Rabbinic Reflections

Top 10 things you didn't know about Purim

Purim is one of our wackiest and least understood holidays in the Jewish calendar. It is happening this year on Wednesday March 20th. It has always been one of my favorites, maybe because of the costumes, the drama, the delicious cookies and merriment associated with the holiday. There is a richness to this holiday that I encourage you to explore by participating in our many holiday happenings. There are multiple ways for you to celebrate with us. Have fun and learn with our School for Jewish Living at their carnival on Sunday March 17th, at 9:30 a.m. or come out and hear the Megillah being chanted on Wednesday March 20th 6:30 p.m. and have some fun Mary Poppins style. You can also celebrate at home by baking some hamantaschen or having an upside down day with your children. Below are a few things that you may not have realized about Purim:

1. Esther was a vegetarian...When she lived in the Court of King Ahashverosh she ate mostly vegetarian to keep the laws of Kashrut, according to Midrash.
2. We are commanded to send gifts (Mishloach Manot) to our family and friends to enable all to celebrate the holiday. We are supposed to send them through someone else. It's more fun that way.
3. The Book of Esther is not the only biblical book without God's name. It also doesn't mention temple, prayer or other Jewish practices.
4. The traditional hamantaschen, Jewish cookie for Purim is supposed to resemble Haman's hat, or pockets. Modern feminists claim it is a sign of fertility as it resembles a female body part.
5. In 1945 American GI's held a belated Purim celebration inside a Nazi propagandist confiscated castle.
6. The Book of Esther may be an adaption of a Babylonian story, with connections between Marduk and Mordechai, and Ishtar and Esther.
7. The Jewish calendar has a leap year with 2 months of Adar (this year). Purim falls in the Adar2 the second month of Adar.
8. Purim is celebrated one day later inside walled cities (Jerusalem). We memorialize those who fought for two days inside walled cities, and those who only fought for one outside of walled cities.
9. During the 1991 Gulf War a common Purim costume was a gasmask, as scud missiles were falling during the holiday itself.
10. We are encouraged to turn things upside down on Purim, as we confuse the villain and hero from the Purim story due to merriment and drinking.

B'Shalom,

Rabbi Lindy Reznick

CANTOR'S CONCERT!! Sunday, March 10 at 4pm

"Music washes away from the soul the dust of everyday life"

– Bertold Auerbach [German poet]

March has arrived and we're still in the month of Adar – so many opportunities for joy and celebration!! After months and weeks of planning, it is finally time for our annual Cantor's Concert! This year, we will be featuring, not only our wonderful choir under the direction of Jerry Ripley, my fabulous colleagues Cantors Juval Porat, Paul Buch and Shana Chandler Leon [for the first time in Redlands!] but as an extra treat this year, we will be joined by an exciting ensemble of talented musicians who together, comprise KLEZMER JUICE under Argentinian bandleader and clarinetist, Gustavo Bulgach.

Klezmer music has traditionally been associated with the rich Yiddish culture of Eastern Europe. However, contemporary groups like the Klezmatics began to mix older Yiddish tunes with other types of popular music, even merging styles with classical violinist, Itzhak Perlman. KLEZMER JUICE brings an exciting blend of Ashkenazic and Sephardic traditions. Like most of us, Gustavo's family originated in Eastern Europe – Russia, Poland and Lithuania, but his grandparents were among those who settled in South America. Raised in the thriving Jewish community of Buenos Aires, Gustavo fuses traditional and familiar Yiddish melodies with Sephardic, Latin, jazz and popular music elements along with his talented musicians, Dan Weinstein, Freddy Ramos [guitarist in 'Coco!'] and Hiroo Nakano.

We hope you will join us as we celebrate our diverse musical and cultural treasures - sing and dance along to the "Soundtrack of the Diaspora!"

Happy Adar! B'shira,

Cantor Jennifer Bern-Vogel

Presidential Perspectives

February proved to be one of the coldest and wettest on record for our area. As a native Californian, this is a welcome change from our normally “Warm” winters. Clearly, this feeling would only come from a Native Californian!

In February, members of our Congregation participated in the Riverside Women’s March which was part of many other similar events around the country. Sisterhood held its annual Shabbat service which highlighted the cultural diversity of the Jewish People around the world. And we prayed alongside members of Riverside’s Temple Beth El at a joint service held at their Synagogue in Riverside.

On February 5, Dr. Steven Windmueller was the keynote speaker for our 34th annual Rabbi Norman F. Feldheim Lecture series. Dr. Windmueller is an expert on the Middle East, Jewish public and civic affairs, as well as, global Jewish social trends.

As you know, the congregational landscape has changed radically over the past decades. This lecture reminded us that this is a widespread issue affecting not just Jews, but many different religious sects. It was yet another reminder that those of us in Temple leadership must work diligently with Clergy to find new and innovative ways for our membership to engage, worship and communize. Congregants too must make a more concerted effort to be a part of the Jewish community and Temple life.

I’d like to remind you of the upcoming 3rd annual Rabbi Hillel Cohn Endowed Lecture Series. Due to its increased popularity, this year there will be two lectures, one on March 4 at the Riverside Art Museum, and on March 5 at the CSUSB Palm Desert Campus. For more information and to RSVP, email invitereply@csusb.edu or call Cal State San Bernardino at 909-537-5004.

As we start to thaw from our chilly winter and head toward spring, might we all remember that Temple can warm the soul, connect us emotionally and comfort in times of grief. Rabbi Reznick reminds us that as Jews it is our duty to offer support and kindness to those in need. With the world in such turmoil, may Congregation Emanu El and its membership always set the example and lead the way to help heal a world in need.

