Rabbinic Reflections

Rosh Chodesh Elul, The month of Elul, is a month of spiritual preparation for the high holydays. The sixth Jewish month, Elul begins on August 8th & 9th. This is only 4 weeks away. Which means in four weeks we begin our personal spiritual preparation for the new year. The Maharal of Prague teaches, “All the month of Elul, before eating and sleeping, a person should look into his soul, and search his deeds, that he should make a confession.” A true accounting for our actions requires, humility and honesty, without judgement or shame. Our Jewish practice urges us to look at our year in reflection, and to evaluate ourselves and our abilities to live up to our spiritual goals. The point is not to beat up on ourselves for where we made mistakes. In fact we have built into the high holidays a concept of releasing ourselves from failed promises or vows we made that we were unable to fulfill. This vow releasing is what is emphasized on Yom Kippur, perhaps why it is one of the most popular high holiday services attended by all Jews.

Instead, the point of Elul and this spiritual preparation, is to identify areas of improvement, areas that need more focus and attention, to allow us this year to get closer to our spiritual goals. It is like a spiritual bootcamp preparation before the holidays begin, to get us one step closer to our desired outcomes. This year again myself and our cantor will be teaching a reflective Elul prep class online, for all who wish to begin this work. This series will take place Tuesday evenings, 7pm, on zoom, on August 10th, 17th, and 24th. Come for an hour of spiritual teachings, reflecting, sharing and leave with ideas of what you can do to continue your work and preparation. This year start the holidays with a clear accounting of your soul, and let us help you begin again, return and renew yourself. Registration can be completed by calling the temple office at 909-307-0400.

Cantorial Comments

“OPENING YOUR HEART: PSALM 27”

Halleluyah! This is the familiar expression meaning to ‘praise God’ which is integral to so many of the T’hilim or psalms. Many psalms ring with “Halleluyah” and feature beautiful aspects of nature while others give us ‘short piercing cries of the heart.’ [From his introduction to Rabbi Debra J. Robbins “Opening Your Heart with Psalm 27”; Rabbi David Stern].

When we consider beautiful pieces of liturgical music - whether classical or contemporary - that especially move us, I’m sure we can all think of melodies we know for Halleluyah [Psalm 150], Ashrei [Ps. 145], Tzaddik Katamar [Ps.92],

Mizmor Shir [Ps.92] or Adonai Roi [Ps.23]

In his glorious two-volume commentary on all 150 psalms, Rabbi Richard N. Levy z.l. writes in his Introduction that indeed, ‘some of the Bible’s most powerful theological statements about Creation and Redemption are found in song.’ And ... ‘When biblical prose outlines God’s didactic requirements for Israel, it is through song that people celebrate their response to God’s commands - and through hymn, their struggles to reconcile what God wants with the lives that individuals lead.’

If you set out to study the psalms you will find that there is one for every occasion, such as giving birth, the day of marriage, for traveling on a journey, to express gratitude, grief or for help in troublesome times, etc.

Of special interest to us at this time of year is Psalm 27, offered every day during Elul, which, in just fourteen verses, takes us on a journey from the beginning of the month of Elul through the end of the High Holy Days including Sukkot. It will be intricately woven into our Elul classes, preparing us for the Yamin Noraim - the Days of Awe. We hope to see you there!

“The Psalter has become the hymnbook of humanity because it is an inexhaustible and indispensable expression of the human spirit.”

Cantor Sholom Katz, Washington D.C., 1963

Cantor Jennifer Bern-Vogel

Presidential Perspectives

Communicating with our members is a key responsibility of the Board of Directors. This year, 14 of your Board members will continue an outreach program that we call our “Constituent Groups.” We each have 10-12 member families to contact on a regular basis throughout the year. We are enthusiastic about connecting with you!

Let me introduce the Board members who will be calling you (or texting, emailing, or otherwise connecting with you) in the year ahead. Please pick up the phone when they call! They want to get to know you, find out what is important to you, and listen to your feedback. They will also keep you up-to-date and do their best to answer your questions. I am so grateful to each one of them for volunteering their time and their talents to serve our Emanu El community.

Dr. Tonya Brooks is a Licensed Educational Psychologist who specializes in neurodevelopmental disorders and early childhood education. She is interested in growing our congregation and connecting with our youth.

Adelyn Durazzo is majoring in Linguistics through the Communications Studies Department at Riverside Community College. Committed to social justice worldwide, she works to create lasting changes within her local communities. She wants to engage with members in their 20’s and 30’s and help expand our diverse Congregation Emanu El community.

Dr. Sharon Lang is a Professor of Anthropology at University of Redlands, IE Hillel Vice-President, and an SJL mom. Offering courses on Jewish culture and identity, she hopes to be a bridge to university students.

Dr. Elizabeth Raskin is a surgeon at UC Davis and the mother of 3 young children. She and her children have been regulars on Zoom this past year. She wants to help maintain the involvement of our on-line community.

