Rabbinic Reflections

The high holidays are quickly upon us in almost a month. The month of Elul, which is the month in the Jewish calendar that precedes Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur begins August 12th. In the month of Elul, we are invited to get a head start on the introspective work we are asked to complete before the holidays themselves. There is something quite beautiful about having an entire month to prepare ourselves by asking the tough questions, where have I missed the mark and where do I need to do some repair in my relationships? In the Haftarah text now until our High Holydays, we are reading texts of comfort, reminding us that God is with us as we begin our preparation. Our liturgy echoes this, calling to us to “return again, return again, return to the land of your soul.” When we are able to honestly assess our misdoings, and look at our own areas of growth, we can open ourselves to approach Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur with deeper connection and insight.

As we prepare for all this introspective work, I compel you to ask yourself:

Where have I missed the mark this year?

What relationships need my attention?

Who do I need to forgive?

What do I need to ask forgiveness for and from whom?

This season beckons us to take time out to write, meditate and reflect on these important questions. The second step then is to begin the difficult work of reaching out and creating healing in relationships where it is needed. The prayers in our new Machzor remind us that Elul is our time to create healing in relationships with other human beings. Tradition teaches our healing with the Divine is in process in our prayer services on the holidays themselves. This Elul I will be posting meaningful questions on my Instagram (rabbireznick) and our Facebook for you to reflect upon, and enhance your experience as you get ready. I wish you and your family a meaningful Elul. Taking the time to prepare our souls for this important season can only enhance our spiritual growth and development.

Wishing you a meaningful month of introspection,

Rabbi Lindy Reznick

Cantorial Comments

ELUL = Ani L'dodi v'Dodi Li [Song of Songs 6:3]

Summer is quickly coming to an end, and with it, our tradition begins our most spiritual season; while students return to school, vacations come to an end, this year, barely ten days into August, we commence with the Jewish month of ELUL.

With Elul, we are reminded that Rosh Hashanah is just one month away! It offers us a special time of spiritual preparation leading up to the High Holy Days; a time of introspection, meditation, searching. In fact, in Aramaic, the word Elul is similar to the root word ‘to search’. And from the Talmud we learn that Elul is an acronym for the phrase Ani l'dodi v'Dodi Li [I am my beloved's and my beloved is mine.] Elul is an opportunity to search one's heart and draw closer to God as we approach the Yamim Nora'im or Days of Awe. With the daily sounding of the shofar during Elul, our spiritual-auditory senses are further reminded to waken our minds and hearts.

On the Saturday night a week before Rosh Hashanah, we come together for one of the most hauntingly beautiful services of the year - that of Selichot. This service which may be regarded as the “overture” to Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur is a mélange of melodies and nusach – the chanted prayer modes - which herald this season of reflection and change. The colorful Torah covers we are accustomed to seeing throughout the year are changed to pure white during the service of Selichot. We hope you will join us on Saturday, September 1st and be part of the special ritual as we re-dress our precious Torahs in their majestic white for this holiest time of the Jewish year!

Return us to You, Adonai, and we will return; renew our days as of old.

Presidential Perspectives

As the summer heats up, activity around the temple continues to be exciting and dynamic! Rabbi Reznick is completing her first month as our new Rabbi and I remain very impressed with her unique approach and fresh ideas for more engaging worship and better connectivity with our Jewish and wider community. Rabbi Reznick shows an amazing ability to connect with our congregants in a vibrant, warm and engaging way. Rabbi and Cantor Bern-Vogel are busy preparing for High Holy Days, which come very early this year with Erev Rosh Hashana falling on September 9. I want to thank them, and our Temple Administrator Judy Filsinger, for their exhaustive and diligent work to make our Temple, and especially High Holidays, so special and meaningful.

I would also like to remind you that the deadline is fast approaching for you to purchase copies of our new High Holy Day prayerbook, Mishkan Hanefesh. Each set is Fifty Dollars and can be inscribed in honor of or in memory of someone special in your life. We are more than half way to our goal of having 250 copies in time for Rosh Hashanah. Order forms can be found in the Temple office.

Rabbi Reznick and our Education and Youth Director, Jillian Snyder, are working diligently this summer to create new pathways for educating and shaping young Jewish minds in our School for Jewish Living. This includes among other things the return of Tot Shabbat and Shabbat Alive. The first day of SJL is August 26 with pre-registration happening on Sunday August 19. There will be a Sisterhood sponsored Bagel Schmooze that day, so even if you aren't involved in SJL, I encourage you to come and spend some time breaking bread (or bagels) with your fellow congregants and enjoying the energy and enthusiasm that young members bring to our Temple.

