Rabbinic Reflections

The season of the holidays has arrived. In Redlands it doesn't come with a chill in the air but children have returned to school, we have settled into fall habits. It is the perfect time to rededicate ourselves to our spiritual work. This year at Congregation Emanu El we are preparing ourselves spiritually by delving into psalm 27, traditionally recited during the entire month of Elul, all the way up until Rosh Hashanah. Join us in exploring this incredible text and creating a simple spiritual practice to go with it.

Now is the time to reflect back and think forward. Psychologists and spiritual teachers say that it takes 21 days to create a habit. Now is the perfect time to rededicate yourselves to your spiritual and personal growth. Repair that relationship, renew quality time with your children, start that exercise habit, or decide to make synagogue your second home. Come to Shabbat services. Talk to us about a program you would love to help make happen. Speak to your community about an important cause in your life. Community is only as rich as the people who invest it. Let us invest together for another year of meaningful Jewish moments from holidays, to cultural gatherings, from spiritual explorations to family fun time.

This year we are planning on offering a number of new experiences, from adult education classes, to more youth engagement opportunities. If you dream it we can create it with your help. Community happens when we as a people come together to create for one another. It is our relationships with one another that make this place a sacred one.

For the past two months I have been busy planning the high holydays with our cantor. This year invite a friend to come with you to a service or class, tell someone with children about our religious school that is open to all who are interested, or create what you are longing for because you are probably not the only one looking for that special program.

Emanu El I pray that 5780 is a year of wonderful growth, joy, spiritual discoveries and blessings for all in our Emanu El family.

*L'Shanah Tovah,
Rabbi Lindy Reznick*

Cantorial Comments

??....and the seasons they go round and round...??. [Joni Mitchell]

And here we are once again... having almost completed another full year in our Jewish calendar and cycle of reading the Torah. Joni Mitchell's haunting lyrics are especially significant as we prepare for this spiritual and awe-filled season. If you look at a Jewish calendar, you will see that the Hebrew month of Elul coincides exactly with the beginning of September this year – perfecting fitting as we lead up to the High Holy Days, preparing to open our hearts and souls to the opportunity of change and “Tshuvah” [return and forgiveness]. Even if you weren't able to attend last month's Elul prep class with Rabbi Reznick and me, we encourage you to read parts of Psalm 27 every day this month, reflecting on this past year and possible meanings and relevant changes the new year presents to you. We are also reminded of the responsibilities we have ‘to welcome the stranger’ and stand up for what is right in the face of injustices. We have much work to do.

Getting us off to a wonderful start in this month of Elul, are our ‘bar mitzvah boys’, Jay Donenfeld and Jeff Spears, who are celebrating the anniversaries of their seasons since their original bar mitzvah ceremonies! We hope you'll join us at their respective Saturday morning services! [September 7 and 14!]

In the meantime, your clergy, choir and Congregation Emanu El Temple staff are as busy as Rosh Hashanah honey bees getting ready to celebrate the High Holy Days with all of you. We wish everyone a healthy, sweet and peaceful New Year.

Turn the Torah, and turn it again,
for everything you want to know is found within it.” (Avot 5:25)

L'Shanah Tovah u'metukah , Cantor Jennifer Bern-Vogel and Family

Presidential Perspectives

Just do it.

Nike started advertising using those simple words in 1988. They've become synonymous with the brand. What do you think when you hear, "Just do it?" Most people think of succeeding no matter what the obstacles. They think of taking responsibility for getting something done. "Just do it" has helped Nike stay at the top of the footwear world for thirty years, because those words make people feel like they can accomplish anything they try.

At Congregation Emanu El, we are lucky to have a group of volunteers who "just do it." I'm talking about hard-working people like Julie Strain who volunteers dozens of hours in our front office. I'm talking about Lori Fenster who keeps our kitchen in tip-top shape, and about Susan Damron, Nancy Sidhu, and Kimberly Wolfe-Morgan who make sure that everyone who comes to services feels welcomed. Of course there are dozens of others who volunteer just as much. I'm grateful for each and every one of you.

You might think that you can't volunteer because you don't have time. It's true, some of our volunteers work nearly a full-time job at Congregation Emanu El. But, there are plenty of opportunities to volunteer no matter how much time you have (or don't have.) There are projects around the office, opportunities at services and on school days, and even volunteer opportunities that don't require you to be in the building at all!

How do you start volunteering at Congregation Emanu El? As they say, "Just do it." Decide what you want to do and contact someone. Call me at 909-213-4862 if you don't know who to contact. Let's talk about what you would find rewarding and what you think you would be good at. Know how much time you want to spend. And then, let's get rolling. You'll make new friends and make a difference, all at the same time.

