Rabbinic Reflections

Shavuot is one of our less well known Jewish holidays and our “shalosh regalim”, our pilgrimage festivals. On these holidays Jews would journey to Jerusalem to offer sacrifices and gratitude. Shavuot literally means weeks in Hebrew. It’s our harvest festival in which Jewish farmers made pilgrimage to the Temple to offer the first grains and fruits of Spring. The presentation of first fruits was a deep expression of the relationship between humankind and God, which is outlined as one of partnership. The rabbis wanted us to celebrate not just God giving us Torah, but the people receiving it. Firstly, during Shavuot we commemorate revelation, the receiving of the Torah. The Torah is our covenantal contract that requires we the Jewish people accept it, before its terms can be fulfilled. On Shavuot we study Torah and eat all dairy meals, blintzes and cheesecake are some of the favorites.

This year we will be honoring the past two years of confirmands and our youth and gathering with them on Saturday night for study, nosh and havdallah. On Sunday morning as a community we will gather, chant Torah, celebrate the confirmands and our most recent converts to Judaism. This year I was fortunate enough to learn alongside a vibrant group of introduction to Judaism students. Most of my students will be participating in our special Shavuot service. Please come and celebrate Torah and these special individuals who have added and will continue to add so much to the future of Emanu El.

*B'Shalom,
Rabbi Lindy Reznick*

Cantorial Comments

NEW MUSIC SHABBAT! – NEW MUSIC! – NEW MUSIC! – NEW MUSIC SHABBAT!

As a Reform Cantor, it is exciting and challenging to be part of a movement that continues to grow and not remain stagnant while still preserving many beautiful musical traditions of the past. I just received Volume IX [nine] of the new Reform Shabbat Music Anthology. It contains submissions of new arrangements for our Shabbat liturgy by contemporary composers including Sol Zim [V'shamru, Avinu Shebashamayim] Robbie Solomon [Yis'm'chu, Etz Chaim Hi] to Jonathan Comisar [Modim,] and ‘our own’ Juval Porat! It’s fun to try out new pieces to see what ‘sticks’ and what doesn’t... Believe me, I don’t like everything that’s out there in contemporary music and that surely goes for each one of you too. But we are going to give you a chance to hear for yourself at one of our Shabbat services in June and July! We will give you a heads-up as to which dates and you can vote for your favorites! We would love you to help to be part of our growing repertoire of eclectic music!

HIGH HOLY CANTILLATION PREP CLASSES

Once again, during the summer months, I will be teaching trope classes for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur Torah chanting. Many of you are at different levels and that’s ok! If you are at all interested in chanting during the High Holy Days, this is for you!

Tentative dates are: June 7, 14, 28 / July 12, 26 at 3:30 pm or thereabouts. August TBD

Please contact me if 1) you are interested and 2) whether the time works for you.

SHAVUOT

The Countdown is on – the finish line is near! We are almost at the end of the 49 days [or seven weeks] the counting of the Omer or the first fruits of the harvest. The time between Pesach and Shavuot is a beautiful and spiritually engaging time in our Jewish tradition when we prepare to receive the Torah at Sinai. We look forward to welcoming our newest Jewish members into the fold as well as honoring our tenth grade students with a blessing of Confirmation at our Shavuot Festival service on Sunday morning, June 9.

Entreat me not to leave thee... for whither thou goest I will go..

Your people shall be my people....Book of Ruth [read on Shavuot]

Presidential Perspectives

As I close in on the end of my tenure as your Temple President, allow me to reflect and take stock of some of my initiatives, efforts, and contributions to the Synagogue that I have called home since 1974.

It's important to note that my efforts would have been for naught without the support of our Clergy, Lay Leadership, and members of our Congregation; all key ingredients that make running a Temple possible.

About this time two years ago as I entered my presidency, our Congregation was in crisis as we very unexpectedly prepared to say goodbye to a Rabbi who also served as our Education Director. It was unclear who would guide us spiritually and how exactly the School for Jewish Living would continue on. The first order of business was to establish our Interim Rabbinic Search Task Force, which I Chaired. Applicants were poured over, Skype interviews conducted, and on July 1st, 2017 Rabbi Darryl Crystal began work as our Interim Rabbi.

Around that same time our Rabbinic Search Task Force was formed. This team of twelve again poured over dozens of applications, and spent untold amounts of time working to find a unique and special type of Rabbi who could propel us into a new, ever-changing and challenging religious landscape.

