Cantorial Comments

Jerry Alexander Ripley
July 19, 1955 –
January 11, 2023

Remembering ....A month of musical Yahrzeits

It was exactly a year ago that I received that fateful phone call from Jerry's husband, David. We knew he hadn't been well, had been struggling with a bad cough, but none of us could have imagined that we would lose him so suddenly. Even with his sharp, dry humor, Jerry was proud of his southern US and Scottish stock and never let on that he was struggling so much with his health. He gave forty years of service to Congregation Emanu El – from San Bernardino to Redlands while working simultaneously at churches, teaching and performing with numerous colleagues throughout the years. If you had a 'Jerry story', it's more than likely he had a quip or anecdote about you! Friday night, January 12, also MLK Shabbat, we will honor and remember Jerry with the choir music he loved. Jerry was proud of all the dedicated and talented volunteers and members of the Congregation Emanu El choir who have given their gifts of time and dedication over the years, many of whom will be joining us for this special service: Michelle Anctil, Sheri Maltzman, Barbara Smith, Lisa Wise-Wolk, Chel Zipperstein, George Petit and Emily Croft, all under the direction of Jerry's dear friend and colleague, our new organist and choir director, Dr. Lois Musmann.

We also remember:

Debbie Lynn Friedman
February 23; 1951 – January 9, 2011

Cantor Gregory Yaroslow
April 24, 1952 – January 17, 2020

Remembering these very special and talented musicians leads up to SHABBAT SHIRAH – The Shabbat in Song. We are grateful for the incredible legacies each one of them, in their own way, has left us and our Jewish musical heritage.

B'shira – Cantor Jennifer Bern-Vogel

Presidential Perspectives

We made it through another holiday season. I hope your Chanukah and New Year celebrations were meaningful to all of our members. We enjoyed another joyous Light up the Night at Ed Hales Park in downtown Redlands. Cantor Bern-Vogel led a large gathering on the first night. There were songs, candles, goodies, and a festive evening for all. Thanks also go out to Rabbi Emeritus Hillel Cohn for his participation as well as thanks to the Redlands Police Department and Parks Department for their support of the event.

A big WELCOME BACK! to Judy Filsinger and Robert. It is quite comforting hearing a familiar voice return to our office. There are some exciting events coming up in the new year. A memorial concert, in memory of Jerry Ripley, will be taking place soon. This always includes wonderful music and tributes to our friend of many years. The Feldheym Lecture is not far away and we look forward to another inspirational talk on a subject that was meaningful to Rabbi Feldheym. Keep a look out for emails, Facebook, and Constant Contacts providing dates and times for these events.

We have had a couple of challenging years trying to 'right the ship' financially. Things have improved and we are back on target budget-wise. Thanks go out to our Board of Directors who have been supportive of the actions necessary to turn the ship. I would like to give special thanks to the Executive Committee for their dedication and leadership during the last two years. Greg Weissman, Karyn Lehmann, Julie Strain, Leslie Soltz, Dan Schwartz, Stacy Knox, Jeffrey Rosenfeld, Cantor Jennifer Bern-Vogel, and Rabbi Emeritus Hillel Cohn have been crucial to stabilizing our Temple, both financially and spiritually, and deserve your thanks when you see them.

Finally, it was with regret that I had to accept the resignation of our Board Secretary, Leslie Soltz. As jbstrain1130@gmail.com you know, Leslie is facing some serious health concerns and needs to use her time to focus on those concerns. Both Leslie and Bill Soltz have been active leaders in our Temple. Leslie has served many years on the Temple Board and Executive Committee as well as being a leader in Sisterhood. As she has supported us, it is now our turn to support her in any way we can.

The Gregorian New Year brings us cooler, wetter weather so stay warm and dry!

B'Shalom,

Paul Zipperstein

Treasurer's Report

Happy New Year! Welcome to 2024. Another year to look forward to the programs, activities, social events, learning opportunities and spending time with friends here at Congregation Emanu El.

Plan on being at Shabbat Services, January 7th, when we will honor Martin Luther King, Jr. and remember Jerry Ripley, our organist and choir director on his yahrzeit.

On Sunday, January 21st we have a guest speaker, Colonel Amit Grinfeld, IDF Reservist speaking on Israel's Unexpected Battle: Insights from the Frontlines.

We have a special Tu B'Shevat celebration on Sunday, January 28th. Please come and learn along with our SJL students all about trees and their importance in our lives. Sample the fruits and nuts associated with this holiday.

So far we are fiscally stable. We have to thank the generosity of our members and many non-members who are supportive of our Congregation. We are very fortunate to have a very caring community.

May 2024 be a wonderful year for us all!

Julie Strain

From Our School for Jewish Living

We had a lot of fun in December; our focus was Tzedakah (giving money to help others) tied to the mitzvot of Hanukkah. Students made tzedakah banks and discussed ways to spend their money to help others. Our Essential Questions to think about were: Do small acts make a difference? And how does what I do make a difference in the world? We used chalk pastels and created place mats for our Shabbat candles. Students practiced the blessings and learned two new ones. Our prayer & song book received many new additions. Students presented their menorah song, acting out the lighting of the candles. We ended the month with a celebration of chocolate gelt, Hanukkah bingo, and lots of fun and games. In January, we are preparing to interact with, benefit from, and celebrate nature as we honor Tu B'Shevat, the new year of the trees. Also, starting in January, K'tanim will join the older students weekly.

Wishing you and yours Love & Peace,.

Miss Ilene and Miss Karyn

Sisterhood Speaks

Sisterhood has been BUSY! We hosted the SJL Latke lunch for almost 75 people. The luncheon was adeptly organized by our amazing Kathy Trainor, hot latkes made possible by my husband Stephen Lehmann and his crew (Amanda, Peytra and Lisa). The party was a success and was enjoyed by all.