I started volunteering at Congregation Emanu El because I knew we were getting new prayer books and with my publishing experience I thought I could help. I met great people like Sheri Maltzman and Jerry Ripley who made me feel like I was important. Because of them, I never stopped volunteering!

Shalom,
Stuart Sweet

Sisterhood Speaks

L'Shanah Tovah Friends
and Family,

As Summer draws to a close and the New Year approaches, Sisterhood prepares for the Days of Awe, and the solemnity and celebrations that surrounds them. From the flowers on the pulpit, to the meal that breaks the fast, Sisterhood is everywhere. We invite you to participate in all that our community has to offer.

Sisterhood is hosting an oneg after S'lichot on September 21st, on Erev Rosh Hashana we invite you to join us for a dessert reception after services, and continuing a lovely tradition at Congregation Emanu El, this year we will again Break the Fast with a dairy Pot Luck meal immediately following Neilah services. Please bring a vegetarian, vegan or dairy dish to share, Sisterhood will provide drinks, dessert, bagels and cream cheese.

Please check the Temple calendar for a complete schedule of events. This is a busy time in our Jewish community!

I look forward to celebrating, studying and sharing fellowship with everyone in the coming months.

Please feel free to contact me at

Members of the congregation are always welcome.

Sisterhood Board Meeting
September Date is Pending
All Sisterhood Members are welcome

Treasurer's Report

Dear CEE Congregants,
Good Yom Tov!

The High Holidays are here! You will be receiving this bulletin article in early September as the Congregation begins to prepare for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur.

We will begin our High Holiday Pledge drive a little earlier this year. On Rosh Hashanah we will have your High Holiday appeal forms available. We hope that this will enable you to review your personal finances and give as generously as possible to our 2019 appeal. You will then be able to submit your pledge on Yom Kippur. If we do not receive a pledge card from a congregant, the Board of Directors will reach out to verify if a pledge was overlooked for 2019.

If you have any outstanding pledges for dues or donations, please review your September Statement and send the balances in as soon as possible. Thank you in advance for keeping your accounts current.

If you have any financial concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me at kathy.rosenfeld@gmail.com or my cell phone is 704-756-7427.

May you New Year be a blessing!

Shalom,

Kathy Rosenfeld

From Our Director of Education & Youth

Dear SJL Families,

Hope you are all enjoying the last days of the summer break and ready for the new school year.

We are grateful for your support and we will strive over the coming school year to engage both students and parents in our common endeavor to teach the values, traditions and history of Judaism to a new generation. We look forward to a year filled with Jewish and Hebrew learning which strengthens our sense of community and would like to invite you parents and family to be a part of our school by volunteering and joining our events.

This year the temple board made a change and families are not required to be temple members to join the school activities.

This year we added a teen program in the morning, where teens after Bnei- Mitzvah can help, as madrichim, in the school and also participate in a learning center. There will be also a youth program where teens will meet once a month for fun activities with friends. More information to follow.

Toddler time is a free, holiday-based program for toddlers from babies up to 3 years. There will be 3 meetings during the year, it is a wonderful opportunity for parents and toddlers to learn together about Jewish holidays with music and games. We welcome all families with toddlers to join us and help us spread the word to other families from the area.

We are building a pre-school program and we encourage families to register to join a pre-school class to learn about the Jewish tradition, holidays and some Hebrew in a fun way with stories and songs. If you are interested or know someone who is, please email me to sjl@emauelsb.org for more information.

The month of September will be dedicated to the high Holidays – Rosh Hashanna and Yom Kippur. We'll have childcare and educational programming during the High holidays services so parents can attend.

Please join us during the school year for Shabbat B'Yachad, a family service, every second Friday of the month. The school students will take part in the service. We deeply encourage you all to come and support the students!

We can't wait to start the year and to see all of you!

Mental Health Awareness in Action

Gun violence in America is epidemic.
Gun violence traumatizes.
Gun violence makes us feel unsafe.
Gun violence shatters our individual mental well-being
Gun violence shatters our collective mental well-being.

When people and presidents say our mass shooting epidemic is mostly because of mental illness, it's good to mention that all peoples and countries have people with mental illness, but most do not have a mass shooting problem.

For each of us as we approach our new year 5780 we offer the Buddhist Metta or lovingkindness mantra.