That search paired us with Rabbi Lindy Reznick who began work on July 1st of last year. Over the past eleven months, Rabbi has worked to redefine and move forward our 128 year old Congregation. I hold the unique title of being the only president to hire both two Senior Rabbi's, and our Synagogue's first Female Senior Rabbi. These were challenging times of which I'm proud to say moved us in a renewed and exciting direction. During my presidency a membership dues structure was established in order to provide Congregants a clear idea of what is required to financially sustain our Congregation. During that time our then Treasurer Marv Reiter secured a new banking relationship to restructure our mortgage loan providing a greatly reduced monthly payment obligation.

Last year a new High Holy Day Machzor was adopted and integrated into our worship experience. Mishkan Hanefesh moves us closer to the narrative and vision of the Reform movement. The last two years saw the expansion of our Wall of Perpetual Memorial, under the guidance of Susan Shimoff, which now provides ample space for the names of lost Congregants and loved ones that will be forever etched in stone on our Memorial Room walls. I'm proud to have been president during the time when Susan and Paul Shimoff received the prestigious Rabbi Norman F. Feldheym Award. This high honor brought with it fundraising in the amount of nearly $100,000.00; thereby making it the largest single Temple fundraiser in recent memory. During my presidency we mourned and healed as a community in the aftermath of the Tree of Life Shooting in Pittsburgh. This led to a number of safety and security measures along with training exercises in the event this sort of unspeakable tragedy affects our community. On my Presidential bucket list was the lighting of a community Menorah. This past Hanukkah, that became a reality, as hundreds gathered in downtown Redlands to celebrate the Festival of Lights. Indeed, this marks a significant moment as the City of Redlands continues to become a more diverse and inclusive community. Over these past two years my work with Paul Shimoff secured, through the Jewish National Fund, $1,500,000.00 to establish the Boruchin Project which will improve the northern portion of our Synagogue campus. This project will come at no financial expense to our Temple, and when completed will host lectures and opportunities for Jewish community engagement. I'm proud to have played a key role in planting our Simcha Tree which continues to grow toward the future while recognizing those Congregants and simcha's from days long ago. Along with Stuart Sweet I worked to establish and fill our Temple's Social Media pipeline with important and relevant content and information.

Yet, through all of these initiatives and achievements, I continue to lament a membership which continues to shrink, and a base of Congregants which every year seems to become a bit more fractured and dis-engaged. Enrollment in our School for Jewish Living has now reached its lowest point ever. This perhaps is most concerning as it speaks to the ongoing challenge of attracting and engaging new, young congregants who must continue the work and legacy of this Temple as so many others before them have.

Yet, I remain incredibly optimistic that along with Rabbi Reznick, we will be able to redefine and reenergize this house of worship by creating an environment that measures success not merely by how many people fill sanctuary seats on any given Friday night, but rather by a new and refreshed approach to engage members in creative and different ways. As Redlands and the greater Inland Empire continue its unprecedented growth, Congregation Emanu El will again find its path to meaningful prosperity in order to provide a rich Reform Jewish Experience.

I have always viewed my role of Temple President as really nothing more than that of facilitator, often times being a bridge builder, or re-builder. I have worked to guide this Congregation with a non-emotional and steady hand that leaned on democratic inclusiveness and goodwill. My hope for future Presidents is that they too will work to unite this congregation through empathy, creativity and inclusiveness in an effort to make this a Synagogue for all members, not just a select few.

I leave my presidency with one simple hope: That I left this Temple and its community just a little better off than I found it.

With Gratitude and Shalom,

Greg Weissman

Sisterhood Speaks

On Friday night, June 14, a new Sisterhood Board of Directors will be installed at Shabbat Services. As incoming Community Services Vice President I look forward to planning events for the congregation.

Our president for the next two years will be Karyn Lehmann, owner with her husband, Steve, of Paws pet supply store in Redlands. She has three lovely daughters and has been an active member of Emanu El for many years.

Barbara Smith will be co vice president for Membership. She lives in Yucaipa with her husband, Mike. They have three children: Adam, of blessed memory, Michelle and Nicole. She has been Sisterhood president twice before, and has been a great support to those of us who have followed her. The other Membership Vice President is former Texan, Paula Kaye, who says Sisterhood has made her feel welcome and given her a job!

