Rabbi Cantor's Comments

Just when we thought we had 2025 down, it's time to start changing the number again!

At our Interfaith Thanksgiving Service in November, already two months ago, one of the speakers remarked, "Too bad we only get together like this once a year." At that moment, it hit me - why indeed, just once a year? Why not create another opportunity? When I suggested the idea to a couple of people, I was delighted that they shared my enthusiasm, and so our INTERFAITH SHABBAT MLK EVENT was born.

We will be welcoming faith leaders and choirs of various churches and the Islamic community to be with us for our MLK Shabbat service of RECONCILIATION: MOVING FORWARD IN HOPE AND PEACE on January 16th at 6:30 p.m.

As we head into the second half of this decade in this age of AI and technology, we will have to work even harder at guarding truth, humanity, and the simple values we endeavor to teach our children. The ugliness of Racism, Antisemitism, intolerance, and misunderstandings throughout the world makes it more important than ever to find ways to humanly connect. We can benefit from one another's wisdom and strength, which is what we aim to do on this special Friday in January. We hope you will join us!

Like an unchecked cancer, hate corrodes the personality and eats away its vital unity. Hate destroys a man's sense of values and his objectivity. It causes him to describe the beautiful as ugly and the ugly as beautiful, and to confuse the true with the false and the false with the true. - MLK

Continuing Series - Our Beloved Choir Members:

I'm Maurine Deen, a retired elementary school teacher. I was born and raised in Los Angeles. After marrying my husband, who worked for BNSF Railway, we moved to Hinkley (yes, that Hinkley of Erin Brokovich fame) before relocating to Redlands (thank goodness, because country living was NOT the life for me) where we raised our two children.

I have had the joy of singing with CEE since Musica Viva days with Dr Lois Musmann. Since then, I've sung for High Holy Days services and other events. I find the HHD services to be deeply moving, and I look forward to participating in them each year.

In addition to being part of the CEE choir, I also sing with St Dunstan's Choir at Trinity Episcopal Church and with the Community Chorus of Redlands. (This is where I insert a shameless plug for CCR -- we have a wonderful musical season this year, and I invite everyone to our concerts. Check our Facebook page for upcoming events. Oh, and we will be singing some secular songs in Hebrew during one of our concerts, so I hope my exposure to Hebrew will help with pronunciation!)

With blessings for 2026 of shalom, salaam, and peace -

Rabbi Cantor Jennifer Bern-Vogel

Presidential Perspectives

It was wonderful seeing so many of you at our Sisterhood Hanukkah dinner and service, as well as at our annual Light Up the Night celebration in Downtown Redlands. The Festival of Lights is truly a special time, and sharing it together made it all the more meaningful.

Abundant thanks to the Redlands Police Department for providing increased security during this event as well as increased patrols of our synagogue campus. The recent antisemitic events here locally and in Australia highlight the importance of community and how we must stay connected for the common good.

As we begin this new year, I want to wish each of you a very peaceful, happy and healthy 2026. May we carry forward this year all that is good, bright, and meaningful in our lives and community.

Lastly, as we continue our rabbinic search, I encourage every one of you to stay connected and engaged with our congregation. We are on the cusp of wonderful things here at Congregation Emanu El, and I look forward to moving forward—together—with each and every one of you.

Here's to a meaningful and beautiful 2026!

Cheers,

Treasurer's Report

Happy New Year!
Welcome to 2026.
Another year to look forward to the programs, activities, social events, learning opportunities, and spending time with friends here at Congregation

Emanu El.

Plan on being at Shabbat Services on, January 16th, when we will honor Martin Luther King, Jr. with faith leaders and their choirs from our community.

We very fortunate for the generosity of our members and many non-members who are supported of our Congregation in 2025. We are very thankful to have a very caring community.

May 2026 be a wonderful year for us all!

Sisterhood sponsored the Oneg Shabbat on December 5th honoring Julie Strain, a true Woman of Valor.

Rabbi Cantor called all Sisterhood members to come to the bima to join in reciting the V'ahavta, enjoying a truly warm moment. Julie's mother, Francine Wixen from Indio, attended services which was a nice surprise for Julie.

Julie touches everyone and all aspects of our Temple Community and she does it with warmth, knowledge and quite a passion for our welfare.

Thank you Julie for all you do for Congregation Emanu El.

Sisterhood Speaks

Sisterhood is all about celebrating the joy of Judaism together!

We recently hosted a wonderful Shabbat Hanukkah dinner where we gathered for meaningful prayer with Rabbi Cantor Jennifer, enjoyed entertainment from our SJL students, and relished delicious, traditional latkes made by Stephen Lehmann and his dedicated crew. A big thank you goes out to Kathy Trainor for organizing yet another beautiful evening that fostered a true sense of community belonging. It was great seeing everyone there!

We have much to look forward to in 2026. The Mahjong tournament is making its return on Monday, February 16th (President's Day weekend). Since this is now Sisterhood's largest fundraiser, we would deeply appreciate your help with prize donations. We need them all, big or small! Simply drop them off at the temple office during the hours 10:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m. or Sundays during SJL.

May the new year bring peace to the world and joy to you and your loved ones.

Ilene Mino, Sisterhood President

Youth Documentary Academy

If a dear young friend of yours had killed himself, and you wanted to memorialize him to show the world how special he was, how loveable he was, how would you do that?

