In Ecuador, In January

Dear Friends,

In January, I will be away for ten days in the middle of the month... in Ecuador... with a group of about 20 other rabbis to visit with the Jewish community in Quito.

Why?

In short, during the Holocaust, Ecuador was one of only two countries in the world to openly welcome Jews, regardless of whether or not they had visas or passports. If they could get there from the horrors of Europe, they could come and stay. It is both a tragic and a glorious history, and one about which I was totally unaware until last spring when the trip was organized, and I signed-on. Imagine—the whole world was turning away the boatloads of refugee Jews from Germany. America sent away thousands who came seeking a haven on our shores. But little Ecuador, on the Pacific coast of South America, with no Jewish community of its own, said yes, and hundreds of Jews found shelter. Too bad it wasn't thousands.

Today, there is a small community of about 500 Jews remaining in Quito, and they are largely overlooked and ignored by the world. Until now. I'll return and tell you all about it!

Rabbi Douglas Kohn

[Torah wisdom] is a tree of life to those who hold fast to it, and all of its supporters are happy. —Proverbs 3:18

HAPPY NEW YEAR!!! We are a privileged folk, indeed, having so many opportunities to celebrate new beginnings! Not only are we part of the secular world marking 2014 in the Gregorian calendar but we Jews actually have four New Years, each with a different purpose! While this may seem strange at first glance it is actually not so different from the modern American calendar. We have the regular calendar year (January-December), fiscal or budget years for businesses which can have various start dates, the government's fiscal year (October-September), and the school year (September-June).

Our tradition celebrates the 1st of Nisan at the head of the Hebrew calendar, the 1st of Tishrei which marks our spiritual New Year of Rosh Hashanah, a tithing year formally on the 1st of Elul [think April 15 and Tax Day] and finally - the 15th of Shevat - the New Year of the Trees or Tu B'shvat.

The Kabbalistic festival of Tu B'shvat is a wonderful opportunity to acknowledge nature, blessings of creation, and in particular – a chance for each of us and our congregation to actively participate in making a difference in our environment. Together with SJJ students and their families, this year we will engage in a fun, delicious, musical and creative Seder, in which youth and older members can celebrate and learn with one another, planting seeds together.... I hope you will join us!

Wishing you blessings and peace in 2014,

Cantor Jennifer Betn-Vogel

Dear Friends:

This month I'd like to make a "plug" for our youth group, TYGER, coordinated by Jessica Campbell. Jessica has been instrumental in building relationships with youth from synagogues throughout the Inland Empire, Palm Springs and

Los Angeles so that our kids may experience an even wider range of Jewish belief and involvement. She has made it possible for youth from Congregation Emanu El, Congregation Etz Hadar and even several unaffiliated youth to attend many NFTY kallahs, participate in mitzvah projects such as serving Thanksgiving dinners to the homeless in a San Bernardino park, and to just have fun at countless sleepovers and movie nights.

Please join me in supporting TYGER programs by attending their Spaghetti Dinner Fundraiser on January 18th at 6:00 p.m. in the Social Hall. TYGER families will be providing spaghetti with marinara sauce, garlic bread, salad, drinks and cake so the entire $8 per person price will fund TYGER programs. With your support, Jessica hopes to use the funds to send even more youth to the NFTY kallahs. This is vitally important as the URJ reports that kids who stay involved in Jewish life as teenagers (post B'nai Mitzvah) are much more likely to retain their Jewish identity into their adult life. See the URJ Campaign For Youth Engagement for more information at www.urj.org/eye.

Robetta Darrow, Temple Administrator

From our Temple President

We have come to the end of 2013 and the start of 2014. As I get older, what used to take 12 months now seems to take only 9 months. The year flies by so quickly. This year was quite eventful! Somehow I don't think it will be any slower in 2014. Beginning this month, I will be meeting with small groups of congregants to discuss the future of our congregation. I assure you that none of my conversations will include a request for money. I'll save that for another time. Please say "Yes" when you receive my invitation. Your thoughts are important to me.

Last month, several of us attended the Union for Reform Judaism Biennial held in San Diego. While Chel and I were only able to be there Friday through Sunday, we left uplifted by the music, the camaraderie, and the joy of celebrating Shabbat with 5,000 fellow Reform Jews. Being in one room with that many Jews all singing and chanting as one sent shivers up my spine and even brought a couple of tears. Cantor Bern-Vogel shared in my excitement about bringing some of the music we heard there to our Sanctuary. At the closing session on Sunday we were honored to hear Prime Minister Netanyahu speak directly to us about Israel, Peace, and his commitment to an Israel that is shared by all Jews and that respects the thoughts and worship practices of all Jews.

Happy New Year. See you at Casino Night!

B'Shalom,

Paul Zipperstein, Temple President

My name is Anais Weinstock.
I'm a shopaholic. My parents say I just buy things for fun but never use them.

