Rabbinic Reflections

On Purim we celebrate with a Seudah, or special feast. This feast is a Purim obligation which can be dated back too the Book of Esther's decree; "They were to observe them as days of feasting and merrymaking..." This holiday is not only a commemoration of Esther's brave acts which helped save the Jewish people, it is also a time of feasting and great joy. The holiday is to be experienced with joy from the evening of Purim all the way through the following day. The Talmud says, "When the month of Adar arrives, happiness increases." Adar is the Hebrew month in which Purim falls. In fact, for the Hebrew month of Adar we are commanded to be joyous. What a beautiful charge to demand that we live within a joyous way of being. There is much research in modern science that reports by focusing on joy we increase our happiness in our lives. In fact Rabbi Nachman of Bretslov said "It is a great mitzvah to be happy always." While this may not be possible, Adar is our month as Jews in which we attempt to increase our happiness meter.

On Purim we are expected to both eat and drink joyously, in order to elevate our souls. This can be understood in opposition to Yom Kippur when we are asked to abstain from food and drink in order to elevate our soul. On Purim we are told to elevate our soul and joy through food and drink. We do this to praise God for the victory over the forces of hate who wished once again to get rid of the Jews. In fact we even make efforts to encourage our family and friends to be able to celebrate through food and drink by sending mishloach manot, baskets which include the traditional food, cookies and drinks of the holiday.

We invite our whole community and the community of Temple Beth El of Riverside to join us as we celebrate Purim together on Sunday March 8th starting at 9:15 a.m. at Emanu El. Together we will gather in our sanctuary pray, hear the Megillah chanted, participate in a communal Shpiel and then enjoy our communal carnival games, do a service project, and enjoy a festive meal. We invite you to increase your happiness by joining us, in costume if you'd like, to make merriment and marbim b'simcha, increase in joy!

"I Guess That's Why They Call it a Shpiel"

Music of ELTON JOHN and HITS from the LION KING!

Chag Purim Sameach!!! It's that time again when we observe the wacky and fun festival of Purim which is celebrated every year on the 14th of the Hebrew month of Adar (late winter/early spring). Purim commemorates the salvation of the Jewish people in ancient Persia from Haman's plot "to destroy, kill and annihilate all the Jews, young and old, infants and women, in a single day," as recorded in the Megillah (Book of Esther). It could have turned out to be another day of mourning in our Jewish calendars, but thanks to Queen Esther, who unbeknownst to the Persian King, was Jewish, and with the help of her uncle Mordechai, discovered Haman's plot and helped to save her people.

Talmud "Rava" said: 'A person should be so exhilarated [with drink] on Purim that he does not know the difference between 'cursed be Haman' and 'blessed be Mordecai'...we aren't going to take it quite so far, BUT... expect lots of merriment and joyful celebration.

With singers and thespians from Beth El and Emanu El along with the accompaniment of Beth El musicians Jory Yarmoff, Eric Sbar plus Jerry Ripley and U of R percussionist, Skylar Cain here at Emanu El...

Young and old, come in from the cold!
Groggers new, and costumes old
The story of Esther – now be told!

"And Mordechai wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus both nigh and far, to enjoin them that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month of Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, the days wherein the Jews had rest from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from sorrow to gladness and from mourning unto a good day; they they should make them days of feasting and gladness, and of sending portions [shalach manot] one to another and gifts to the poor."

Esther 9:20-22

Shalom,

Cantor Jennifer Bern-Vogel

Presidential Perspectives

He ain't heavy, he's my brother.

Friends, it's my pleasure to write these articles every month. I hope you find them entertaining and I hope they make you think a little bit. This month I'm a little concerned, and I hope you will be, too.

It has always bothered me that people park in our handicapped spaces when they don't have handicapped placards. If you're one of these people, I hope you'll consider changing your behavior.

Unfortunately our building does not have ramps on the side by the kitchen or right by the door and this leads people to park in handicapped spots so they can unload something. That may seem harmless but it really isn't. Please unload, then take a minute to park your car in one of the regular spots when you're done.

If you need extra help getting in or out of the building...

...I certainly understand. I also understand you might not think of yourself as someone who needs that placard. Why not let a doctor make that decision? You don't have to use a temporary placard even if you have one. But with a placard, you have the right to park where you need to. That's what those spaces are for.

If you think it's harmless...

It isn't. Sure, you can say "there's no one else in those spaces and we don't need that many." You don't know when someone might need that space. Imagine how you would feel if you legitimately needed those spaces and you saw a perfectly fit person had taken one up. Your impression would be that we don't care. Is that what we want to say?

If that's not enough to convince you...

Maybe it will help change your mind to realize that compliance officers come around all the time. We have worked very hard to build a good relationship with Redlands Police Department. We're part of their regular patrols. If officers see someone parked illegally they're going to report it.

Please, think twice before using a handicapped space. It's just common sense, and it's just polite.

Shalom,

Stuart Sweet

Sisterhood Speaks

Spring is here and with it the festivals that mark the transitions.

Purim is fast approaching and with it Schalach Manot bags will be distributed to our community. These "gifts" from sisterhood are lovingly put together and distributed around Purim by past President Leslie Soltz. We hope that everyone enjoys them. This is a labor of love and we thank Leslie and everyone who has helped her in this mitzvah.