Recently, KVCR-TV showed two short films that teen-age girls created to honor their friends, both boys who died by suicide. The girls were helped in their creations by something called the Youth Documentary Academy that brings professional filmmakers to work with budding filmmakers.

One, Kalia Hunter, was honoring her friend, Dom. She saw him as a creative, energetic, loving natural leader who had many devoted friends, but who suffered terribly when his mother suddenly died and his father was away in Afghanistan in the U.S. military. Dom changed radically and before very long, he took his own life.

Another, Kallista Palapas, lost her friend, Ricky when he was 16 years old. He always appeared to be happy. He was social and generous, but no one could see inside his heart. He had sought therapy years ago, but none of his friends knew his inner sufferings. Until one day he shot himself and died. Kallista saw Ricky's refusal to show his heart to even his best friends as the central reason he ended his life. If only.....

If only we all could be more open with our difficulties.... If only we could admit we need support and help.... If only we could admit we need a good friend to confide in.... Wouldn't we all be better off, more comfortable with the world and with ourselves?

Over and over we have said "Talk about it," whatever the "it" is – anxiety, depression, emotional pain, thoughts about suicide. Could Ricky be looking down from wherever he has gone and wondering how things might have been different if he had talked to Kallista about his despair? She had her ears open and ready. He had a life ahead of him. Kallista's film, "I'll Be There," begs us all to be there for each other and to talk about our inner hearts.

A new year is here. Let's make it one where we talk about it and where we listen with our open hearts. When two hearts join in mutual acceptance and trust, the world and life start glowing.

Happy (secular) New Year,
Nancy Sidhu and Heidi Nimmo, Co-Chairs, Mental Health Awareness In Action (MHAIA)

From Our School for Jewish Living

December was all about standing up for oneself and others, while discovering how "doing the right thing" relates to good decision-making, empathy, and character. We made snack bags for Mica House in Redlands and included sweet notes of positive thoughts. Students enjoyed the blessings and cultural fun of Chaunkah, with our party on the 14th, Latke Dinner on the 19th, and ending with Light Up the Night on the 20th. Special thanks to Michelle Zipperstein for leading the students in their musical performance.

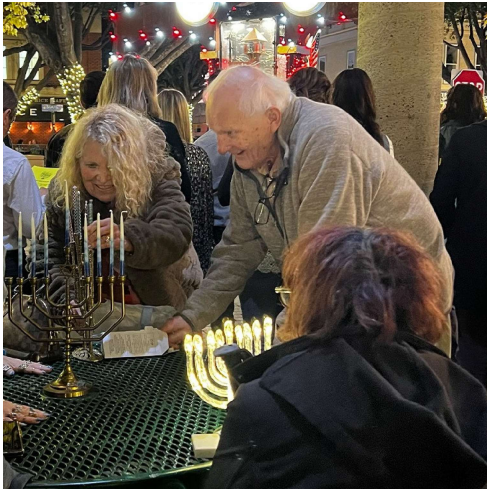

Since even our youngest students can potentially be exposed to antisemitism in different forms, which can lead to much confusion in young minds as to what it means to be a Jew in the modern world. We are focusing on increasing our Jewish pride. Ben Freeman has carried out speaking engagements all over the world on the topic of Jewish pride and how it enhances children's self worth. His research has shown that focusing on increasing Jewish pride "...is a proven antidote to the destructive power of hate". At SJL we will continue to focus on strengthening our student's Jewish pride through rejoicing in our Jewish traditions, holidays, music, literature and expressing our love for Judaism, as well as our social justice projects for this year. Speaking of; Emerson's Book Drive has +1,000 books! Thank you to all our donors.

Just like Emerson, as you step into this New Year, may your journey be filled with new adventures and countless stories to discover! Just like the books she has collected may each day bring you a new chapter of joy, growth, and inspiration. Cheers to a year of exploration, imagination, and collaboration....

With Love,
Miss Ilene, Miss Karyn, & Miss Shaina

Rabbi Cohn to deliver sermon on “Jew of the Year for 2025”

On Friday night, January 2nd, Rabbi Emeritus Hillel Cohn will deliver the sermon at our Erev Shabbat service. He will speak on “Jew of the Year for 2025.” In 1974 Rabbi Cohn began the custom of devoting the first sermon of the new secular year to announcing his choice of a “Jew of the year” for the secular year just ended. He continued that practice over the years in our congregation as well as the two congregations that he served after retiring as our rabbi in 2001 (Adat Ari El in Las Vegas and Sun City Jewish Services in Palm Desert). We look forward to learning whom Rabbi Cohn has selected as the “Jew of the Year for 2025”.

Thank you God for creating the fruit tree.

Please join us for a
Tu B'Shvat Seder
Sunday, February, 1st at 10:30 a.m.
with the children and families of SJL.

Just as at a Passover seder, symbolic foods are eaten in a special order in celebration of the important role trees play in our life. It's traditional to eat Israeli fruits, such as figs, dates, and carobs.

Engage and learn about Tu B'Shvat with a sampling of different types of fruits and nuts, juice, and challah.

We will review the blessing we say before eating fruit with the children, borei p'ri ha'eitz, while enjoying the morning together.
