Rabbi Cantor's Comments

DON'T MISS OUR GUEST SPEAKER: JULIE KOHNER ON NOVEMBER 7 AND THE ARRIVAL OF OUR OWN HOLOCAUST TORAH THAT SAME WEEK!

We're in the month of Cheshvan - that means no Jewish holidays!! While we take a breather for a bit, I thought it would be fun for you to 'get to know' who about our choir singers. Our eclectic choir consists of about ten singers, so we only have space for 2-3 bios at a time. I hope you enjoy getting to know them better over the coming months... Here are some of the prompts I suggested for them:

- 1) How long have you sung with CEE and/or been a member?
- 2) What other work do you do?
- 3) What music [or piece] do you especially love singing with CEE?
- 4) What other interests do you have or choirs have you sung with in the past?
- 5) Share something of interest or humorous about you.

Mary Lynn Stough:

- 1) I started singing for CEE in 1987.*
- 2. I am a Professor Emerita in Mathematics. Most of the time, I'm working on my garden, knitting, or learning a new language. I'm incompetent in five so far.*
- 3. I prefer to sing when I'm doing something; no particular favorites.*
- 4. I am currently studying the science of cooking to see if I can improve the flavor and nutrition of vegan, gluten-free, low-carb diets. Yeah, it's impossible.*
- 5. I discovered a two-hundred-year-old manuscript at the Smithsonian that math historians had been trying to find for decades. Because I was reading in Latin and French, the curator asked me to help him place the letter. After reading it, I knew it was the lost letter of Leonard Euler describing the bird's beak example of a continuous function that was not differentiable. It was stunning news.*

Michelle Anttil:

I was born in San Diego (in the primitive days before Sea World), moved to Colorado, and back to San Diego, and then to the Inland Empire in 1967, where I have lived ever since, with the exception of a year of graduate study in Germany. I spent the first two years of undergraduate studies as a music major, but my training is in instrumental music, not vocal. My main instrument is the clarinet, but I have also done some work on saxophone, oboe, and French horn (which is what gave me my ability to blow Shofar). My first experience with choral singing was with a church choir in Germany, followed by another church choir when I returned to the U.S. I sang with Canto Bello Chorale and the Community Chorus of Redlands. It was Jerry Ripley who first suggested that I consider joining the CEE choir, and Barb Smith, whom I met at an interfaith Thanksgiving service; she also invited me to join the choir, so how could I turn down an offer like that? My first services with the CEE choir were in late 2009, the last ones held at the E St. location before the move to Redlands. I have sung with the choir since then and during that time, I also converted to Judaism, had a formal Bat Mitzvah, studied the chanting of Torah, and took up blowing the Shofar.

"Enjoy the little things for one day you may look back and discover they were the big things"

HAPPY THANKSGIVING

Rabbi Cantor Jennifer Bern-Vogel

Presidential Perspectives

As we emerge from the sacred Days of Awe, I want to express our deepest thanks to each of you who joined us in prayer, reflection, and community during this meaningful season. Your presence enriched our High Holy Day services and reminded us of the strength we find in coming together.

We are especially grateful for your generosity during our Kol Nidre Pledge Drive. Because of your continued support, and through a generous gift from the Stanley Roshwald estate, we are proud to share a major milestone: Congregation Emanu El has officially paid off the mortgage on our building. This is a significant achievement — one made possible through your dedication and belief in the future of our congregation.

While we celebrate this accomplishment, we also remain mindful of the ongoing challenges we face, including shrinking membership and a significant shortage of volunteer support. We continue to explore new ways to strengthen the financial health and long-term sustainability of our community. Your involvement — both through giving and through your time — remains essential.

This High Holiday season also marked the arrival of Student Rabbi Eric Sbar, who, along with his wife Melissa (Missy), brought warmth, joy, and spirit to our Tot Shabbat and Family Service on October 3. We are excited to welcome Eric back for many more visits, with the next one scheduled for November 21.

