Cantorial Comments

- A MAY TIMELINE - GRATITUDE, REMEMBRANCE, HEALING, MUSIC AND APPRECIATION

Our April Bulletin had already gone to print before the conclusion of our Purimsphiel festivities: A big thanks to Gillian Block, Jeannie Silberstein, Tristan Damron and Fernando Lopez for their time in setting up the Purim decorations to help create our fabulous Barbie-themed Purim celebration and Shpiel.

YOM HASHOAH, SUNDAY, MAY 5TH AT 4:45 P.M. featuring Aleah Lang, violin

PLEASE try to stop by on May 5 between 4:45-6 pm to help in READING OF THE NAMES, victims of the Holocaust, who have no one left to remember them. Everyone who participated in last year's first-time event at Congregation Emanu El found the experience in its simplicity to be very powerful. A brief memorial service will follow. Yellow Yom Hashoah Memorial candles will be available for all attendees.

HEALING SERVICE, SATURDAY, MAY 11TH AT 10:00 A.M. featuring musicians:

Kerry Wise-Wolk, Marty Handelman and Dr. Lois Musmann

Since the horrific massacres at the Kibbutzim and Nova Music Festival on October 7th, and the retaliation with scores of innocent lives still being lost, antisemitism has again reared its ugly head, emotions are high, and we are bereft and confused. We are desperately in need of communal healing simply as distant witnesses to the tragedies and uncertainties of this war. At the same time, we also struggle with personal life transitions, grief, loss, mental illness, end of life challenges and more. This is an opportunity to acknowledge the silent burdens we all carry with this creative service of shared stories and music. We also acknowledge Mental Health Awareness Month with Heidi Nimmo and Nancy Sidhu. The service will be followed by a special Kiddush luncheon for all.

RAINBOW PRIDE SHABBAT FRIDAY, MAY 17TH AT 6:30 P.M. featuring Raymond Zachary

You will not want to miss this special, meaningful, unique and very entertaining Shabbat service when I will be joined by my very talented colleague, Raymond Zachary, counter-tenor extraordinaire, with their drag persona, Miss Livinya Karr, who will not only entertain, but educate with humor, integrity and grit.

MUSICA VIVA, TUESDAY, MAY 21ST AT 7:30 P.M. directed by Dr. Lois Musmann

Once again, in connection with the Spinet Organization, Dr. Lois Musmann, who is also our choir director and accompanist at Congregation Emanu El, presents her Musica Viva choir and instrumentalists to create an evening of enchanting and inspirational music.

Hoping to see you at many of these important May events! Finally:

My Family Travel Missions

Mission #1: During the last week of May, I will be in Germany for the first of two visits this year, returning to my mother's birthplace to attend the presentation and official publication of my grandfather's WWI diaries when he was stationed in Belgium and the autobiography that he later wrote in England. after fleeing Germany in 1939.

Mission #2 will be in November where I will be participating in the 86th Commemoration of Kristallnacht [Pogrom Night of 1938] in my mother's hometown of Bielefeld, Germany, to present the Synagogue Key that has been in her possession since that fateful November night, the only relic that still remains of the synagogue her uncle commissioned in 1909.

Presidential Perspectives

As we enter May, we remember the 11 million who died in the Holocaust and honor those in the Jewish resistance during that period through Yom HaZikaron laShoah ve-laG'vurah (ולגבורה ולימים הזיכרון לשואה); or “Holocaust and Heroism Remembrance Day”. It is also known simply as Yom HaShoah (יום השואה). Erev Yom HaShoah begins the evening of May 5 and services will be held at the Temple. Please note the time of services in this edition of the bulletin.

The Congregation’s Annual Meeting will take place on May 15 beginning at 6 pm with a BBQ hosted by the Board of Directors. There is no charge so we hope we will see everyone for this important meeting. This past year has been a good year for the Temple and we will be highlighting the positive things that have taken place as well as cover finances and the election of new officers and board members.