Craig Beasley was our Congregational President from 2015 to 2017. It is an honor to welcome Craig back to the Board. He wants to see our congregation emerge safely from the pandemic and grow its size and financial security.

Michael Paisner is in his second year of service on the Board. He is passionate about social justice and engagement with the larger community.

We have three additions to the Executive Committee:

Karyn Lehmann, our new Second Vice-President, has just completed two years as Sisterhood President. Karyn owns a retail pet food business in Redlands and is interested in helping us find new and creative fundraising strategies.

Leslie Soltz, our new Board Secretary, is a retired teacher and a past Sisterhood President. She is devoted to helping others enjoy the warmth and support of our CEE community.

Kimberly Morgan, our Sisterhood President, is in the dissertation phase of completing her doctorate in clinical psychology. She wants to engage new members and help them feel connected to our community.

These nine dedicated Board members, along with First Vice-President Michael Reiter, CFO Kathy Rosenfeld, Immediate Past President Stuart Sweet, Member-at-large Marv Reiter, and myself, will be reaching out to you, our CEE members, throughout the year. We will be keeping you informed about temple activities, and we will ask for your questions and feedback. We hope that we will be your bridge to greater connection with your congregational community. We are here to serve you.

Dr. Susan Damron

Treasurer’s Report

Dear CEE Congregants,

Happy New Year! May you and your family have a blessed New Year filled with joy and happiness!

You should have received your renewal package in the mail. If you have not, please contact Judy Filsinger at 909-307-0400.

Please try to pay your 2021 pledge balance and any other pledges you have made to CEE as soon as you can. If you are not sure what the balance due on your account is, please contact Judy Filsinger at the Temple Office and she can give you that information. The number is 909-307-0400.

I will post the 2020/2021 year end numbers in the September bulletin.

Shalom!

Kathy Rosenfeld

Sisterhood Speaks

The New Year will soon be upon us. I have had the honor and privilege of planning, (and contingency planning), along with my sisters, for our role in the High Holy Day celebrations.

This time of year is exciting, as the School for Jewish Living will also resume. We support our Director, Marcela as she endeavors to educate our children. We are pleased to report that Marcela is one of our newest members of Sisterhood, and to her we say “Welcome Aboard.”

Speaking of membership, Paula Kaye and our Membership Committee plan to send out membership packets very soon. We look forward to receiving your renewal memberships, and getting to know our new members of Sisterhood as well. As many of you can attest, Sisterhood is one of many fun and friendly aspects of the Temple. We are here to make communal life fun, exciting, and supportive. Our committees welcome volunteers to assist us throughout the year as well. Please feel free to reach out if you have questions or suggestions about becoming involved.

On August 8th you are invited to our Rosh Chodesh Elul event at 10:00 AM on our Social Hall Patio for this outdoor only event. The Membership Committee will be able to assist you with your Sisterhood Membership renewal or new application. If you would like to attend this event, please email Leslie Soltz at lhsoltz@gmail.com.

For those of you who have children enrolling on the first day of SJL on Sunday August 29th, please join us for our Bagel and Schmooze event. We encourage everyone to support the children of SJL, communally, so please ask Marcela about ways that you can be of service during the school year.

Our next Sisterhood Board meeting will be via Zoom, Saturday August 7th at 7:30 pm. We will conduct a Havdalah first; our Sisterhood meeting will follow. If you would like to attend, please email us at sisterhood@emanuelsb.org. We welcome and encourage you to join us!

B'Shalom,

Mental Health Awareness in Action

Heading into Elul this month, we slow down and ponder what we have done this past year, asking ourselves whether our actions have enhanced our moral lives and the lives of others.

At Mental Health Awareness In Action, we are taking a look back to consider not only our own actions but also ones of people in our national history who have prepared the way for whatever we may do. There are many, but we focus on three – Richard Van Horn, and Rosalyn and Jimmy Carter as they celebrate 75 years of married life.

Recently Richard Van Horn came into our awareness when his obituary appeared in the LA Times in June this year. He was an Episcopal priest who worked for more than 30 years in Los Angeles and our state to help pass several mental health reform bills. He was a main driver behind Proposition 63 that ultimately resulted in our having the California Mental Health Services Agency. Tireless and capable, he promoted the recovery model of services.

And then the Carters. Rosalyn has worked for 50 years on mental health issues, starting first in Georgia in 1971. Once she and Jimmy made it to Washington, she had the whole country to work on, and then why not the entire world? She was honorary chair of the President's Commission on Mental Health; she testified before Congress during and after the Carter presidency on the needs for mental health services; she repeatedly won U.S. and World Health Organization awards; and she wrote two books on the subject of mental health. Jimmy as president got into law the Mental Health Systems Act of 1980 (sadly, repealed in 1981 by President Reagan), and at their Carter Center they have created symposiums, programs, and fellowships designed to improve mental health services. Rosalyn also served on the Committee of International Women Leaders for Mental Health in the 1990's. More recently she's focused on her home state of Georgia, especially the state school system. Always, always lobbying for good services, for compassion and understanding for all who live with mental illness.