What's the fun about that?
Just walking into a store
with all the shimmering lights makes me squeal! I can't help it if I'm girlish. That's who I am. So sorry, Mom and Dad, but you can't stop my passion!

Okay, so on to the more serious subjects.
I lived in glamorous L.A. until August
2012, when my family moved to Yucaipa.
At first I thought it was too plain and boring, but after a while I really started to like the beautiful scenery and no traffic. When I have spare time, I go on social media, read, and make shopping lists. I picked out a beautiful dress for my bat mitzvah and I can't wait to show it off!

School News

Greetings!

Our Family Shabbat Service which took place on Friday, December 13, at the temple was our best ever! Our parent volunteers provided a delicious Israeli-style family dinner and our SJL students from Aleph to Daled, led by your friendly neighborhood SJL administrator (me!), were pitch perfect on the bema and impressed all of our attendees. I would like to thank Karyn Lehmann, Deb Holder, and Jeanette Swedlove for their support, leadership, and for making the evening a great success.

Our next family service, scheduled for the evening of Friday, January 17, is our Tu B'Shvat Seder. Cantor Jennifer Bern-Vogel and I have planned a memorable evening and Michelle Kaufman, our SJL Bet teacher, will be coordinating the service. Each of our SJL classes will be contributing to the service through art, dance and song. I am expecting a great turnout and I hope to see you all there to enjoy the talent and dedication of our students and families.

As I write this message, our winter break will be close at hand. Wednesday, December 18 is the final Hebrew School class before the break. SJL will resume on Sunday, January 5, and Hebrew School will resume on Wednesday, January 8. I wish you all a safe, restful, and happy holiday! See you in the New Year (2014)!

Do not be wise in words - be wise in deeds.

Camp Scholarships Available

Parents, as you begin to think about summer plans for your children, please consider sending them to a Jewish camp. The campers will experience Judaism 24/7, a difficult proposition in the Inland Empire. The memories and experiences that our youngsters come home with are indescribable. They will return with stories of how they spent Shabbat, activities that challenged them both intellectually, spiritually and physically; most importantly, they will forge new lifelong friendships.

The Sisterhood of Congregation Emanu El oversees the Rabbi Hillel and Rita Cohn Campership fund established by the Congregation and Sisterhood upon Rabbi Hillel's retirement. Funds have been set aside to assist families with sending their children to camp. A selection of camp brochures are available in the Temple Office. Please consider the importance of this Jewish experience. Contact Karyn Lehmann for an application or for more information.

Wall of Perpetual Memorial Dedication & Pre-Need Arrangements

April 4, 2014
7:30 p.m.

Twice a year new names are added to our Wall of Perpetual Memorial. The next dedication of names will be Friday, April 4, at 7:30 p.m. Another dedication will take place in the fall.

If you would like the name of your loved one placed on the Wall of Perpetual Memorial for the April dedication, contact the Temple Office by March 7.

You may also make pre-need arrangements for a location on the Wall. The contribution for inscription on the Wall is $650 for members and $1200 for non-members.

When a name is placed on the Wall of Perpetual Memorial it is included in each year's Book of Memory, is read aloud each year on the Shabbat closest to the Yahrzeit, and family members are notified of the impending Yahrzeit.

The Wonderful World of Sisterhood!

Happy New Year! What a crazy month December has been. In mid-December I had the privilege of representing our Sisterhood at the WRJ/URJ Biennial held in San Diego. I got the chance to meet and greet people, attend informative workshops, vote on important topics as a delegate, and get creative ideas to increase membership, new programs and reach our neighbors via social networking. But, the icing on the cake was the immensely moving Shabbat services complete with Jumbo-trons, orchestra, a huge choir and 13 torahs spread around the room. I was even called to the torah (along with a few hundred other Sisters) for the second aliyah. There, I represented my Sisterhood with pride surrounded by other members of our CEE Sisterhood. Can you just imagine 13 torahs being read simultaneously? There are just no words to describe the experience. If ever you get a chance to attend a Biennial, I suggest you do so.

Taking a look ahead, we are holding the Viva Las Vegas fundraiser on January 11th. This is our biggest and best event of the year. We were so impressed by our casino night turnout last year that we are going even bigger this year! This is the time to bring your friends, Jews and non-Jews alike and have some fun at our glamorous casino night. We will be serving fabulous food, wine, Hanger 24 beer, plus we'll have some amazing prizes. Please contact the Temple Office with your reservation and join the fun.

On January 13th our book club meets to discuss "The Book Thief" and then, only two weeks later, Margie Henkin will lead another round of Maj Madness on January 28th. This night of mahjongg, food, friends and fun is open to anyone. Whether you are a proficient player or a beginner like me, (we have fabulous Maj teachers in our midst) come and have a "girl's night out."

I am looking forward to a healthy, happy, and fulfilled new year and I wish you all the same.