L’Shalom,

Greg Weissman

Temple Board of Directors Meeting

March 28, 2019, 7:00 pm

Members of the congregation are always welcome.

Sisterhood Board Meeting

Sunday, March 3, 2019, 10:00 a.m.

All Sisterhood Members are welcome

Sisterhood Speaks

While the Sisterhood Nominating Committee has been meeting, I have been thinking about leadership, and how fortunate that Sisterhood of Congregation Emanu El has had wonderful leaders over the years. I have gotten to know many dynamic, creative women through our Sisterhood, and we have had good times together. It has been an enriching experience to be a part of the leadership of CEE. I invite any woman, whether belonging to our congregation or not, Jewish or not, to join us. Our Mission Statement reads: “As an auxiliary of Congregation Emanu El, Sisterhood shall enhance our community’s practice of Reform Judaism through spiritual, social and educational activities and provide opportunities for the individual growth and development of our members, their families and the wider community. “I think we have always met our goals spectacularly.

Every year Sisterhood sponsors Jewish camp scholarships through our Hillel and Rita Cohn Camp Scholarship. Parents are encouraged to investigate Jewish summer camp for their children and apply for the scholarship. Applications are available from Suzanne Pastuschek or Debra Holder.

The Sisterhood Book Club will meet next the evening of March 5 to discuss Raquela, A Woman of Israel by Ruth Gruber. The Raquela of the title, Raquela Prywes was a sabra, the granddaughter of Ashkenazic and Sephardic families. She trained as a nurse at Hadassah Hospital, delivered babies in refugee camps in Palestine and Cyprus. The story of her life was a chronicle of the birth and unfolding history of the State of Israel. Paula Kaye and I agreed that the writing was a bit stilted and detracted somewhat from the fascinating life story of Raquela. New members are always welcome. Contact Paula Kaye for more information. If you have not had a chance to read the book, come along and listen to the discussion, and help us decide on our next read.

Sisterhood will assemble Shalach Manot bags for everyone in the congregation, and they will be available for pick up beginning Sunday, March 17. If you live locally and cannot come in to pick up your bag, please call the office or email Leslie Soltz (lhsoltz@gmail.com), so that we can arrange to deliver your bag.

For the pleasure of experiencing a seder with other members of Congregation Emanu El, led by Rabbi Reznick, plan to attend our congregational seder on Saturday, April 20. The dinner will be catered, with six courses of traditional Passover foods. Reservation information will be available soon.

You can tell that we are an involved, busy group. We invite you to join us — your ideas are valuable. The nominating committee for the 2019-2020 Sisterhood Board of Directors continues to meet to round out the group of dynamic women who will continue to lead us. All women are invited to be part of our Sisterhood. If you have an interest or an idea for a program, please contact Francesca Sweet .

From Our Director of Education & Youth

Shalom chaverim – hello friends! The School for Jewish Living has enjoyed a month with no major holidays – something that doesn’t happen often! We have been working on our Hebrew goals and making good progress in this area. We have also been working hard planning for Purim. Our older students are writing a script for a play that our school will perform during the shpiel on March 17th. We hope that our friends and fellow congregants will join us for this fun and interactive event – we need as many voices as possible to drown out the name of Haman! We will also be putting on a carnival directly following the shpiel which is open to everyone in our Emanu

El community and any friends you would like to bring along. Wristbands will be sold for $10 at the door. These will include all the games, prizes, and food available. On March 10th, our students aged 12 and older will participate in a field trip to LA with Rabbi Reznick and some friends from the Beth El religious school. This event will include our students from Dalet and Madrachim classes and their families. Those attending will go to The Museum of Tolerance and enjoy lunch together after this important and impactful experience. We are fitting all of this in before our spring break starting March 24th. We are looking forward to an exciting month and to spending some time with all of you during the holiday.

L’Shalom,

Jillian Snyder

Mental Health Awareness in Action

At Congregation Emanu El we're familiar with the green ribbons of Each Mind Matters, a California State initiative on mental health. Over in the upper Mid-West, they now have Call to Mind, a project of American Public Media of St. Paul, Minnesota. And they're inviting all of us, from coast to coast, to join with them in helping make the world more comfortable and helpful for all of us who live with mental issues.

Mental well-being is Call to Mind's goal. Engagement is the pathway. Engagement - that is, talking, learning, sharing experiences and thoughts...

And as we talk and listen they urge us to be careful in our language, to use words and phrases of respect and acceptance. As they say: "check your word choice."

Some examples:

Avoid words like, crazy, psycho, insane, nuts. Use instead, wild, bizarre, odd, eccentric.

Avoid calling someone by a diagnosis. Don't say he's OCD, instead say he has obsessive-compulsive disorder, just as you would say he has cancer, not he's cancer.

Don't say she's an addict. Instead say, she has a substance use disorder.

Say he died by suicide. Don't say he committed suicide.

As you improve your word choice, remember to wear your green ribbon, or get one if you don't have one yet.

Be well!

Rabbi Suzanne Singer speaks on "Freeing the Captive: Why Criminal Justice Is a Jewish Value"

Rabbi Singer was ordained by HUC in 2003 and holds three Masters Degrees. She joined Temple Beth El February 2008. She has been actively engaged in social justice work, serving as a commissioner for the City of Riverside's Human Relations Commission. Prior to her tenure in Riverside, she served at Temple Sinai in Oakland, CA. She launched two social justice conferences, one in the Bay Area and other in Los Angeles. She is the recipient of the Champions of Justice Award, 2010 from the Riverside Fair Housing Council. Two of her essays have been published in The Torah: A Women's Commentary. Rabbi Singer served as Director of the Introduction to Judaism Program for the Pacific Southwest Council of the URJ. Join us to learn more about Rabbi Singer's background.
