over $25,000. Thank you so much for your support. These funds, together with our dues, help to operate our Temple on a daily basis.

With the High Holy Days behind us we barely blinked and Sukkot and Simchat Torah rushed right by. Yes, the new year has indeed begun. Before leaving behind the High Holy Days, I would like you to think about Rabbi Kohn's Rosh Hashanah sermon about social action. Our Temple has a history of supporting social action issues. In a recent Board meeting we had a brainstorming session in which we listed many activities for our Congregation. After each board member ranked the activities, I thought it was interesting that the item that received the most support was social action. It is important that you offer your suggestions for causes that we can support but we cannot put all of our efforts behind every issue suggested. It is my hope that we can select a local and a regional/national issue for which we can put our resources to best use. It is equally important that you participate in the actions and events connected with the social action causes that are selected. When we all work together, we have the power to change our community, our region, and the world for the better.

Turkeys For The Hungry

For years, via our partnership with the Cornerstone Food Pantry, our members have thoughtfully provided turkeys for hundreds of needy families who otherwise would not celebrate Thanksgiving. To help this effort again this year, kindly send your donation of any amount, payable to "Congregation Emanu El," and marked "Turkeys," to the Temple Office.

T.Y.G.E.R.

By Jessica Campbell

(Temple Youth Group of Emanu El, Redlands)

TYGER has an amazing event planned for the month of October! We will be going to Castle Dark in Riverside on Saturday, October 19th!! The event will begin at Cafe Rio in Citrus Plaza at 6 p.m., and from there we will go to Castle Dark (the haunted version of Castle Park!) from 7-11 p.m. The cost of the amusement park is $20, which includes unlimited rides, miniature golf, and haunted mazes!! Please give your child money for dinner at Cafe Rio too. Please RSVP by October 11th and feel free to give me a call with any questions you might have! For our Tikken Olam project we will be starting a food drive which will take us all the way until Thanksgiving. Please bring nonperishable foods into the temple to be donated to the local food bank.

School News

I hope that all of you had a sweet beginning to the New Year and an easy fast over Yom Kippur. Even with all the holidays and festivals this early in the school year, we have been busy preparing lessons and developing activities to engage your children and help foster their Jewish identity to the fullest extent possible.

Last month was extremely active. On September 18th, the SJL community celebrated Sukkot in our first outdoor Sukkah in Redlands. The mood was truly festive and our families and children had a wonderful time. I would like to thank those who made this event possible, including Rabbi Kohn, our cantor, Jennifer Bern-Vogel, our music director, Jerry Ripley, our volunteers who helped erect the sukkah, and our students who helped to decorate it.

We also celebrated Simchat Torah on September 25<sup>h</sup>. This marked the occasion when we began anew the readings from the Torah and welcomed new members to the Congregation. This also gave Rabbi Kohn the opportunity to formally consecrate those children who are new to the School for Jewish Living.

I am pleased to see our students and teachers working hard in their classes and that the school is thriving with their efforts. I am sure that we will have a great school year. Please contact me if you have questions or concerns.

Two Great Unusual Jewish Novels: And Fascinating Discussion!!

Led by Rabbi Douglas Kohn

October 1, 2013, 7:00 p.m.

A Blessing on the Moon,
by Joseph Skibell

Written from the brilliant and unusual perspective of one who was just shot during the Holocaust, instead of resting in peace in the World to Come, Chaim Skibelski wanders the earth in a world of both familiarity and absurdity, encounters family and friends, goes to a hotel catering to murdered Jews, converses with a German soldier, and ponders why the moon no longer rises. Brilliant, witty and unforgettable!

October 8, 2013, 7:00 p.m.

Snow in August,
by Pete Hamill

In the year 1947, Michael Devlin, eleven years old and 100 percent American-Irish, is about to forge an extraordinary bond with a refugee of war from Prague, Rabbi Judah Hirsch. Standing united against a common enemy, they will summon from ancient sources a power in desperately short supply in modern Brooklyn—a force that's forgotten by most of the world but is known to believers as magic. They will summon from its centuries of rest the Golem, to once again fight evil and protect the vulnerable—in post-war Brooklyn!

The Wonderful World of Sisterhood!

We did it! My goal was to have 100 Sisterhood members and we have exceeded that and are still growing. Join Sisterhood now!

Shooo... Can you hear that? It is the calm sound of the holidays behind us. I am so proud of the ladies of Sisterhood as they again provided everything edible from the challot on Rosh Hashanah to the candied apples on Simchat Torah. Take a deep breath because we are off again with lots of fun in store for our Congregation. Once again, you're invited to Walk

The Hills for some exercise on Sunday, October 13 followed by a nosh and schmoozing. On Sunday, October 20, our first brunch will feature fabulous food and a presentation on genealogy. Call the temple office to make a reservation and save on the price at the door. I hope you have heard all the buzz.. we have an Emmy award winning comedy writer coming to little ol' Redlands on Saturday, November 9. Bring your family and friends as Monica Piper makes us laugh our socks off. On Tuesday, November 12 join Maj Madness. We will have many tables of Mah Jongg and a beginner's table (that is where I will be) and of course plenty of treats.

I am pleased to announce that Sisterhood will make Angel's Closet one of our social action projects. This Redlands based charity provides clothing assistance in a thoughtful way to homeless and needy high school youth. We are off to a great start in 5774. Thank you for your continued support. Share your ideas with me new ideas for activities that will bring benefit to all of us.

We are evolving wonderfully,

Stacy Knox, Sisterhood President