Susan Damron will continue as Sisterhood Programs VP. She says she enjoys working with Sisterhood members to create opportunities for us to learn and share together. In her spare time, she likes playing music, spending time in the garden and doing genealogy research.

Michele Zipperstein, our Corresponding secretary, has been a member of CEE with her husband, Paul Zipperstein, a past president of the congregation, and her three children for 25 years. She is a dedicated choir member and song leader, as well as mommy to her grandson, 7 dogs and 4 cats.

Incoming Sisterhood Treasurer is Debra Holder, who has her second child heading to college in New York, and will be starting a new medical social work job. She and her husband, Phil, will be getting used to being empty nesters. We are so grateful for her taking over the treasury and sorting us out!

Recording Secretary Kimberly Wolfe-Morgan has been attending Emanu El with her husband Daveed since 2013. She was born in Riverside, California, is retired from the U.S. Army, and has two adult children.

In the Sisterhood Gift Shop (profits to support School for Jewish Living activities and scholarships), Lisa Wise Wolk manages merchandise and volunteers and Marg Shattuck keeps our treasury. Marg comes to us from Canada, and says she loves working with people. She was a Critical Care Nurse for 20 years, and then, needing a change, opened her own business in Graphic Design for print media, a business she has run for 23 years. She loves hiking, reading and studying the Torah.

One At Large Board member is Phyllis Sweet, a member of Sisterhood since she moved to Redlands in 2012, who says she enjoys being a part of this caring, talented and hardworking community. Also, At Large is Sheri Maltzman, a past Sisterhood and Congregation Emanu El President, who says she is happy to help.

Lori Fenster keeps the temple kitchen in shape and stocked, and has done so for quite a few years. When you enjoy an oneg shabbat, you have her to thank.

Susanne Pastuschek is vice president for Religion, Youth and Education. We look forward to her helping with School of Jewish Living events.

Francesca Sweet is coordinating oneg shabbats again next year. She is the immediate past Sisterhood president, and we have been happy to have her support this year.

I hope you will enjoy the events our hard working Sisterhood board of directors plan for Congregation Emanu El. I look forward to another successful year working alongside this great team.

From Our Director of Education & Youth

Greetings from the School for Jewish Living!

We have had a year filled with fun and learning and I have felt so privileged to share it with the incredible families at Emanu El.

We have experienced a joyful field trip to Gardenworks and a meaningful tour of The Museum of Tolerance. We enjoyed time together as a school with our families when celebrating Chanukah, Shabbat, Purim, and Pesach with art projects, food, and hands on education. We prayed together during Shabbat B'Yachad, our SJL Torah service, and tefillah with Rabbi Reznick on Sunday mornings. We celebrated B'nei Mitzvot for some of our Madrachim students – I could not feel more proud of their accomplishments, and I am so thankful for their mentorship of our younger students. Through all of this, our families have shown generosity to our school and to the programs we took on as tzedakah projects. It has been a wonderful year.

In the summer months, we will make sure there are events for our families to enjoy while the school is out. Look for shul by the pool dates as well as other family friendly activities to keep you energized through the hot months coming up. I'm sure I'll see our students and families over the break – I look forward to this time to reset and improve.

With Gratitude,

Jillian Snyder

Treasurer's Report

Dear CEE Congregants,
Shalom!

Thank you to all the congregants who joined us at the Annual Meeting on May 16th. I presented the budgeted numbers as presented in the April newsletter. If you need a copy, please contact me or Judy Filsinger (Temple Administrator) and we will be sure to get a copy to you.

Due to the generosity of the Burt Orland family, we will end this fiscal year with a positive balance. The donation will not be spent on just one program or one area of the Temple. Your Executive Board is discussing several ways in which to invest the money and will present the results to the full Board for agreement.

This is the last month of our fiscal year. If you have outstanding pledges for dues or donations, please review your June Statement and send the balances in this month. Please note – if you are on an ACH withdrawal for dues, this will not pay any other pledges you have made throughout the year. You will need to send a separate payment to the Temple or call Judy and give her permission to withdraw the additional funds for you. Thank you in advance for keeping your accounts current.

The 2019/2020 dues statements will be mailed to each congregant family in the middle of June. Please note the following changes:

- There will be an increase to your dues. For most families this will amount to a 3% increase.
- A Building Maintenance Fund fee will be charged to each congregant family. The fee is 20% of your annual pledge dues not to exceed $600 per family unit.
- There will no longer be a Mortgage Retirement charge to your account. We will continue to accept all donations to help reduce the mortgage on the building.
- If you wish to use the ACH method to pay your dues, please note you will have to complete a new ACH agreement with Judy.