Thank you for being an essential part of our congregation — in this season and always.

With gratitude,

Greg Weissman

Treasurer's Report

November is the month of gratitude and thanksgiving. There are several ways to give thanks and appreciation for our blessings. There will be the Redlands Area Interfaith Thanksgiving Celebration on Sunday, November 16th hosted by the First United Methodist Church in Redlands.

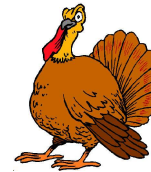

We are once again sponsoring a turkey drive to provide turkeys to families in need. Please contact the temple office to make a donation.

I am grateful for our congregation and our members; I am proud to volunteer and be a part of this synagogue. I am blessed with a wonderful family that brings me love and joy.

I wish everyone a very happy Thanksgiving.

Let's Talk Turkey!
It's Turkey Donation Time Again!
We Need Your Help

For many years, our Congregation has partnered with local non-profit agencies in providing turkey dinner for families in need during the holiday season.

This year we are trying to supply as many turkeys as we can. The need this year is much greater than in the past.

Donations of $25 per turkey can be made to meet this need and provide turkeys to families through our Annual Turkey Fund Drive.

Donations are now being gratefully accepted in the temple office or can be made online through our website, www.emanuelsb.org.

Sisterhood Speaks

I hope that everyone is enjoying this Fall season. Sukkot and Simcha Torah were joyful. Both Rabbi Cantor Jennifer and our treasured Lisa Wise-Wolk officiated over meaningful and educational festival services. It was lovely to see so many familiar faces and visit with our new members.

We had our “Paid-up Brunch” and want to thank all the new members and fabulous sisters who helped to celebrate. If you have a special skill, or talent that you would be willing to share with us please reach out! If you would like someone to reach out to you, please let us know. Mah-Jongg lessons are going well and we still have room for more students. Community Mah-Jongg play is on Thursdays and we have room for more players. .

November is a quiet month for us. Hanukkah planning is complete and here is what you can look forward to:

Sunday, December 7th - 12:30 p.m.

Sisterhood meeting

Friday, December 19th - 5:30 p.m. - Shabbat

Hanukkah Lights, Laughter, and Latkes Dinner ,

Saturday, December 20th - 5:00 p.m. - Light Up The Night - Ed Hale Park, Downtown Redlands.

A heartfelt thank you goes out to Lorraine and her team for always being the perfect hosts at our holiday events. Your talent for making every gathering extraordinary is truly remarkable. We are grateful for each and every one of you!

Wishing you a delightful Thanksgiving filled with the warmth of family, the joy of good food, and the laughter of friends. May this special time bring you closer to those you cherish and create beautiful memories that nourish your heart.

Mental Health Awareness in Action

1 Degree of Separation

Depression and suicide are no laughing matters. That's obvious. But could a bit of light-hearted comedy play a part in helping to heal? Brad Boner thought so and created an organization based in California called One Degree of Separation. The name indicates how close each of us is to someone who struggles with depression and sometimes suicidal thoughts. A friend, a family member, ourself.

Brad is a comedian who suffered from depression, and it seemed to him he could use comedy to loosen us up in order to do what is most helpful – to talk about it. He imagined creating a “training program combining comedy with life-saving education.”

A typical presentation goes like this: About 4 comedians come on stage or in the center of a room. They each get up and do a few moments of stand-up. Each comedian does what he wants as long as it's funny. Then they all come on together and sit down. They talk about their own difficulties with depression, and they present and answer five questions. As they say, “We laugh at the dark stuff, because laughter releases the pain. We talk about depression because no one should feel shame.....We hope to kill the stigma of depression and share stories of hope, happiness and triumph.” Everyone in the audience goes home with a list of the 5 questions:

1. What does it feel like?
2. What do others do that make it worse?
3. What do others do that make it better?
4. What do you do that makes it worse?
5. What do you do that makes it better?