As I've said many times before, I hope you will work diligently to make Temple an important and intricate part of your life. Your presence and participation is crucial. Add your voice and support to ensure this historic house of worship never falters or strays and always remains relevant and meaningful. Since my family first joined this congregation in 1974, I have seen and been a part of many changes here at Congregation Emanu El. I'm certain that our brightest days remain ahead. May we always remember the importance of being one united community, bound by the history, struggles and strength of the Jewish people.

בְּעֶזְרַת הַשֵּׁם - With God's help, may we continue to persevere as a singular community and a united people guided by love and hope for the future.

L'Shalom,
Greg Weissman

Treasurer's Report

Shalom!

Hopefully you are able to read this column in an air-conditioned room or poolside with something cold to drink! Summer came fast and hard!

The 2017/18 financial report is completed. Due to the hugely successful Gala honoring the Shimoff's, CEE had a profit of approximately $30,000! A huge thank you to the committee that worked so diligently on the event!

By now you have received the letter from our President, Greg Weissman, requesting you to pledge the amount you will pay for dues in 2018/19. The dues structure at many reform temples across our country are changing. To adequately budget our income and expenses, we are switching to a suggested dues structure to assist people when pledging based on the stage of life they are in. If you can give more, please do so. If you are unable to give at the suggested dues level, we do not want to lose you as a valuable member of our congregation. Perhaps you can volunteer to assist in a fund raiser, volunteer your time in the front office, at the gift shop, or another area where we are short staffed. Please contact Stacy Knox to discuss your dues structure.

The High Holidays are in early September. You will not want to miss our first High Holiday services with Rabbi Reznick! Rosh Hashanah is September 10th and 11th. Yom Kippur is September 19.

As always – thank you for your current and future involvement at CEE! I look forward to seeing you all at Services in August! Stay Cool!

Sincerely,
Kathy Rosenfeld

Sisterhood Speaks

I hope everyone has made good use of summer to recharge and take a break from routine. Just as we are getting used to the looser schedule of summer, the end approaches, and we must consider how to resume our structured lives. The Sisterhood Board and I are looking forward to 5779 and the events we are planning. We have been enriched by the new friends we made this past year and hope to see everyone at one or another of our programs.

Our Sisterhood dues requests will be mailed shortly. I invite you all to join us in the work we do to keep Congregation Emanu El as a vibrant center of Jewish life in the Inland Empire. For women L'Dor V'Dor membership is $45 per year and includes membership in the National Organization - Women of Reform Judaism and a donation to the Youth, Education and Services Fund as well. Higher levels of membership are always welcome: Chai dues are $72, Kavod is $125 and Matriarchs are $145 per member. We welcome the support of men, who can join as associates for $36. Teens are invited to become junior members and dues are not required.

One of the responsibilities Sisterhood assumes is for the flowers that adorn the bema each Shabbat. It has been a tradition to make a donation on the occasion of the yahrzeit of a loved one to the Sisterhood Flower Fund, and I want to thank everyone who has supported Sisterhood with Flower Fund contributions. On the High Holy Days, we order especially lovely arrangements. For $150 each holiday, your family could be acknowledged in the bulletin and the holiday folder. If you would like to sponsor one or both of the flower arrangements, please contact me.

With High Holy Days arriving early in September this year, I want to invite everyone to join us for the oneg for S'lichot on Saturday evening, September 1, as well as the kiddush following services the first day of Rosh Hashonah, September 10 and break the fast following neilah on Yom Kippur, September 19. Such a Jewish way to start off the year -- eating!

Recently, I met with temple leadership to arrange the master calendar for the coming year. Rabbi Lindy Reznick has energized us all with some exciting ideas. I welcome any ideas you might have to provide programs for our congregational community. My email address is lhsoltz@gmail.com. I would enjoy hearing from you with suggestions and perhaps even praise.

From Our Director of Education & Youth

Shalom chaverim!

I hope everyone is enjoying the summer and staying cool. Planning for the next school year at the School for Jewish Living is coming along nicely. Our calendar is filling out with field trips, dine out fundraisers, fun filled shabbat observances, and holiday programming. I am thrilled to be working with Rabbi Reznick to make sure ritual observances are meaningful for our school families as well as all Emanu El congregants. I want to take this time to thank those who attended our Shul by the Pool in July. A heartfelt thank you goes to the Freimuth family who hosted this event in their lovely home.

Looking ahead, we will have a registration day for the School for Jewish Living on August 19th which will include a breakfast. School begins August 26th – I can't wait to see our families there! This summer seems to have flown by so quickly. I am looking forward to another year of learning, laughter, and love with our wonderful families and teaching staff. ,

L'Shalom,

THE COMIC AND HIS MASK

A man on a scooter is traveling the length of New Zealand. His name is Mike King, and he's a stand-up comic, rather brash and irreverent. He's also a man on a mission – to take off his mask, and change the world – or at least his country down under.