As my second Presidency ends, I would like to thank many people. First, the entire Congregation for their support and encouragement. Next, to Rabbi Emeritus Hillel Cohn for his continued support of not only me but also the Temple and the Cemetery, and to Cantor Jennifer Bern-Vogel who keeps us on track and guides us spiritually. A big shout out to the Officers and members of the Executive Committee: Greg Weissman, Julie Strain, Karyn Lehmann, Leslie Soltz, Dan Schwartz, Jeffrey Rosenfeld, Stacy Knox, and Sidra Knox. Their leadership and dedication to CEE is inspiring. Finally, our Board of Directors: Margie Orland, Kathy Rosenfeld, Scott Wilkie, and Amanda Sanchez. They have provided new thoughts and ideas to lay a foundation for our future.

Treasurer's Report

The final budget for Fiscal Year 2024/2025 has been approved by the Board of Directors and is published in our Bulletin in preparation for the formal presentation at the Congregational Annual Meeting on May 16th. (Please see the following page)

Thank you to our budget committee: Kathy Rosenfeld, Greg Weissman, Paul Zipperstein and Daniel Schwartz. I truly appreciate their help in preparing this budget.

Remember that a budget is a guideline, it is our best estimate of what we anticipate to receive in income and what we expect our expenses to be. As always, we do our best to limit our expenses wherever possible, while trying to increase revenues.

Below are a few key points about the Final Budget:

INCOME:

- Dues Income - We were successful in realizing the budgeted dues income for 23-24. We are projecting the same for 24-25. We are not increasing dues.
- High Holy Days - We will continue to charge for non-members attending High Holy Day Services.

EXPENSES:

- Clergy Costs - Total Clergy Costs include Cantor’s contract and expense for a High Holy Day Rabbi.
- Accounting/Payroll - Continue to retain the services of outside accounting and bookkeeping at $12,000 per year.
- Security - Our security costs have increased due to the need for additional security at all events.
- Utilities and Insurance - Anticipate increases in our liability insurance and our utilities.

A full budget presentation will be made at our Annual Meeting on May 16th at 7:00 p.m. I look forward to seeing you there!

From Our School for Jewish Living

Last year we explored the holiday of Passover through the lens of Jewish literature. This year we focused on remembering and retelling. Mrs. Zipperstein taught the children to recite and sing the four questions in Hebrew and answer in English. We prepared for our family Seders and the Temple Seder by making matzah covers, a glass for Elijah and a cup for Miriam. If you attended the Temple Seder, there was one of each, from the students, on the table. Special thanks to Miss Karyn and her team of helpers for making the tie dye experience so fun.

Hashavat aveidah is the Jewish value of returning a lost object. We discussed how this value is as much physical as it is emotional for both the person who lost an object, as well as the person who returned it.

In literature (and in our religious education) rocks have always been a symbol of God's reliability and strength. While we were busy with our paints this month, we recycled some river rocks by painting them to use at home, and left some in the Temple's biblical garden. If you see one of the students' rocks, there is a hidden Star of David and their name painted somewhere.

Next month we celebrate Yom Ha'atzma'ut, Israel's Independence Day.

Shalom berakhah ve-tovah,
Peace and Blessings,

Miss Ilene and Miss Karyn

Sisterhood Speaks

My oh May where has the time gone?

Sisterhood has been busy!

We have arranged for many beautiful Onegs (thanks to the amazing Kathy Trainor). We have participated in supporting our students in SJL (thank you Michelle Zipperstein for music, Ilene Mino for preparing lessons and following through in learning and community building). We have stocked and staffed a beautiful gift shop with so many lovely items and wonderful volunteers (thanks to the truly amazing and committed Lisa Wise-Wolk and Barb Smith).

We have put on an amazing community SEDER (thanks again to the amazing Kathy Trainor). We have purchased a commercial carpet cleaner and have had our amazing staff clean carpets (thanks to Barb Smith for researching and arranging!)

Sisterhood looks forward to seeing all our members at our paid-up brunch CINCO DE SISTERHOOD (May 5th) where our next year's slate of officers will be presented and voted on.

Please plan on attending or you may get volunteered in absentia ;).

Please continue to send healing love to our past presidents Leslie Soltz and Kimberly Wolfe-Morgan as they navigate their healing journeys.