One Degree of Separation goes all over the country. They've presented before medical people, corporate clients, first responders, dentists, military, and students from 6th grade through college.

As they say, “We aim to bring dialogue, awareness, and acceptance for those suffering from depression through laughter and vulnerability.” And the first step to overcoming depression is to talk about it.

Let's talk about it. And let's have a sense of thanksgiving deep in our hearts as we share our real selves.

From Our School for Jewish Living

The School for Jewish Living has been very busy. Last month I ended my article with, "See you in the sukkah!" We saw many people in the sukkah throughout the week. Our students made beautiful decorations, our families did an artful job of decorating and setting up the tables. Special thanks to Seth Poulin and Scott Wilkie for building the sukkah and the SJL families for finishing it off with our Harvesting Hope theme.

For Simchat Torah we got up close with an older "unkosher" Torah which Rabbi Cohn shared with us, then made flags for the Simchat Torah parade, and practiced holiday songs with Mrs. Z. and Miss Shaina. October ended with Shaina Martinez joining the teaching team as a K'tanim teacher. Please congratulate and thank her on behalf of the congregation. November is another busy month for the school. K'tanim is working on learning the Aleph-Bet song in Hebrew, and the beginning letters and sounds. K'tanim is also focusing on the theme of "Tikkun Olam." Kristallnacht, The Night of Broken Glass, will be honored with poems, prayers, and discussions. This conversation will be woven into the concept of repairing the world and ways one person can make a difference. Everyone will make a cardboard decorative mezuzah for their home. Our Tot Shabbat and Family Shabbat will be on November 21st; plan for singing and dancing.

Important SJL December dates: Sunday the 14th Hanukkah (1st Night) School party, wear your fun Hanukkah sweater or T.

Shabbat - December 19th at 5:30 - Lights, Laughter, and Latkes dinner - Come Sing!
Saturday 20th at 5:00 Light up the Night in downtown Redlands.

*May this November fill your home with the beauty and bounty of the season,
Miss Ilene, Miss Karyn, & Miss Shaina*

Congregation Emanu El to Receive Holocaust Torah

Everyone has a story and a history, and a Torah scroll is no exception. Thanks to the facilitation of Debra Duncan, CAPT, MSC [ret], former congregant in Norfolk, VA, of Rabbi Cantor Bern-Vogel, and the board of Temple Adath Joseph of St. Joseph, Missouri, we will soon welcome a precious Holocaust Memorial Scroll. Congregation Emanu El will take over the care of the scroll thanks to the generosity of Captain Duncan, Rabbi Cantor Jennifer Bern-Vogel and Ira Vogel, in memory of their parents, all Holocaust survivors. The display case for the Torah is being shipped, thanks to the board members of Temple Adath Joseph, and the scroll is being personally transported [this time not by stagecoach!] by Captain Duncan.

Memorial Scrolls Trust (MST) #17 is one of the 1564 Torah scrolls and other scrolls that survived the Shoah in Czechoslovakia. They were saved from further destruction and loss in 1964 by Ralph Yablon z"l, who donated them to the Westminster Synagogue in London, where they arrived in 1964. The Memorial Scrolls Trust was subsequently created as an independent charity to be responsible for them. The Memorial Scrolls Trust has distributed some 1400 scrolls to communities and organizations around the world, from Alaska to New Zealand and Singapore to Buenos Aires.

Trustee of the Holocaust Memorial Scrolls in London, Jeffrey Ohrenstein, writes: "MST#17 is recorded as being written c.1800. It is one of 25 scrolls in our collection that were taken from (unknown) communities in and around Prague and put initially in the Malvazinky cemetery chapel for safe-keeping. They were later moved to the Jewish Museum in Prague. In 1958, all the scrolls were moved by the communists to a warehouse on the outskirts of Prague that had been the Michle Synagogue."

MST#17 was allocated to Temple Adath Joseph in 1993.