As a child one of my fondest temple memories was of the giant Purim carnival held at my Synagogue, there were booths with games, food, costumes and prizes, I remember it being an all day happening, that involved eating WAY too many Hamentachen! I am excited that we are growing our Purim celebration this year to include our friends at Congregation Beth El in Riverside. It is hard to have a carnival with only a few children and we welcome them to increase our numbers. Please mark your calendars to join us 9:30 am on March 8th for the spiel and carnival, bring your family, friends, neighbors...

Sisterhood will be having a guided nature walk on March 22nd, meeting at the Temple at 10 am, this has historically been a very well attended and enjoyable event.

Wednesday March 25th at 7pm we will be having a speaker on climate change and environment, check for the details in the announcement of the bulletin. I am certain that this will be a wonderful and educational event.

Our monthly Sisterhood board meeting is scheduled for Sunday March 1st, at 10:45 at the temple.

Please join us!

Treasurer's Report

Dear CEE Congregants,

Shalom!

Good news – I have a new job! I am working for a Public Accounting Firm in Riverside, CA doing attest and tax work. The news may not be so good for the Temple – I will have less time to devote to both this column and other CFO duties. Therefore, this column will be shorter and right to the point in future months!

When you read this column, we will be deep into tax season! March and April are the busiest months of tax season because Corporate returns are due on March 15 and Individual returns are due on April 15. Therefore, I will be working both on my own taxes and on client tax returns! But, I will also be preparing the Temple Budget. The Budget must be presented to the Board of Directors in March and April so that it is ready to be voted on by the Congregation at the Annual Meeting in May. If you have any great ideas of how to balance the budget without raising dues or increasing our fundraising line items, please let me know!

Please support our Temple programs in March – and get your taxes done! Your accountant will appreciate you not waiting until the last minute!

I told you my column will be short and sweet this month! Now your homework...review your monthly statement and pay your dues and other obligations.

There, enough said! Until next month!!!

Shalom!

Kathy Rosenfeld

From Our Director of Education & Youth

When Adar begins we increase our Joy מְשֻׁכְּנֵס אֶדָר מְרַבִּים בְּשִׂמְחָה

(Mi She Nichnas Adar Marbim B' Simcha)

According to the Meguillah we have to be happy, how can we just be happy? Well we make it happy by dressing up and having fun.

Dressing up, costumes, and masks aren't mentioned in the Book of Esther. There is no indication that anyone ever dressed up for Purim in the Mishnah, Talmud, or in the literature of the Gaonim. Nor is the practice so much as mentioned in the writings of Rashi and Maimonides in the High Middle Ages. So where did it come from?

It wasn't until the end of the 15th century that masks appeared. The cultural influence was the catholic holiday season known as Carnival, which occurs during the two weeks before lent. These wild pre-Lenten carnivals included masquerading, and happened to take place more or less on the same time as Purim, give or take a few weeks, due to differences between the Catholic solar calendar and the Jewish Lunar calendar.

So wear your costumes and join us for a fun Purim celebration joint with Temple Beth El, Riverside. The celebration will take place at Congregation Emanu El on Sunday, March 8, 9:30 – 10:30: a musical Purim Spiel lead by Cantor Bern Vogel and musicians from Beth El. Then join us for a fun carnival with game booths, prizes and food.

Purim pre-sale tickets will be available on Sunday, March 1st during SJL hours.

Pre-sale 5 tickets for $1 and on the day of the carnival 4 tickets for $1 and Meal Voucher - $5 , includes burger/veggie burger/ hot dog, a bag of chips, a drink and a Hamantaschen.

Happy Adar month!

Mental Health Awareness in Action

If you don't yet subscribe to ReformJudaism.org, the online version of a print magazine formerly published by the Union for Reform Judaism, we heartily recommend doing so.

Kate Kaput, the editor of ReformJudaism.org, recently wrote the article, Suffering in Silence: Jews, Therapy and the Stigma of Mental Illness. Neither of us has met Kaput, but we share a significant commonality. We others in our congregation are vocal advocates for mental health issues.

Kaput's article begins, "I was 20 when I learned that my high school boyfriend – my first love – had committed suicide. His death shattered me, both mentally and emotionally – but in retrospect, it also saved my life. You see, in the months leading up to his suicide, I had been planning my own."

The now 30-something Kaput grew up in a Jewish family where depression was regarded as weakness. The myth that mental illness is a weakness caused Kaput such shame that she suffered for years before finally seeking help on her own. This sad story is yet very common in spite of the tremendous advancements in managing depression. The stigma that kept Kaput suffering shamefully alone is alive and well almost everywhere we go.

The days of practicing the old adage "pulling yourself up by your bootstraps" as a means of managing mental challenges are over at Congregation Emanu El. You can find on our CEE website emanuelsb.org under MENTAL HEALTH IN ACTION words spoken from the bema by congregants addressing the imperative of talking openly about mental illness to end the stigma.

The most effective way to eliminate the shame of mental illness and get people life sustaining help is to speak openly about mental illness.

Find your voice. There is no shame. Get help.