He travels with a banner that says "I Am Hope – Change Attitudes, Change the World." What he talks about is suicide and depression, and he talks in school auditoriums to high school kids.

Last year in New Zealand 155 young people died by suicide. It might not sound like very many in our country of 327 million people. (We had about 4600 youth suicides.) But all New Zealand has only about 4 ½ million people, about the same as the Riverside/San Bernardino/Ontario area.

Removing his mask, he tells the young people that he's a drug addict and an alcoholic with persistent issues of self-esteem. But he knows something about kids – he says that they want two things. They want to be loved. And they want to know that their thoughts and opinions are valued by the significant adults in their lives. "And it's not happening."

He works with the New Zealand government to help train high schoolers to respond effectively to their friends when they start thinking about suicide. He's a one-man stigma buster.

He says this: "Having problems and thoughts won't kill you. But holding onto those thoughts, and thinking that you're the only one that goes through it – that's the killer."

And: "We just need to love ourselves....I don't love myself yet, but....I'm starting to like myself a little bit."

Let's all take off our masks, start talking and exuding love.

WHAT CAN WE DO TO HELP THE MIGRANT FAMILIES THAT ARE SEPARATED?!

Separation and imprisonment of families who are attempting to come to the United States through our Southern borders in search of a better and safer life remains a crucial issue. Many of the detention centers with children are in filthy conditions with minimal food and unsanitary drinking conditions. At Congregation Emanu El, we are attempting to ease this situation through the mitzvot of tzedakah. We have mailed five boxes of clothing, toys and hygiene supplies to Temple Emanuel in McAllen, Texas who will in turn distribute the items to the nearby detention center. We thank you for your efforts.

Rabbi Reznick spoke to the social action chair at Temple Emanuel to let him know about our shipment and to see how else we can help. He shared that if we have individuals who still would like to donate to the cause, the best thing is to send money or Walmart gift cards. To send money, go to Temple Emanuel's webpage ... temple-emanuel.com. There one can donate using PayPal and indicate that your donation is to go to Social Action. A second option is to send a check to our temple indicating that the money is for the migrant families that are being separated and we will purchase Walmart cards through our scrip program and send them to Temple Emanuel. If you decide to assist us with purchasing Walmart cards please forward your donation to the temple office by August 10th.

We thank you again for your response to this national concern.

S'LICHOT: SERVICE AND PROGRAM

SATURDAY - SEPTEMBER 1, 2018
7:15-10:30 PM

The S'lichot (forgiveness) service begins the High Holy Days. The Rabbis thought that at night the soul is especially close to God. We think about our lives as we hear the melodies and read the High Holy Day prayers to prepare for the New Year.

- 7:15 Kever Avot
- 7:30 S'lichot Program
- 9:15 Reception hosted by Sisterhood
- 9:45 Changing the Torah covers and S'lichot

Kever Avot Service at Congregation Emanu El Prior to S'lichot

It is a long-standing cherished tradition to visit the graves of loved ones during the High Holy Day period. This is known as Kever Avot (literally, the graves of the ancestors). At this service special memorial prayers are recited and the rabbi delivers a brief message that stresses the importance of honoring the memories of loved ones.

Kever Avot will be held on Saturday evening, September 1st preceding S'lichot Services at 7:15 pm at Congregation Emanu El - Memorial Room. While this service memorializes those buried or entombed at our historic cemetery, it is certainly appropriate for all to attend, even if their loved ones are buried elsewhere.

Tashlich on the Afternoon of Rosh Hashanah

All are invited to participate in the Tashlich ceremony that is held on the afternoon of the 1st Day of Rosh Hashanah. Tashlich ("you shall cast out") is a tradition that developed in the Middle Ages. Our ancestors began the practice of walking to the banks of a river or some other body of water on the afternoon of Rosh Hashanah. There, with the recitation of prayers, they would empty their pockets and shake their clothing free of the sins they believed had accumulated there during the previous year. Often they would toss bread crumbs which symbolically represented the sins they wanted to cast off.

Tashlich will be held on Monday, September 10th at 4:30 pm at Ford Park which is just a few blocks from the temple. Rabbi Reznick and Cantor Bern-Vogel will lead this brief informal service which includes singing and activities. We encourage you to come dressed casually – preferably in white clothing. You can bring a few bread crumbs to cast into the water. This is a wonderful opportunity for families to join together in a time-honored Jewish tradition.

High Holy Day Baby Blessings

Our beloved, ongoing tradition of blessing newborns and our newest members of the Jewish community [up to 3 yrs] will be recognized on the bima on Rosh Hashanah morning, Monday, September 10, 2018, at approx. 10:00 a.m. We look forward to celebrating both the Creation of the World and the growth of your family!

*Just

Join us for a relaxing and restorative morning!