Sisterhood Shabbat Services on Friday, December 15th, was a beautiful evening together - from a special candle lighting through an ample oneg (hosted by the Smith Family). Services were organized by our own amazing Lisa Wise-Wolk, and led and beautifully sung by Lisa and Chel Zipperstein, and of course accompanied by Dr. Lois Mussman. It was a lovely evening! It was wonderful to see everyone there.

This year has been a year of change, a year of learning, and a year of sacrifice. As we enter 2024, my hopes are that Sisterhood brings joy into the lives of our congregation and that Sisterhood grows alongside our congregation with new members, and past members rejoining.

As we approach where the casino night once was, we will be rolling out some new events (still hammering out the details) but mark January 27th on the calendar. If you have ideas, please let me know.

The Maj tournament will be returning Monday February 19th (President's Day weekend) as this is now Sisterhood's biggest fundraiser; we would appreciate the communities help with prizes. Large or small, we need them all!

Please say a special prayer of healing for our past president and our biggest supporter Leslie Soltz as she goes through chemo.

With Love and Sisterhood.

B'Shalom

Mental Health Awareness in Action

Rosalynn Carter Mental Health Advocate

Ninety-six years is a long time to live. And some humans have a dedication to helping others that lasts almost as long and hardly seems to diminish over the years. Rosalynn Carter was such a person. She died in her hometown of Plains, Georgia on November 19, 2023.

Her most enduring passion was helping those with mental illness and those who care for them. We don't know what inspired her skillful and effective effort to draw attention to the problem, while going against stigma, while prodding into existence thoughtful and kind government policy, while being personal and caring in all her relations, while insisting that help must be forthcoming. Some of the answers may lie in books she co-authored and some written about her.

But whatever it was, Mrs. Carter worked locally, nationally, and internationally, and in multiple various ways. She started in Georgia in 1971. When she went to the White House, she became honorary chair of the President's Commission on Mental Health, and soon a comprehensive Mental Health Systems Act passed (repealed by the Reagan administration). Back in Georgia she focused on her state and the nation as the Carter Center hosted and funded programs, fellowships, and annual symposia on mental health. She even thought of promoting mental health issues in the media with the Rosalynn Carter Fellowships for Mental Health Journalism starting in 1996. She won national and World Health Organization awards. She wrote books, especially about caregiving. She thought about every aspect of the difficulties of mental illness for those living with it and for their family and friends. Here's a short list of her symposium topics:

- Mental illness and the elderly
- Child and adolescent mental illnesses
- Family coping
- Financing mental health services and research
- Treating mental illness in the primary care setting
- Dealing with stigma

She insisted that we all think carefully and thoroughly about our mental well-being. As individuals and as a society. And never get tired, never grow indifferent, never stop supporting and loving each other.

She went about her business decade after decade. We fear we didn't pay enough attention, didn't appreciate her enough. And we cannot know how much the general decrease in stigma over recent decades had her mark on it. Certainly, she was a major figure in our collective movement away from shame and denial toward acceptance and solutions.

And there is so much more to be done. Even after she is gone, her example is calling on us to do all we can to speak up for ourselves, to care for others, to create an intelligent, kind world. It's 2024. Let's get to it.

Guest Speaker

COLONEL AMIT GRINFELD

ISRAEL'S UNEXPECTED BATTLE: INSIGHTS FROM THE FRONTLINES

Reserve Lieutenant Colonel Amit Grinfeld, a seasoned veteran and an expert in the field, brings his first-hand experiences to the forefront. Having commanded a unit in the IDF Home Front Command, he witnessed the aftermath of the largest terrorist attack in the history of the Israeli-Arab conflict and the ensuing war.

Amit Grinfeld also stands at the crossroads where deep academic knowledge meets real-world expertise. With degrees in history, international relations, and political science, coupled with official Israeli tour guide training [Israeli tour guides are the best in the world!] and an array of special courses, Amit's proficiency in guiding is unparalleled. Over the years, he has successfully led hundreds of groups through the intricate tapestry of Israel's past and present- from youth education tours to foreign dignitaries.

In addition to being a passionate author with an authority on history and the modern-day complexities of Israel, Amit is a devoted husband and father to four delightful children. Their family moments often revolve around nature - be it gardening or the cherished tradition of producing olive oil from their family's bountiful farm.

Colonel Grinfeld's presentation promises to be educational, informative and lively, with no question too tough for him to tackle.

Thank you God for creating the fruit tree.

Please Join Us for a
Tu B'Shevat Celebration
On
Sunday January 28th at 10:30 a.m.
With the children and families of SJL

Just as at a Passover seder, symbolic foods are eaten in a special order in celebration of the important role trees play in our life. It's traditional to eat Israeli fruits, such as figs, dates, and carobs.

Engage and learn about Tu B'Shevat with a sampling of different types of fruits and nuts,
Coffee, Juice, Challah and Spreads
We will review the blessing we say before eating fruit with the children, borei p'ri ha'eitz
while enjoying the morning together.

Please RSVP to the temple office by January 23rd

2024!

Congregation Emanu El
presents the 37th Annual
Rabbi Norman F. Feldheim Memorial Lecture

The Rabbi Norman F. Feldheim Memorial Lecture was established at the time of Rabbi Feldheim's death (1906-1985) by members of Congregation Emanu El as well as many friends in the wider community. The aim of the lectureship is to focus on areas that were of special interest to Rabbi Feldheim. One of his life-long interests was "Jewish folklore." He would often share stories from Jewish folklore - especially tales of the Hasidic masters - that taught basic Jewish values. Thus, the 37th Annual lecture is "Tales & Scales: Stories of Jewish Wisdom."