Quite a legacy just in these three people. Where do we personally fit in? Can we muster the energy and perseverance to continue reducing stigma and make sure we provide care for those with mental issues?

In that work we have a wonderful ally in our California State Assembly, our own representative, James Ramos. His focus has been on suicide prevention and making sure mental health is part of the state's public health services.

We have a new year ahead. Let's make it a good one for mental health.

From Our Director of Education & Youth

I hope everyone is enjoying the summer and staying cool. We, at our school for Jewish Living, are planning the new school year. First day of SJL will be August 29th, 2021, and Registration will start this month with an option to register online in a safe and easy way and still with an option to call the office.

We are working closely with Epidemiologist Dr. Emily Ebert a member of our Temple. We want to make the school a safe space for our students to have meaningful Jewish education and experiences.

In our calendar we have also, holiday programming, toddler time and L'Dor Va Dor meetings and a program for our teens as well. More information and dates to come soon.

Looking forward to getting back and seeing you all in person again.

Services held outdoors will be open to everyone with masks and distancing required. See our article on Health and Safety in this Bulletin for more information.

Your Health and Safety Are Our First Priority.
Your questions answered.

What guides our decisions about health and safety?

We are committed to offering only Low-Risk and Low-Moderate Risk activities.

Our Jewish values require that we place great value on human life and that we must go to great lengths to protect life. We are firm in our decision that all in-person activities and religious services offered to our community at Congregation Emanu El must be considered either Low Risk or Low-Moderate Risk by CDC standards.

Why do our policies change over time?

What is considered a low-risk activity at one point in time may become a moderate or high-risk activity as conditions change. Therefore, as we receive updated information about risk levels, we must adapt our policies accordingly. This article is being written in mid-July and reflects the conditions at that time.

What is our current policy about in-person services?

For the health and safety of our entire community, in-person services will be for Fully-Vaccinated individuals only until the circumstances change.

For fully vaccinated individuals, meeting in the sanctuary even without masks is still considered a low-risk activity at the current time (mid-July). Unfortunately, in-person gatherings in our sanctuary for non-vaccinated persons are now considered to be Moderate-High Risk and therefore do not meet our standards.

What about those at special risk?

Low-risk does not mean No-risk. Please consider your own special circumstances and consult with your physician. Those who are immuno-compromised may be advised to attend on-line services even if fully-vaccinated. Do not attend in-person services if you are feeling ill.

What about outdoor gatherings?

We will be offering some opportunities to gather safely outdoors. These activities will be open to both fully-vaccinated and unvaccinated individuals.

We are keenly aware that our children age 11 and younger are not yet able to receive the vaccine. Currently, outdoor gatherings are considered low or low/moderate risk for both vaccinated and unvaccinated individuals as long as everyone wears a mask and all household groups practice social distancing.

What is the current medical and scientific information from our epidemiologic advisor?

At our last Health and Safety Meeting, our epidemiologic advisor cautioned us about the rise of the much more transmissible delta variant of the virus. We are now seeing an increase in cases in our county. The risk to unvaccinated people from different household bubbles will most likely rise throughout the summer. A contributing factor to the risk is the low vaccination rate in San Bernardino County, which is below that of Los Angeles and Riverside Counties and lower than California overall. Our epidemiologic advisor and our Health and Safety Task Force will continue to provide us with recommendations based on the latest data from our county as well as the CDC and other sources.

What about the High Holy Days?

Our expectation is that indoor gatherings will continue to be restricted to those who are fully-vaccinated through the High Holy Days. We plan to offer opportunities for families with children 11 and younger to gather safely outdoors.

What about on-line services?

We are dedicated to serving both our in-person and on-line communities, and we will provide High Holy Days services on Zoom and Facebook Live.

Introducing ShulCloud Member Portal

(There is no requirement to change the current way you interface with Congregation Emanu El. The Member Portal has been set up as a convenience for you, and is not compulsory.)

A letter was mailed to each member in mid-July introducing our new on-line member database, called ShulCloud. These are the corrected instructions for creating your password and accessing your Member Portal information:

1. Go to <https://emanuelredlands.shulcloud.com>
2. Just below the picture of Congregation Emanu El, click the "Just Click Here" link to sign up for online access.
3. Enter your email address in the dialogue box that opens up. Click "Email password." If we have your email address on file, you will receive a link to create a new password. Then you will be able to login to the Member Portal and access your information."

What does this mean to you as a member of CEE?

You will be able to:

- access your member information and edit your member profile.
- make payments, check your balance and previous payment information.
- edit your Yahrzeit information.
- access the member directory which should be much more current, since members can now update their own information. You may also OPT OUT of the directory if you choose to not have your information made available to members or you can choose what information is available.

Questions? Didn't receive the letter?

Problems with accessing the Member Portal?

Please contact the office at 909-307-0400.