Thank you for your membership in our Temple and your financial and emotional support in making our Temple a wonderful place to worship in

Shalom,

Kathy Rosenfeld

Mental Health Awareness in Action

- Sleep well
- Eat healthy foods
- Get outside
- Be kind

The advice of Margaret Trudeau, the mother of the current Prime Minister of Canada. Maybe you're thinking – "Easy for her to say...." But actually, it was not easy for her to say. It took decades for her to understand the simplicity and the power of those actions we all can take to create a "happy, peaceful, good life."

At 22 years old, the now 70 year-old Margaret, married Pierre Trudeau who was about 30 years her senior. He was also Prime Minister, and life became overwhelming. The marriage broke up – publically and dramatically. She then studied and became an actor. And she learned how to use her acting skills to hide "what was really happening inside me." Untreated bi-polar disorder. Only at 50 did she finally get the help she needed – "It took me a long time to get here."

"Here" is the balance and consistency of "ordinary life." The small things, "little details that add up to a good life." But first, she had to overcome her own denial, and get the treatment she needed. It turned out the Royal Ottawa Hospital was crucial in her recovery. And then they urged her to become a public advocate for mental health. That's the work she's been doing for the past 13 years, helping people with mental illness and helping their families.

Her current project is a one-woman show, "Certain Woman of an Age," that opened in Chicago last month. On the stage, she raises awareness of mental illness with her personal story and the lessons she has gleaned from an rocky existence now transformed into that most precious of things – a wonderful, mindful, rich life.

"Reach out," she says, "and ask for help." And:

- Get the sleep your body needs
- Feed your body and mind with healthy food
- Go outside and let nature nourish and refresh you
- Be kind to all

NEW MUSIC SHABBAT

How many of you have an opinion about the music selected for worship services??? Now is your chance to be part of it!

Every year, hundreds of new Jewish musical compositions and arrangements are submitted to Transcontinental Publications of the American Conference of Cantors and from those submissions, 20 - 25 are selected for inclusion in the newest Shabbat Anthology.

On Friday, June 7th, and an additional service in July [TBD], we will be presenting several of the newest compositions and with the score cards provided, we invite you to voice your opinion!

Perhaps your vote will help determine some of the new tunes we will sing in the coming year!

 Contact Rabbi Reznick to host and for more details!!

Meet your Board of Directors!

Your Board of Directors is made up of 17 volunteers who give their time to help make sure the synagogue operates smoothly. They also set the vision and mission of the congregation. Board members are elected by the whole membership of the congregation. Watch this space next month for even more introductions.

Hi members of Congregation Emanu El. I'm Harriet Briant and a current board member. Things that keep me ultra-busy are Emanu El, Cruising and Community Theater. My children tell me that's enough.

I'm Marv Reiter and I am looking forward to serving once again as a Member at Large on the Board. My wife Elaina and I travel extensively and dabble in photography. We enjoy spending time with our four children, their spouses and our four wonderful (of course) granddaughters.

I'm Susan Damron and I am serving as your Second Vice-President. When I'm not handing out name tags at Shabbat Services, I enjoy playing music with Richard (the hurdy-gurdy guy), spending time in nature, and Jewish genealogy research.

I'm Michael Reiter. I am an attorney in Redlands and I enjoy spending time with my family.

Hello, I am Jay Donenfeld. I am one of the new members of the Board of Directors for Congregation Emanu El. Among other things my main interests are food, wines, I'm a science-fiction-aholic and film and electronic cameras.

I'm Stuart Sweet and I'll be serving as your President. When I'm not at Congregation Emanu El, I enjoy spending time with my wife, Francesca. I'm a total techno geek who loves talking about old movies, science fiction, and cool gadgets.

I am your incoming Sisterhood president, Karyn Lehmann. I am a mom, a wife, and a business owner. I have called CEE my spiritual home for @ 16 years and I am excited to be a part of our leadership during this time of growth and change!

Hi! I am Scott Wilkie and I am serving on the Board as a Director. Outside of Congregation Emanu El you can find me spending time with my kids Elise and Davis, as well as my wife Ashleigh, living that life of parents with toddlers. Otherwise, I am a big fan of Bay Area sports teams (49ers, Giants, Sharks, etc) and also enjoy electric cars. I am excited for another term on the Board!