I will admit that this past year was an unplanned presidency, thus I was not prepared for all that was needed to be the best president. Thankfully, I had an awesome supporting board that have stepped up and stepped in for me when I needed to be in the classroom, or in my shop.

As I step down and hand over the keys to the imminently capable Debbie Schwartz, I am confident that our community will continue to support Sisterhood and help us to grow and flourish!

In Peace, Love and Sisterhood

How to Be a Friend

A friend. A dear friend. Maybe someone you've known since you both were kids, hanging out together, playing sports together, then growing up and creating families of friends.

What do you do when you see your friend change into an almost different person? The risk-taking pal suddenly turned dark, dim, and lost. New York Times columnist David Brooks wrote about his friend in his recent book, How to Know a Person. His friend was a wonderful husband and father, an eye surgeon, and now he was experiencing a severe depression. And it wouldn't let up, even with the best medical care, even after trying several anti-depressant drugs, he could not return to the man he had been.

And what is a friend to do? What is helpful, what is harmful? Suddenly Brooks was faced with emotional choices, and he didn't know what was best. How should he help his friend?

How many of us have faced a similar situation with people we love? And how many of us have seen that sometimes nothing helps, that our loved ones don't improve? That even sometimes they take their own lives? That is what happened to David Brooks. For all the medical care, all the love and understanding of his wife and sons, and his friends, his friend died by suicide after years of suffering.

By then Brooks had learned something about the nature of depression – not just a sad mood – it was an altered way of perceiving life and a terrible despair. And he learned that trying to cheer him up was useless, and also disrespectful of what was happening to him. He learned to be with his friend, listen to him attentively, and love him. He learned to remind him often that he was thinking about him, that he was there for him, that he hadn't given up on him.

It didn't prevent the tragedy of suicide, but it was a kind of accompaniment. They were friends from boyhood to the very end.

We can all learn from David Brooks' heart rending experience. Of course, try to get professional help for one close to you who is depressed. Often that is the way out of it. But also, just be with him or her, generous with your attentiveness. There is nothing easy about this accompaniment, but it is the kind way, the loving way, and that he or she deeply needs.

Let's all of us develop a wise awareness in this Mental Health Month.

In recent years the counting of the Omer between Passover and Shavuot has been a newer practice of self discovery. We have Rabbi Karyn Kedar's book Omer: A Counting.

Which begins with our escape from enslavement on Passover to the wandering path of freedom, leading to a mystical encounter with God, Sinai, and Torah on Shavuot. This volume provides a spiritual guide for a personal journey through the Omer toward meaningful and purposeful living. Beautiful and evocative readings for each day matched with the daily Omer blessing, offer a transformative path from Passover to Shavuot.

A perfect companion to Omer: A Counting is her set of forty-nine cards, 7 weeks, divided into seven spiritual principles: Decide, Discern, Choose, Hope, Imagine, Courage, and Pray. Each day its own thought, each week its own theme, to help illuminate your days. We take on a discipline and an obligation to mindfully enter the day, to be aware of its potential power to matter, to make a difference, to make it count for something.

"We count, and in doing so, make an accounting of who we are and who we want to be."

Laurie Kassman, Area Director/ SW V.P. and Margie Meadow So. Cal. V.P.*

Thank you very much תודה רבה TODAH RABBAH

TO OUR WONDERFUL SISTERHOOD

FOR A DELIGHTFUL AND DELICIOUS PASSOVER SEDER

Special thanks to Kathy Trainor, Barb Smith, Margie Orland, Leslie Soltz, Jill Weissman, Ellen Weiss, Ilene Mino, Karyn Lehmann, SJL students, Sophia Salter, Amanda Ramirez, Peytra Becker-Kurily, Ashleigh Wilkie, Jayme Carbaugh, Kelly Kline, Lisa Wise-Wolk, Jeanne Silberstein and Lorraine and her crew.

We had matzo balls, charoset, kugels, chicken soup and a special chocolate matzah dessert all made by our wonderful volunteers. Our SJL students made beautiful matzah covers and members provided family seder plates used on our seder tables.