*May you be happy.
May you be well.
May you be safe.
May you be peaceful and at ease.*

S'LICHOT: SERVICE AND PROGRAM

SATURDAY - SEPTEMBER 21, 2019
7:00-10:30 PM

The S'llichot (forgiveness) service begins the High Holy Days. The Rabbis thought that at night the soul is especially close to God. We think about our lives as we hear the melodies and read the High Holy Day prayers to prepare for the New Year.

- 7:00 S'llichot Program
- 9:15 Reception hosted by Sisterhood
- 9:45 Changing the Torah covers and S'llichot

Tashlich on the Afternoon of Rosh Hashanah

All are invited to participate in the Tashlich ceremony that is held on the afternoon of the 1st Day of Rosh Hashanah. Tashlich ("you shall cast out") is a tradition that developed in the Middle Ages. Our ancestors began the practice of walking to the banks of a river or some other body of water on the afternoon of Rosh Hashanah. There, with the recitation of prayers, they would empty their pockets and shake their clothing free of the sins they believed had accumulated there during the previous year. Often they would toss bread crumbs which symbolically represented the sins they wanted to cast off.

Tashlich will be held on Monday, September 30th at 4:30 pm at Ford Park which is just a few blocks from the temple. Rabbi Reznick and Cantor Bern-Vogel will lead this brief informal service which includes singing and activities. We encourage you to come dressed casually – preferably in white clothing. You can bring a few bread crumbs to cast into the water. This is a wonderful opportunity for families to join together in a time-honored Jewish tradition.

Kever Avot Service

Sunday, September 22, 2019
1:00 pm

Home of Eternity Cemetery, San Bernardino

It is a long-standing cherished tradition to visit the graves of loved ones during the High Holy Day period. This is known as Kever Avot (literally, the graves of the ancestors). At this service special memorial prayers are recited and the rabbi delivers a brief message that stresses the importance of honoring the memories of loved ones.

Kever Avot will be held on Sunday, September 22, at 1:00 pm at the Home of Eternity Cemetery, in San Bernardino. While this service memorializes those buried or entombed at our historic cemetery, it is certainly appropriate for all to attend, even if their loved ones are buried elsewhere.

High Holy Day Baby Blessings

Our beloved, ongoing tradition of blessing newborns and our newest members of the Jewish community [up to 3 yrs] will be recognized on the bima on Rosh Hashanah morning, Monday, September 30, 2019, at approx. 10:00 a.m. We look forward to celebrating both the Creation of the World and the growth of your family!

SISTERHOOD GIFT SHOP SALE

Welcome to the upcoming New Year and the
Refreshed look of YOUR Judaica Shop/
Congregation Emanu El Sisterhood Gift Shop.

YOUR gift shop volunteers, Phyllis Sweet, Barbara Smith and Margie Henkin were busy working over the summer to rearrange our many religious, jewelry and gift items.

Brand new pieces will be coming into your shop over the next few months. There will be newer items seen each time you come in to shop....
which should be often!! IT'S A MITZVAH.

Support SJL and our congregation...have your friends and family come in to shop for their gift and natural body care items!!!. There are several gift/jewelry items we carry that are appropriate for many gift giving needs.

For those that joined us for the Soak Fest/Registration Sale
did you enjoy the steals on the deals you got??????

Come shopping again with us on SUNDAY
SEPTEMBER 15th when we'll have 10% to 70 % on many items as well as BOGO's (buy one get one),
9 am to 12 pm only

Try something fresh this New Year.

If you have any retail, display, marketing, social media expertise, or just like to shop we can use
you on the gift shop team!!! If not, don't worry, learning together and creating/growing relationships is part of the fun we have providing this service for you and our wider community.
Plus, earning a gift shop volunteer member discount isn't bad either!!

Please contact Lisa Wise-Wolk for any special orders you may need, from Ketubahs and 14K gold jewelry to wall art or Tallis's... we have many vendors we work with that can provide just those special kinds of pieces.

May you all be inscribed for a good New Year,

5780 Jewish Calendars

Once again beautiful Jewish calendars are being made available to the members of our congregation. These are provided by Hillside Memorial Park and Mortuary of Los Angeles. The calendars will be distributed at services on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. We are grateful to the management of Hillside Memorial Park and Mortuary for their generosity.

Yom Kippur Food Drive

During Yom Kippur, please remember to bring NON-PERISHABLE dry or canned foods to the temple for the Cornerstone food pantry.

If you prefer, you may purchase Stater Bros. scrip cards, which will then be used by Cornerstone.

We Gratefully Acknowledge

We gratefully acknowledge these contributions to our various temple funds:
